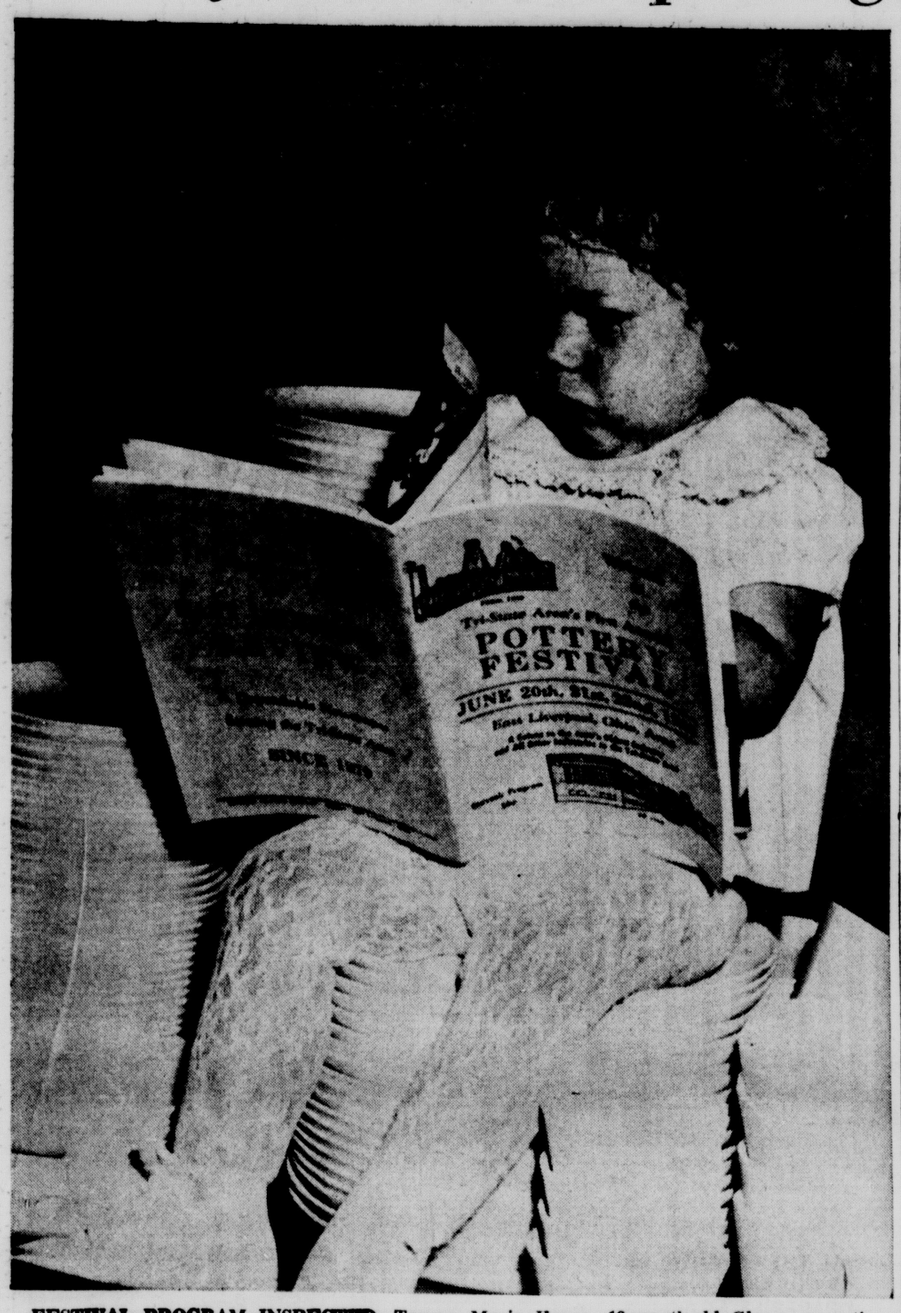
City Prepares For Area Pottery Festival Opening



FESTIVAL PROGRAM INSPECTED. Tracey Marie House, 18-month-old Glenmoor cutie, gives the 32-page Tri-State Pottery Festival program a critical glance in planning her activities this week. She is the daughter of Mrs. Connie House of Wyoming St. and Ed House Jr. of Rota, Spain.

Final preparations have been made for the opening of the Tri-State Pottery Festival Thursday, officials of the first annual event announced today.

The 32-page souvenir program, listing the planned activities and containing histories of the area's ceramic firms and others, has been placed on sale.

Representatives of the festival and city authorities have completed arrangements for setting up the booths, handling traffic and protecting equipment during the three-day event which will continue through Saturday.

Booths of civic groups and other organizations and amusement rides will be located on 5th St. from Broadway to Market St. and on Washington St. from 6th to 4th Sts.

JACK HILL, chairman of the "mall" booth project, met with Fire Chief Alfred VanDyne and Police Chief Americo Radeschi to discuss details of the event.

Motorists are requested when approaching the downtown from Pennsylvania Ave. to utilize Broadway to Third St. for bypassing the main downtown streets and to help reduce congestion on 4th St.

Emergency lanes will be kept clear on 5th and Washington for use by fire trucks, ambulances, police cars and utility vehicles if needed, Hill said. A fireman will be on duty during the day, provided by the fire department. A fireman and extra police will be retained by the festival committee for night hours, Hill said.

Parking will be banned from the festival section of the two streets starting Wednesday at 6 p.m. to permit erection of booths and rides.

H. Jud English, general chairman, and Hill expressed appreciation to Mayor George Willshaw and city authorities for cooperation and support for the festival.

IT WAS pointed out the use of the streets for the fete will cause some inconvenience for motorists, but the city will be playing host to large numbers of district visitors and the event will bring new attention to the community's role as hub of the tri-state area.

Mrs. Geraldine Reed and Mrs. Helen Moore, who produced the souvenir program sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club, said the 2,000 copies are available now at downtown stores and will be at the festival headquarters in the former Moore building when the fete opens. Profits from the sale will be used toward the expenses of the festival.

Members of the high school Nike Club, who will serve as festival hostesses, also will sell programs, Mrs. Reed said.

The festival headquarters will feature demonstrations of casting by Jack Harris and hand decorating of ware by Mrs. Leona Watson.

Also scheduled at the building, according to Mrs. Sidney Porter Jr. and Mrs. Marvin Kinsey, co-chairmen of the

ELTA To Air Grievance With Board Of Education

The board of directors of the East Liverpool Teachers Association today said the grievance concerning the extra - assignment index of faculty members will be presented to the board of education.

Supt. Paul Blair and Clifford Lynch, high school principal, Saturday stated there was no preferential treatment given Robert McNea, football coach, in the extra assignments, and they would not recommend any changes to the board.

The administrators also claimed the ELTA board had violated the proper procedure for discussing such grievances by revealing the issue to the public.

The ELTA declared the issue had previously been revealed through the resignations of McNea and three grid aides and the subsequent withdrawals of the resignations and Supt. Blair's explanation of the actions.

HERE IS the text of the statement released today by the ELTA board:

"The group of high school teachers who felt the morale of the high school staff was at such a low ebb that a drastic step must be taken to make the administration aware of this situation filed a petition with the high school principal, Mr. Clifford Lynch, prior to the dismissal of school.

"Because of commencement activities, he asked if he could give his decision on June 6. His decision at that time was to have a meeting with all signees of the grievance on June 13, thus delaying the proceedings for one more week. The teachers involved, however, went along with this request.

"In the intervening time period we read where our association is being linked with the 'resignations' of the football coaches. There appeared an article on Monday, June 10, which quoted Mr. Blair as stating that

Eisenhower 'Stable' After Major Attack

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower was reported today to have remained "alert and in good spirits" since his heart attack on Saturday night. His heart rate and respiration have remained stable.

"There has been no recurrence of pain since the initial episode the night of June 15th," a medical bulletin from the hospital said. "No signs of heart failure have appeared."

Doctors did not minimize the danger although stable usually means the patient's treatment and condition are satisfactory.

Maj. George Foster, public affairs officer at the hospital, said in answer to a question doctors said they considered this "a major" attack.

The attack came Saturday night at Walter Reed, where the 77-year-old five-star general was recuperating from a mild heart seizure which struck him April 29 at Palm Desert, Calif., where he keeps a winter home.

In the Sunday announcement disclosing the latest attack, the hospital said, "The general spent a comfortable night and his present condition is stable."

Gen. Thang Ousted By Van Thieu

Closeness To Ky Believed Reason For Command Loss

SAIGON (AP) — A dynamic South Vietnamese general regarded as too honest by many of his colleagues has been dumped from another top job, reliable sources reported today.

The ouster of Lt. Gen. Nguyen Duc Thang was regarded here as part of President Nguyen Van Thieu's purge of senior military men allied with Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky.

Thang, who is 37, was once the American-supported boss of the pacification program. For the past four months he has commanded the 4th Corps Area, which includes the Mekong Delta.

Thang, a native of North Vietnam, has removed eight province chiefs for corruption and revitalized the military effort in the delta.

Reliable sources said Thang's closeness to Ky was the main reason that he was replaced today by Lt. Gen. Nguyen Van Le, former inspector general of the armed forces. Thang is for the time being on "indefinite sick leave," a euphemism for being fired, the sources said. His dismissal had been rumored for a week.

Senior American officials considered the heavy-set, jut-jawed Thang the most energetic, efficient and competent figure in the Vietnamese government. But this was not enough to save him from fellow officers who disliked the manner in which he made war on corruption and from the power struggle between President Thieu and Vice President Ky.

The delta command was the third job Thang had held in less than a year. He was removed from the pacification program last August and given the No. 2 job in the armed forces. This ostensibly was a promotion, but Thang found that he was powerless to introduce any reforms.

He was appointed to the 4th Corps command on Feb. 27 to replace a mediocre officer about whom persistent reports of corruption circulated.

Cong Sampans Carrying Rockets Through Jungle

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Viet Cong rockets bombarding Saigon were brought into South Vietnam from Cambodian storage areas in sampans moving at night along jungle-shrouded waterways, according to U.S. intelligence sources.

When the sampans, each carrying four or five of the weapons, arrive at a designated point in South Vietnam, they are sunk—with the rockets encased in waterproof containers—until the Viet Cong are ready to use them.

From prisoner interrogation and other sources of information, American intelligence specialists have pieced together a pattern indicating how the North Vietnamese are able to send the weapons deep into South Vietnam, to the point where they can be hurled against that country's capital and its population.

Stored Near Border

The rockets, mostly 122 millimeter, come down from North Vietnam by truck, passing through the Laotian panhandle, U.S. officials say, and on into Cambodia where they are stored near the South Vietnamese border.

They are then carried across the border along any of the more than 1,300 square miles of waterways reaching from Cambodia into the Saigon region.

Hundreds of sampans are said to operate along these streams for the Viet Cong, carrying rice as well as weapons and other supplies from Cambodia. Moving mostly at night, the boats are hard to spot.

The Cambodian government, which professes neutrality, repeatedly has denied that its soil is being used as a supply and troop base by North Vietnam and the Viet Cong.

Favorable Conditions

The waterways are running deep now, experts said, because of the rains and this creates favorable conditions for their use as supply routes into South Vietnam.

At the appointed time, the Viet Cong raise the sunken boats, take the rockets from their containers and then move them into firing position.

Weapons experts of the Army Materiel Command estimate that it takes less than five minutes to set up a rocket, fire it and then be gone.

The rocket is described as "an area weapon," that is, there is no way to aim it against pinpoint targets. Rather, it is pointed generally at a large target; such as a city or town, and fired.

The 122 millimeter rocket assembly comes in three parts and weighs a total of about 214 pounds.

U.S. weapons authorities say that a crew of three men can handle and fire the rocket, but that as many as five may be involved in a fire team.

The 122 millimeter rocket has a range of about 6.8 miles according to U.S. calculations. One intelligence report reaching here said the 107 millimeter rocket, also being fired by the VC, has a range of 26.7 miles. Other specifics on this rocket were not immediately available.

Intensified bombing in the lower part of North Vietnam and Laos is believed to be knocking out about one-third of the North Vietnamese trucks heading South. With the Viet Cong threatening intensified shelling of Saigon, U.S. commanders have increased heavily the number of B52 bomber and other air strikes concentrating on the lower and of the Ho Chi Minh trail.

Viet Source Says 12 Hit Along Coast

U.S. Headquarters Sets Recon Flights To Check Damage

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. military headquarters said today that aircraft "suspected to be enemy helicopters" were fired on during the weekend near the demilitarized zone that divides Vietnam.

A brief announcement added that a daylight reconnaissance was made today to ascertain damage and obtain other information, but "no results are available."

The statement from the military command tended to partly confirm other reports that from 2 to 12 Russian-built helicopters had been downed over the weekend south of the DMZ.

Radar Sightings

However, the announcement from U.S. headquarters said the aircraft were sighted by radar near the eastern end of the DMZ and north of the Ben Hai river, meaning that they were over the demilitarized zone itself or to the north.

Vietnamese military sources said the helicopters were downed by artillery and U.S. Navy F4 Phantom jets Saturday and Sunday.

If true, this would be the first time any enemy helicopters have been downed in South Vietnam.

It was not known whether the enemy craft were lifting troops or material or were on a reconnaissance mission.

The Vietnamese sources gave this account:

Three turbo-powered, single-rotor M14 helicopters, capable of carrying 14 combat troops or about 2½ tons of cargo, were shot down along the coast by allied artillery Saturday night.

Choppers Intercepted

Sunday night the North Vietnamese tried to slip another flight of the choppers down the coast, but the Navy Phantoms pounced on them. Nine were shot from the sky, and one exploded before crashing into the sea, indicating it was carrying ammunition.

Six in all were downed in the South China Sea, one crashed on the beach and two went down farther inland.

U.S. Air Force planes spotted and destroyed four MI4 helicopters and two of the huge Soviet M16 helicopters last Oct. 6 at a field 30 miles west of Hanoi.

Grenade Attack

In the ground war, grenade-throwing South Vietnamese troops raced from bunker to bunker to wipe out a Viet Cong stronghold in a Saigon suburb.

The elite Special Forces troops, brought to Saigon to free a hamlet held by the Viet Cong for two weeks, killed 30 guerrillas and drove 100 others into rice fields along the Saigon River. They took 15 prisoners.

Only a few of the Green Beret soldiers were wounded in the daring night assault after two days of frustrating repulses.

The Viet Cong on May 24 sent some 800 men into the hamlet, a collection of pleasant villas and garden plots in the suburb of Gia Dinh about three miles northeast of the center of Saigon. Government troops blocked their advance, and at least one battalion dug in and prepared bunkers through an area of three fourths of a square mile.

Seven Are Held In Death Of Man

A 20-year-old girl and six men of a Beaver County motorcycle gang are in jail today facing charges in connection with the death of a Baden man who was knocked off a moving auto near Zelienople early Sunday.

Daniel Mihalic, 21, died at North Hills Passavant Hospital, where he was taken after residents of the area heard his moaning while sprawled on Route 588 in north Beaver County.

Pennsylvania state police at Chippewa said Mihalic apparently was riding on the outside of a car driven by Nancy Stewart, 20, of Coraopolis, his arms around the center post.

POLICE said his body struck a pole marking a culvert, severing his right leg, then he was dragged 85 feet, where he came to rest in the westbound lane.

Officers said the girl drove on to Coraopolis without stopping to see what had happened to him.

State police and Beaver County detectives said the two had been part of a drinking party of four young women and 12 men at an abandoned strip mine in the Zelienople - Fombell area. About 4 or 5 a.m., a number of them left, leaving Miss Stewart, Mihalic and five others, reportedly members of the "Chain Gang and Associates."

Officers said the Stewart woman and Mihalic left the mine about 7 a.m. to get cigarettes, and the brushing incident occurred about four miles west of Zelienople.

Residents of the area summoned an ambulance and Mihalic was taken to the North

Students End Long Battle At Sorbonne

Revolutionaries' Flag Hauled Down By French Police

PARIS (AP) — The Sorbonne, symbol of France's student revolt, fell to the gendarmes Sunday after a month's occupation, and today a student organization said it would halt street fighting, recognizing "that the students alone cannot continue the battle without support."

Angry students had battled the police again in the Latin Quarter Sunday night after the authorities had forced out the last 150 occupiers, hauled down the red and black flags of revolution and anarchy, and run up the French blue, white and red tricolor.

A break was also apparently at hand among striking autoworkers, die-hard holdouts of last month's national strike. About 65,000 workers at the state-run Renault plants were reported voting in favor to return to work on the basis of a 10 per cent salary increase by Oct. 1 and reduction of their work week.

The National Students Union —UNEF— made its declaration of peaceful intentions, barring further "provocation," while police hygiene squads began cleaning up what they said was an "indescribable mess" in the Sorbonne. Classes are expected to resume in a week.

The lecture halls were strewn with stale bits of bread, rotten apples, empty bottles and other trash. The library was a shambles.

Red Squeeze Being Felt In West Berlin

BONN (AP) — The West German Cabinet searched today for ways to combat the new Communist squeeze on West Berlin as the isolated city and the western half of Germany marked the anniversary of the 1953 uprising in East Germany.

Officials said Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger might fly to Washington to talk to President Johnson about the situation. The government announced Friday that Kiesinger would write or telephone the president, but officials now are talking about a personal visit to dramatize West Germany's concern.

Kiesinger called his Cabinet together to discuss what to do about the new Communist taxes and restrictions on surface travel between West Germany and West Berlin. Parliament is to debate the situation later in the week.

The United States, Britain and France have protested the East German regulations, which include passports by July 15 for all West Germans and West Berliners traveling by surface routes, visas and increased taxes and travel costs on German goods shipped overland. Kiesinger announced that his government would pay the increases, which are estimated at $18.5 million a year.

Foreign Minister Willy Brandt said Saturday that protests by the Western allies would not be sufficient to meet the situation, but he did not suggest what else the allies could do.

President Sets Priority For Tougher Gun Laws

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pressure for tougher gun control laws continues to build across the nation, but one presidential candidate has called for caution in framing the bills and the National Rifle Association has started a campaign against stiffer legislation.

President Johnson over the weekend ordered a top-priority campaign to get Congress to pass an administration-proposed bill restricting the sale of rifles and other long guns.

Presidential aide Joseph A. Califano Jr., told newsmen at the Texas White House Saturday that "there will be no stone unturned in trying to get this passed. There will be total involvement, not only of the attorney general and the Justice Department but also of the President himself."

But the leading opponent of strong gun-control laws, the National Rifle Association, plans a letter-writing drive to get its 900,000 members to inundate Congress with mail against the bill.

Past efforts by the NRA have been singularly successful. But there are indications that this time the organization will have tougher going as the public continues to press for the stiffer laws in the wake of the pistol slaying of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, running for the Democratic presidential nomination, while calling for new laws, warned against legislation passed "under panic conditions."

The Minnesota senator said Sunday he is for a federal program of registration of "sidearms and on what would be considered heavy guns." States also should pass stronger laws or enforce those now on the books, McCarthy said.

There was one incident Sunday in Battle Creek, Mich., where pleas from a Roman Catholic priest to his parishioners that they turn in their guns to be destroyed went unheeded.

In two sermons Sunday, the Rev. John Huhn, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church, asked

Trailer Demolished On Barrier At Bridge

A camping trailer pulled by a Hanoverton man's auto was demolished this morning when it struck a heavy metal I-beam placed across the approach to the Chester Bridge to help enforce a height limit on vehicles.

The collision cut short the vacation plans of Mr. and Mrs. Ferrall Lowe of Hanoverton and their two children, who were en route to Washington and a tour of the southeastern states.

The trailer literally was torn apart and the family's belongings were strewn on the pavement. A tow truck was called to remove the wreckage. The crash timed about 10 a.m. Police indicated no one was hurt.

Area Temperatures To Be Below Normal

Below - normal temperatures will continue through Saturday, according to the weatherman.

Daytime highs will average in the 70s and overnight lows in the 50s, with not much day-to-day change until warmer weather returns toward the weekend.

Scattered showers can be expected Thursday through Saturday.

Cong Sampans Carrying Rockets Through Jungle

Pennsylvania state police at Chippewa said Mihalic apparently was riding on the outside of a car driven by Nancy Stewart, 20, of Coraopolis, his arms around the center post.

POLICE said his body struck a pole marking a culvert, severing his right leg, then he was dragged 85 feet, where he came to rest in the westbound lane.

Officers said the girl drove on to Coraopolis without stopping to see what had happened to him.

State police and Beaver County detectives said the two had been part of a drinking party of four young women and 12 men at an abandoned strip mine in the Zelienople - Fombell area. About 4 or 5 a.m., a number of them left, leaving Miss Stewart, Mihalic and five others, reportedly members of the "Chain Gang and Associates."

Officers said the Stewart woman and Mihalic left the mine about 7 a.m. to get cigarettes, and the brushing incident occurred about four miles west of Zelienople.

Residents of the area summoned an ambulance and Mihalic was taken to the North

Red Squeeze Being Felt In West Berlin

BONN (AP) — The West German Cabinet searched today for ways to combat the new Communist squeeze on West Berlin as the isolated city and the western half of Germany marked the anniversary of the 1953 uprising in East Germany.

Officials said Chancellor Kurt Georg Kiesinger might fly to Washington to talk to President Johnson about the situation. The government announced Friday that Kiesinger would write or telephone the president, but officials now are talking about a personal visit to dramatize West Germany's concern.

Kiesinger called his Cabinet together to discuss what to do about the new Communist taxes and restrictions on surface travel between West Germany and West Berlin. Parliament is to debate the situation later in the week.

The United States, Britain and France have protested the East German regulations, which include passports by July 15 for all West Germans and West Berliners traveling by surface routes, visas and increased taxes and travel costs on German goods shipped overland. Kiesinger announced that his government would pay the increases, which are estimated at $18.5 million a year.

Foreign Minister Willy Brandt said Saturday that protests by the Western allies would not be sufficient to meet the situation, but he did not suggest what else the allies could do.

President Sets Priority For Tougher Gun Laws

WASHINGTON (AP) — Pressure for tougher gun control laws continues to build across the nation, but one presidential candidate has called for caution in framing the bills and the National Rifle Association has started a campaign against stiffer legislation.

President Johnson over the weekend ordered a top-priority campaign to get Congress to pass an administration-proposed bill restricting the sale of rifles and other long guns.

Presidential aide Joseph A. Califano Jr., told newsmen at the Texas White House Saturday that "there will be no stone unturned in trying to get this passed. There will be total involvement, not only of the attorney general and the Justice Department but also of the President himself."

But the leading opponent of strong gun-control laws, the National Rifle Association, plans a letter-writing drive to get its 900,000 members to inundate Congress with mail against the bill.

Past efforts by the NRA have been singularly successful. But there are indications that this time the organization will have tougher going as the public continues to press for the stiffer laws in the wake of the pistol slaying of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, running for the Democratic presidential nomination, while calling for new laws, warned against legislation passed "under panic conditions."

The Minnesota senator said Sunday he is for a federal program of registration of "side-arms and on what would be considered heavy guns." States also should pass stronger laws or enforce those now on the books, McCarthy said.

There was one incident Sunday in Battle Creek, Mich., where pleas from a Roman Catholic priest to his parishioners that they turn in their guns to be destroyed went unheeded.

In two sermons Sunday, the Rev. John Huhn, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church, asked

Students End Long Battle At Sorbonne

Revolutionaries' Flag Hauled Down By French Police

PARIS (AP) — The Sorbonne, symbol of France's student revolt, fell to the gendarmes Sunday after a month's occupation, and today a student organization said it would halt street fighting, recognizing "that the students alone cannot continue the battle without support."

Angry students had battled the police again in the Latin Quarter Sunday night after the authorities had forced out the last 150 occupiers, hauled down the red and black flags of revolution and anarchy, and run up the French blue, white and red tricolor.

A break was also apparently at hand among striking autoworkers, die-hard holdouts of last month's national strike. About 65,000 workers at the state-run Renault plants were reported voting in favor to return to work on the basis of a 10 per cent salary increase by Oct. 1 and reduction of their work week.

The National Students Union —UNEF— made its declaration of peaceful intentions, barring further "provocation," while police hygiene squads began cleaning up what they said was an "indescribable mess" in the Sorbonne. Classes are expected to resume in a week.

The lecture halls were strewn with stale bits of bread, rotten apples, empty bottles and other trash. The library was a shambles.

Trailer Demolished On Barrier At Bridge

A camping trailer pulled by a Hanoverton man's auto was demolished this morning when it struck a heavy metal I-beam placed across the approach to the Chester Bridge to help enforce a height limit on vehicles.

The collision cut short the vacation plans of Mr. and Mrs. Ferrall Lowe of Hanoverton and their two children, who were en route to Washington and a tour of the southeastern states.

The trailer literally was torn apart and the family's belongings were strewn on the pavement. A tow truck was called to remove the wreckage. The crash timed about 10 a.m. Police indicated no one was hurt.

Area Temperatures To Be Below Normal

Below - normal temperatures will continue through Saturday, according to the weatherman.

Daytime highs will average in the 70s and overnight lows in the 50s, with not much day-to-day change until warmer weather returns toward the weekend.

Scattered showers can be expected Thursday through Saturday.

6 Mishaps Investigated By Patrol Over Weekend

A city man was injured Saturday, in one of six highway mishaps investigated by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon over the weekend.

Treated at City Hospital was John W. Jackson, 47, of RD 4, for pains in the right side of the neck and shoulder.

Officers said the mishap occurred at 11:15 p.m. on Route 7 about a mile south of Route 14 when the 1965 sedan, driven by Jackson, veered off the right side of the road to avoid a 1965 panel truck which was left of center.

The truck, operated by Wilford B. Davis, 42, of Rogers RD 1, continued to the left and collided with the sedan, the patrol added.

Davis was cited for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

Cars driven by two city residents were damaged badly in a collision at the intersection of County Rds. 435 and 436 Sunday at 1 a. m.

Patrolmen said a 1960 sedan driven by Eugene J. Black, 37, of RD 3 was damaged on the front and a 1964 sedan operated by Gary L. Wagner, 18, of Surrey Rd. was wrecked on the right side when the vehicles crashed at the intersection.

Wagner was cited by the patrol for failure to halt at a stop sign.

A Columbiana woman was cited following a mishap on Route 558 near the East Palestine city limits Sunday at 6:10 p.m.

Patrolmen said the sedan, driven by William D. Fullerton, 44, of 70 Cyland Ave., East Palestine, then went off the right side of the road, crossed back to the left and came to rest in a plowed field.

Both cars were damaged moderately on the left front.

Two East Palestine motorists were involved in a mishap on Route 165, a half-mile north of Route 14 Sunday at 11:25 p.m.

Richard A. Blower, 17, of 125 E. Main St. said his 1964 coach was northbound on Route 165 when he saw a 1966 sedan slowing to turn into a private drive. Blower said he applied his brakes, lost control of the car, which went off the left side of the roadway, striking two mail boxes and a paper box.

The sedan, operated by Ida McDevitt of RD 1 was not hit, officers reported.

A Morgantown (W. Va.) man was cited as the aftermath of a three-car collision Saturday on Route 172, 5½ miles east of Route 9.

Bruce N. Gilbert was charged with failure to stop in the assured clear distance after his 1967 coach, westbound on Route 172, crashed into the rear of a 1964 sedan halted at a stop sign at 10:50 a. m.

The force of the impact then drove the sedan, driven by William E. Osborn, 72, of 317 W. 4th St., into another halted sedan operated by William Reed, 26, of 301 8th St., Wellsville.

Two Salem residents complained of injuries following a mishap on Route 45, a half-mile north of Lisbon Saturday at 9:45 p. m.

Reporting they would contact their personal physician were Harold Everson, 28, driver of the auto, and Theresa Everson, 24.

Everson told officers the mishap occurred when his 1959 sedan, turning into a private drive, was struck by the northbound 1960 coach, driven by James E. Chadwell, 22, of Box 69, Lisbon.

Chadwell was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

DECORATING of the streets and stores is expected to start today, with special flags and bunting to be used.

Several merchants plan window displays of pottery and glassware or clothing of various eras in the nation's history.

The festival will begin Thursday morning at 10.

Entertainment will include high school bands, the musicians' union concert band, modern combos, singers, choruses, acrobatic acts, dancing, a karate demonstration, country and western music and other acts.

The entertainment will be presented at the Potters Bank and Trust Co. lot at Washington and 4th Sts.

A World Pottery Olympics will be held Saturday afternoon at 2.

Tours of the area potteries will be available throughout the fete.

Teachers

the ELTA had asked the school board to study the extra-assignment index of the coaches, and he thought that was a big factor in the resignations.

"According to our negotiations agreement with the board, no press release shall be made without mutual consent. Mr. Blair, then, not only violated our instrument of negotiations by telling what was being discussed, but also was erroneous by stating that we were studying the coaches' index.

"THEN WEDNESDAY, June 12, the violation was repeated when our superintendent stated that the ELTA wanted to negotiate extra faculty assignments. He then stated that the exra-curricular index would not be negotiated for 1968-1969. We realize this.

"The board of education asked the ETA negotiating team to submit the association's proposals on this issue.

"This will be done with the hopes that in working together with the administration and board of education we will be able to write a more equitable index for 1969-70. For that school year, the issue is negotiable.

"Had the coaches not resigned attempting to make the association look guilty for what was happening, and had the superintendent not made statements to the press, the article appearing in last Friday's paper would not have been written. Association members were receiving many calls wanting to know what the dispute concerned, so the board of directors felt that it should make its stand public.

"The issue concerning the grievance by the high school faculty will move on to the board of education, since it is obvious that the administrators refuse to acknowledge that a problem exists. Their stand on preferential treatment remains unchanged.

"We then would like to pose two questions, of many we could ask. If there is no preferential treatment, why does the boys' intramural director receive one period to compensate for running a program during the lunch hour, whereas the other intramural directors in the city do not?

"If the money received is based on a full teaching load, how can the administration allow one individual to teach only one-half day and spend the rest of the day earning money for extra-curricular activities?

"Since this is in line with current school policy, it is the ELTA's hope to change the policy. We have some suggestions to offer in this area, but since they are part of current negotiations, we wish to keep our good faith with the board of education who, we feel, has treated us very fairly by not discussing them at this time.

"The teachers in the system are interested in getting these issues resolved so that with the advent of the new buildings in September we can get on with the business of educating the youth of the community.

"If the administrators, however, refuse to acknowledge that there is unrest among the faculty members and continue to use such words as "jealousy' when dealing with educated adults, then the problem will get much worse before it gets better."

Jurors View Fatality's Site

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury went to Glenmoor this morning to view the place on Route 267 where a boy was killed by a car April 27, 1967.

Testimony began afterward at the Courthouse in the trial of William K. Betteridge, 57, of Lisbon St. Ext., East Liverpool, charged with traffic manslaughter.

The victim was Carl W. W. Smith, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Glenmoor, who was attempting to cross the highway.

Donald D. Shay of East Liverpool, defense counsel, said the evidence will show Betteridge was not at fault, that the boy ran into the right front fender of his car.

The January Grand Jury's indictment alleges Betteridge was driving too fast for conditions and driving too fast to stop in an assured clear distance.

Richard J. Clark of East Liverpool, assistant prosecuting attorney, is representing the state. On the jury sworn in by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard are:

Martha Weaver and Alva Webber, East Liverpool; Louise M. Johnson, Salineville; Myrtle McPherson, Lisbon; Beatrice Rupp, West Point; Charles Hamilton, Columbiana; Lotus Nichols, East Palestine, and Phyllis Mattevi, Lloyd Robusch, Ralph McCowin, Mildred Dean and James Peters, Salem. Blanche Baker, Salineville, is the alternate.

Nobody did.

Expressing disappointment, the Rev. Huhn said "perhaps it was just a general reluctance or fear ... to stand up publicly and do something."

In addition to tne President's bill, which is up for reconsideration in the House Judiciary Committee Thursday after being blocked by a tie vote last week, even tougher legislation is before Congress.

One bill, sponsored by Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., and nine other senators, picked up an influential backer when Senate Majority leader Mike Mansfield added his suport Saturday.

The Tydings bill provides for fedcral registration and a permit for all firearms, unless states pass their own registration laws.

President Johnson's bill is far less stringent in calling for a ban on mail-order sale of handguns, now contained in the omnibus crime bill, to be extended to "long guns."

ROLLS ON LARGE CASTERS — Large easy rolling casters let the HOOVER move about with complete ease. Store it in one place...use it in another.

SAVES $$ ON DETERGENT — The washing action is so efficient, it needs less detergent than the agitator or tumbler-type washer. It has a SUDS-SAVER, too!

FAMILY-SIZE LOADS — 2 Double Sheets plus pillow cases, or 36 diapers, or 12 men's shirts. Washes even the most delicate things.

WASHES FAST — The HOOVER washes a full load of laundry in four minutes or less, in a gleaming lifetime stainless steel washtub.

TURBO-ACTION AGITATION — The unique HOOVER energy disk, located on the back of the washer tub, actually surges water through the clothes. This remarkable wash action gets clothes really clean.

DRIES IN SECONDS — The clothes are spun at the amazing speed of 2,000 RPM, this enables the washer to extract soap or detergents that can't be rinsed out. Laundry comes out really damp-dry.

SAVES $$ ON WATER — Uses only 1/3 the amount of water that most automatics use. Saves up to 100 gallons every 3 loads.

NO PLUMBING NECESSARY — Needs no plumbing, needs no installation. Just roll the HOOVER to any sink, slip on the hose and start washing. Pump empties washer automatically.

EASY TO SERVICE — No gears or complicated control panels. Truly a do-it-yourself washer. Belt replacement is a breeze...less need for costly service.

Two Salem residents complained of injuries following a mishap on Route 45, a half-mile north of Lisbon Saturday at 9:45 p. m.

Reporting they would contact their personal physician were Harold Everson, 28, driver of the auto, and Theresa Everson, 24.

Everson told officers the mishap occurred when his 1959 sedan, turning into a private drive, was struck by the northbound 1960 coach, driven by James E. Chadwell, 22, of Box 69, Lisbon.

Chadwell was cited for failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

the ELTA had asked the school board to study the extra-assignment index of the coaches, and he thought that was a big factor in the resignations.

"According to our negotiations agreement with the board, no press release shall be made without mutual consent. Mr. Blair, then, not only violated our instrument of negotiations by telling what was being discussed, but also was erroneous by stating that we were studying the coaches' index.

"THEN WEDNESDAY, June 12, the violation was repeated when our superintendent stated that the ELTA wanted to negotiate extra faculty assignments. He then stated that the exra-curricular index would not be negotiated for 1968-1969. We realize this.

"The board of education asked the ETA negotiating team to submit the association's proposals on this issue.

"This will be done with the hopes that in working together with the administration and board of education we will be able to write a more equitable index for 1969-70. For that school year, the issue is negotiable.

"Had the coaches not resigned attempting to make the association look guilty for what was happening, and had the superintendent not made statements to the press, the article appearing in last Friday's paper would not have been written. Association members were receiving many calls wanting to know what the dispute concerned, so the board of directors felt that it should make its stand public.

"The issue concerning the grievance by the high school faculty will move on to the board of education, since it is obvious that the administrators refuse to acknowledge that a problem exists. Their stand on preferential treatment remains unchanged.

"We then would like to pose two questions, of many we could ask. If there is no preferential treatment, why does the boys' intramural director receive one period to compensate for running a program during the lunch hour, whereas the other intramural directors in the city do not?

"If the money received is based on a full teaching load, how can the administration allow one individual to teach only one-half day and spend the rest of the day earning money for extra-curricular activities?

"Since this is in line with current school policy, it is the ELTA's hope to change the policy. We have some suggestions to offer in this area, but since they are part of current negotiations, we wish to keep our good faith with the board of education who, we feel, has treated us very fairly by not discussing them at this time.

"The teachers in the system are interested in getting these issues resolved so that with the advent of the new buildings in September we can get on with the business of educating the youth of the community.

"If the administrators, however, refuse to acknowledge that there is unrest among the faculty members and continue to use such words as "jealousy" when dealing with educated adults, then the problem will get much worse before it gets better."

Jurors View Fatality's Site

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury went to Glenmoor this morning to view the place on Route 267 where a boy was killed by a car April 27, 1967.

Testimony began afterward at the Courthouse in the trial of William K. Betteridge, 57, of Lisbon St. Ext., East Liverpool, charged with traffic manslaughter.

The victim was Carl W. W. Smith, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith of Glenmoor, who was attempting to cross the highway.

Donald D. Shay of East Liverpool, defense counsel, said the evidence will show Betteridge was not at fault, that the boy ran into the right front fender of his car.

The January Grand Jury's indictment alleges Betteridge was driving too fast for conditions and driving too fast to stop in an assured clear distance.

Richard J. Clark of East Liverpool, assistant prosecuting attorney, is representing the state. On the jury sworn in by Judge Raymond S. Buzzard are:

Martha Weaver and Alva Webber, East Liverpool; Louise M. Johnson, Salineville; Myrtle McPherson, Lisbon; Beatrice Rupp, West Point; Charles Hamilton, Columbiana; Lotus Nichols, East Palestine, and Phyllis Mattevi, Lloyd Robusch, Ralph McCowin, Mildred Dean and James Peters, Salem. Blanche Baker, Salineville, is the alternate.

In addition to the President's bill, which is up for reconsideration in the House Judiciary Committee Thursday after being blocked by a tie vote last week, even tougher legislation is before Congress.

One bill, sponsored by Sen. Joseph D. Tydings, D-Md., and nine other senators, picked up an influential backer when Senate Majority leader Mike Mansfield added his suport Saturday.

The Tydings bill provides for federal registration and a permit for all firearms, unless states pass their own registration laws.

President Johnson's bill is far less stringent in calling for a ban on mail-order sale of handguns, now contained in the omnibus crime bill, to be extended to "long guns."

Back From The Brink

The crisis in France seems to be subsiding somewhat following the continued display of firmness on the part of President Charles de Gaulle.

Workers have been returning to their jobs in more and more factories and the student unrest has diminished.

Although the big automobile plants still are idle, taxi drivers in Paris have reached a tentative accord with city officials in their dispute and the big backlog of mail which accumulated during the postmen's three-week strike is being reduced.

ACADEMIC AND INDUSTRIAL turmoil is definitely lessening following De Gaulle's crackdown on leftist agitators and the expulsion of 43 foreigners in 24 hours.

Whether or not the controversial French leader actually was operating from a position of strength, he acted as if he were and apparently he is pulling it off.

While the world watched with mixed emotions to see if he would be toppled, the skyscraping Frenchman stood up straight and tall, to the limit of his considerable height, and talked and acted tough.

He said, in so many words, that he could not desert his country and surrender it to the Communists panting for a take-over.

Perhaps, at long last, Charles de Gaulle may be realizing that he cannot do business with the Reds, that they are out to gobble him up and his country with him.

His latest political moves tend to suggest this. Hoping that the rightists will support the Gaullists in the election of a new National Assembly this month, De Gaulle has made several gestures of reconciliation to them.

HE HAS PERMITTED the free return to France of prominent exiles, including former Premier Georges Bidault, and is expected to approve release of the commander of the Secret Army Organization in Algeria, Gen. Raoul Salan, who had been imprisoned for life.

De Gaulle is unpredictable but he has a magnificent capacity for filling the role of the man of the hour. It looks, at this moment, that he may have done it again.

If he has once again saved France from Communist control, even though his own policies may have brought on the crisis, he will win the applause of the free nations of the world.

Another School Problem

The rather unyielding approach taken by the city's high school teachers and the administrators over the regular and extra assignment responsibilities of the football coach causes serious concern among those in the community interested in education.

That 33 of the high school's 52 instructors, excluding the grid staff, placed their signatures to the grievance petition indicates some fairly widespread feeling about the issue and its effect upon morale.

Supt. Paul Blair and the administrators hold to the view that the present faculty structure is solidified by contractural obligations, and nothing can be done to change agreements which were made several years ago and are binding at least through 1969. There are others who believe the teachers have no proper right to even discuss the professional work load of other faculty members, any more than one factory hand has a voice in the pay or job requirements of another worker.

There is more at stake, of course, than the job considerations of an employe. There is the taxpayers' money, there is the evaluation of the total quality of education, and there is the community's keen interest in the effectiveness of the faculty and the administrators.

Mr. McNea, the football coach, came to East Liverpool with certain understandings about his employment, and he cannot be held responsible for pledges made on behalf of the school system.

But the issue is not new. The attitude of teachers toward the arrangement was described to the board and Supt. Blair at a public meeting two years ago, but did not come up for specific action.

It is hoped the present board of education, if and when the matter is presented to the board, will be able to resolve the question over which the teachers and the superintendent have seemingly taken a rigid stand.

In the eyes of the parents and everyone genuinely worried about the status of the school programs, no single controversy, no individual —whether bus driver, football coach, custodian, cook, basketball coach or superintendent—should cause a delay or a decline in the education of our children by one hour, by one lesson.

It is always the recourse of those involved in such debates to claim that in the final analysis, whatever is done is undertaken in the best interests of the students. The people of East Liverpool will be waiting in judgment in this instance.

Letters To The Editor

Grid Coach Answered

The East Liverpool Teachers' Association's Executive Committee would like to respond to a previous letter written by Mr. James Render, a coach in our system, presently on leave of absence.

The ELTA has a negotiations committee selected to represent its membership in all dealings with the board of education. In the past, the committee, composed of Clinton McConnell, Gyla Nicely, Jim Martin, Mary Ruth Beebout, and more recently, Keith Langdon, negotiated successfully for higher salaries, paid medical insurance, and personal leave for all teachers—including coaches.

When the group was working on these issues on behalf of all members, no comment was heard from the football coaches. In fact, they took very little interest in the ELTA. Now the secondary teachers in our system have asked the committee to negotiate the extra-curricular salary index for all people involved in out-of-class activities. This index involves many other areas in addition to athletes. To put a representative from all these areas on a committee would make it too unwieldly to function effectively. They are at liberty, however, to present their arguments to the committee which in turn will incorporate them into its case when the entire issue is negotiated with the board.

Mr. Render's letter is attempting to throw up a smoke screen over the real issue—the right of an association to bargain collectively for its membership.

The ELTA is not attacking the football program, nor are we casting reflections on the abilities of the coaches. The negotiating group is not anti-football. If Mr. Render would check his facts, he would find that Mrs. Nicely and Mr. Martin have been season ticket holders in football for the past several seasons and are well known among the students of East Liverpool as backers of all phases of the school program.

Mr. Langdon has not advocated that a basketball coach should make more than a football coach. He did mention to one of the football coaches that since the basketball season is longer and there is a comparable amount of work that he was glad to see they were making equal salaries. Most teachers in East Liverpool are aware of the tremendous amount of time and energy that Mr. McConnell has expended to make improvements for all teachers. To defend him from the type of personal attack made in the letter would be to lower the position of the ELTA.

Our committee is not on a vendetta against the football coaches. We trust now that our discussions will be able to return to the real issue of the ELTA's right to bargain for its membership over matters financial or otherwise and away from personalities.

No one is trying to tell the coaches how to run their football program, and by the same token, we would hope that they would not issue an ultimatum to the board, stated in the last paragraph of Mr. Render's letter, which does not take into consideration all areas of our educational program.

VICTOR RIESEL

Reuther Making Big Plans

WASHINGTON — On the afternoon before the grim night Bob Kennedy was cut down, some of his most devoted activists met with powerful Teamsters leaders in the latter's Western headquarters just outside of San Francisco.

Victor Riesel

It was a colorful gathering of powerful men, one of whom soon enough was to make history by being cut down at the late Senator's side. He is the auto union's regional director, Paul Schrade, who had flown up to the Teamsters suburban building to meet with Walter Reuther, and Teamsters second vice president Einar Mohn, also a Kennedy devotee.

The gathering was evidence of the cordial coalition which has been welded between the big auto union and the gargantuan Teamsters brotherhood. It was the fourth such high command session in less than two months.

These men talked of Bob Kennedy's coming primary victory as though it were inevitable. And they talked of the national election.

And mostly they listened to the Detroit redhead explain what he saw on the new horizon: a network of Community Action Councils spreading like steel mesh right smack across the nation, a network of units reaching into hundreds of cities, a network based on the United Auto Workers' 1200 locals and the Teamsters' 900 branches. A network binding 3.5 million unionists into a massive phalanx.

As always, Reuther was eloquent. The councils would reach into the Wattses, the Harlems, the East Chicagos, the black and Mexican-American communities, and the working poor.

THE NETWORK WOULD BE far more than political. It would coordinate collective bargaining, joint organizing and community poverty programming.

Of course, in those final hours of the California primary, campaign politics tipped every tongue. Reuther had pledged his support to Bob Kennedy.

The late Senator had telephoned him and urged the redhead to organize a "Labor For Kennedy Committee," as George Meany had done for Hubert Humphrey.

"Walter" told "Bob" that the wiser thing to do would be first to win delegates, and then to come in with a powerful labor committee.

And so the auto union's organization had swung into action, and Reuther had flown to the coast to help where he could.

But politics is not the motivating force of this very cordial entente between the auto union and the Teamsters. Reuther wants the Community Action Council network to tackle the big AFL-CIO, and prove that the older labor leaders should be dispatched to the Smithsonian Institution.

Reuther says there's a new era and it must be matched by a new kind of labor movement based on completely restructured unions.

These would not be along craft lines, but on a mass base of common labor and community interests. He wants to build conglomerate unions to tackle conglomerate corporations.

THUS, LAST APRIL, Reuther put feelers out to the Teamsters. This was not difficult. Some of his colleagues have had long and friendly relations with Jimmy Hoffa since 1935. And through the years, auto union criticism of the Teamsters has been as difficult to find as a flock of whooping cranes.

The Teamsters grab at this. Reuther is just what they need — not for federation, but for respectability, which has fled the Teamsters during the jailing of Jim Hoffa and, most recently, during the current federal probes of the acidy Cosa Nostra hoodlum Johnny Dio, the New York scandals involving Tony Ducks Corallo and the series of indictments of toughs who appeared to be using the $500 million Teamsters Central States pension fund as an unlocked cash register.

So, on May 13, some weeks after a secret joint conference in Detroit, Reuther and some of his vice presidents had gone over to the Teamsters marble hall here. Then they met in Chicago. Then on June 4 in Millbrae, Calif., and soon they will sit down again in Detroit.

Such accommodation must be difficult for Reuther. For, across the table from him at these conferences most of the time, there sits Frank (Fitz) Fitzsimmons, Jimmy Hoffa's regent who says he is ready to step down the moment the Supreme Court releases his imprisoned leader.

There is no doubt that Fitz hears regularly from "Jimmy" over in the Lewisburg penitentiary. The record is full of Fitz's plans for Hoffa.

But power goes to power as money goes to money. Right now Fitz can use Reuther's liberal and intellectual aura. Right now Reuther can use the sprawling 1.9 million-member Teamsters Brotherhood in his duel with the federation led by the broad-shouldered, cigar-chomping healthiest 73-year-old labor leader in the land.

Right now a Teamsters-auto union coalition could do some mighty political bargaining with Lyndon Johnson and Hubert Humphrey. And so the entente is cordial indeed.

Politics is the art of the possible and labor politics has now been made the art of the improbable.

Nixon's Claim

It would be absurd to say that former vice president Richard Nixon's immense labors in the recently completed primaries were not stimulated by his ambition to be president. Such an ambition has been honored by the many great and worthy men who have sought that office since 1789.

But he is realist enough to know that to attain that goal he must help give the Republican Party the confidence, strength and unity necessary to win and also prove himself the authentic leader of that party.

His own future must await the verdict in November, or beyond that if neither major candidate wins a majority of the electoral vote. But the cold statistics show that he has substantially promoted both objectives.

IN 1966 the Republican party recovered more than its normal share of the electorate over the past 20 years. It polled 48.7 per cent of the major party vote for its candidates for the House of Representatives. And it did that despite the fact that it did not contest 52 of the 435 congressional seats.

In that campaign, Nixon campaigned more vigorously over the country than any other possible rival for the GOP nomination. Credit for this recovery must also be given to the organizational genius of Ray Bliss, national chairman.

In the now-concluded primaries the statistics cannot show a full picture of Republican strength. For Nixon had no serious competition in the ones he entered. Fierce competition, which always brings out a large vote, was all on the Democratic side.

But Nixon's effort to bring out the Republican vote was, despite lack of competition, brialliantly successful. The total vote he received was impressive. In New Hampshire, it exceeded the combined vote of all Democratic contestants. And in Nebraska the combined Republican vote exceeded that of the Democrats.

It is important to note that in his effort to unify the GOP he refrained from any criticism of other Republicans. That restraint, however, did not characterize his Republican critics. For they raised the old complaint that destroyed Robert Taft in 1952. "If nominated, he cannot be elected."

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York said of himself after he became an avowed candidate: "I can attract more Democratic and independent votes. I can bring in more local candidates than anyone else."

That was disproved in New Hampshire, real Rockefeller country, where Nixon was written in on 2,529 Democratic ballots while Rockefeller had only 248 despite a vigorous write-in effort in his behalf.

And the value of his coattails is disproved by the fact that in 1958, when he was first elected governor, New York state had 26 Republican members in the U.S. House and 17 Democrats. In 1968, after three Rockefeller victories for governor, there are 26 Democratic congressmen and 15 Republicans.

Over-all, in the six major primary contests, Nixon received 85 per cent of the GOP vote; Gov. Ronald Reagan (on the ballot in three states) 9 per cent; Rockefeller (write-ins in five states) 2 per cent.

Adding Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, where none of the three was on the ballot, the figures were: Nixon 81 per cent, Reagan 8 per cent and Rockefeller 2 per cnt.

IN NEW JERSEY, another nonbinding primary state, the scattered returns at this writing show Nixon about 50,000; Rockefeller 10,000. The previous write-in record in New Jersey was 7,886 for Henry Cabot Lodge in 1964.

This Nixon record in the primaries is more outstanding than any individual has made in presidential primaries in the 63 years since the system was adopted. Even in 1912, when Teddy Roosevelt ran against William Howard Taft, the Roosevelt record was far short of that of Nixon this year.

The basic need of a candidate is to get out his full party strength. In 1964 that hard-core GOP vote was 27 million. No doubt millions of Republicans voted for Lyndon Johnson, for Nixon himself had 34 million in 1960. And there is no reason to believe that, with dissent among Democrats, he should not considerably exceed his 1960 vote this year.

De Gaulle is unpredictable but he has a magnificent capacity for filling the role of the man of the hour. It looks, at this moment, that he may have done it again.

If he has once again saved France from Communist control, even though his own policies may have brought on the crisis, he will win the applause of the free nations of the world.

Another School Problem

The rather unyielding approach taken by the city's high school teachers and the administrators over the regular and extra assignment responsibilities of the football coach causes serious concern among those in the community interested in education.

That 33 of the high school's 52 instructors, excluding the grid staff, placed their signatures to the grievance petition indicates some fairly widespread feeling about the issue and its effect upon morale.

Supt. Paul Blair and the administrators hold to the view that the present faculty structure is solidified by contractural obligations, and nothing can be done to change agreements which were made several years ago and are binding at least through 1969. There are others who believe the teachers have no proper right to even discuss the professional work load of other faculty members, any more than one factory hand has a voice in the pay or job requirements of another worker.

There is more at stake, of course, than the job considerations of an employe. There is the taxpayers' money, there is the evaluation of the total quality of education, and there is the community's keen interest in the effectiveness of the faculty and the administrators.

Mr. McNea, the football coach, came to East Liverpool with certain understandings about his employment, and he cannot be held responsible for pledges made on behalf of the school system.

But the issue is not new. The attitude of teachers toward the arrangement was described to the board and Supt. Blair at a public meeting two years ago, but did not come up for specific action.

It is hoped the present board of education, if and when the matter is presented to the board, will be able to resolve the question over which the teachers and the superintendent have seemingly taken a rigid stand.

In the eyes of the parents and everyone genuinely worried about the status of the school programs, no single controversy, no individual —whether bus driver, football coach, custodian, cook, basketball coach or superintendent—should cause a delay or a decline in the education of our children by one hour, by one lesson.

It is always the recourse of those involved in such debates to claim that in the final analysis, whatever is done is undertaken in the best interests of the students. The people of East Liverpool will be waiting in judgment in this instance.

Letters To The Editor

Grid Coach Answered

The East Liverpool Teachers' Association's Executive Committee would like to respond to a previous letter written by Mr. James Render, a coach in our system, presently on leave of absence.

The ELTA has a negotiations committee selected to represent its membership in all dealings with the board of education. In the past, the committee, composed of Clinton McConnell, Gyla Nicely, Jim Martin, Mary Ruth Beebout, and more recently, Keith Langdon, negotiated successfully for higher salaries, paid medical insurance, and personal leave for all teachers—including coaches.

When the group was working on these issues on behalf of all members, no comment was heard from the football coaches. In fact, they took very little interest in the ELTA. Now the secondary teachers in our system have asked the committee to negotiate the extra-curricular salary index for all people involved in out-of-class activities. This index involves many other areas in addition to athletes. To put a representative from all these areas on a committee would make it too unwieldly to function effectively. They are at liberty, however, to present their arguments to the committee which in turn will incorporate them into its case when the entire issue is negotiated with the board.

Mr. Render's letter is attempting to throw up a smoke screen over the real issue—the right of an association to bargain collectively for its membership.

The ELTA is not attacking the football program, nor are we casting reflections on the abilities of the coaches. The negotiating group is not anti-football. If Mr. Render would check his facts, he would find that Mrs. Nicely and Mr. Martin have been season ticket holders in football for the past several seasons and are well known among the students of East Liverpool as backers of all phases of the school program.

Mr. Langdon has not advocated that a basketball coach should make more than a football coach. He did mention to one of the football coaches that since the basketball season is longer and there is a comparable amount of work that he was glad to see they were making equal salaries. Most teachers in East Liverpool are aware of the tremendous amount of time and energy that Mr. McConnell has expended to make improvements for all teachers. To defend him from the type of personal attack made in the letter would be to lower the position of the ELTA.

Our committee is not on a vendetta against the football coaches. We trust now that our discussions will be able to return to the real issue of the ELTA's right to bargain for its membership over matters financial or otherwise and away from personalities.

No one is trying to tell the coaches how to run their football program, and by the same token, we would hope that they would not issue an ultimatum to the board, stated in the last paragraph of Mr. Render's letter, which does not take into consideration all areas of our educational program.

Appreciation Told

P.I.J.A. CO. of Junior Achievement wishes to express appreciation to the stockholders in our company for their confidence in our endeavor. While the amount invested was very small, the dividends were more than adequate for the short time investment.

We also wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Nelson Hagerty, president of Junior Achievement, Inc. and Mr. Jerry Winstead, Director of Southeastern Columbiana County, Inc.

Thanks to the companies that provided us with guide tours through their plants—W. C. Bunting Co., Hall China Co., Globe Brick Co., Crucible Steel Co., Ohio Edison and Patterson Industries, Inc.

Our appreciation goes to Mr. William Barker of Patterson Industries, Inc. for sponsoring our company and permitting us to use Patterson's as a place of operation.

We congratulate the four Junior Achievement Companies that had the courage to continue operations after the disastrous fire that destroyed their center of operation and their records.

Thanks to all the people involved in the purchase of our product and all concerned with Junior Achievement, Inc. Special thanks should be given to Mr. Mike Turk for furnishing the Woomer Brothers Building for emergency use after the original headquarters was destroyed.

VICTOR RIESEL

Reuther Making Big Plans

WASHINGTON — On the afternoon before the grim night Bob Kennedy was cut down, some of his most devoted activists met with powerful Teamsters leaders in the latter's Western headquarters just outside of San Francisco.

Victor Riesel

It was a colorful gathering of powerful men, one of whom soon enough was to make history by being cut down at the late Senator's side. He is the auto union's regional director, Paul Schrade, who had flown up to the Teamsters suburban building to meet with Walter Reuther, and Teamsters second vice president Einar Mohn, also a Kennedy devotee.

The gathering was evidence of the cordial coalition which has been welded between the big auto union and the gargantuan Teamsters brotherhood. It was the fourth such high command session in less than two months.

These men talked of Bob Kennedy's coming primary victory as though it were inevitable. And they talked of the national election.

And mostly they listened to the Detroit redhead explain what he saw on the new horizon: a network of Community Action Councils spreading like steel mesh right smack across the nation, a network of units reaching into hundreds of cities, a network based on the United Auto Workers' 1200 locals and the Teamsters' 900 branches. A network binding 3.5 million unionists into a massive phalanx.

As always, Reuther was eloquent. The councils would reach into the Wattses, the Harlems, the East Chicagos, the black and Mexican-American communities, and the working poor.

THE NETWORK WOULD BE far more than political. It would coordinate collective bargaining, joint organizing and community poverty programming.

Of course, in those final hours of the California primary, campaign politics tipped every tongue. Reuther had pledged his support to Bob Kennedy.

The late Senator had telephoned him and urged the redhead to organize a "Labor For Kennedy Committee," as George Meany had done for Hubert Humphrey.

"Walter" told "Bob" that the wiser thing to do would be first to win delegates, and then to come in with a powerful labor committee.

And so the auto union's organization had swung into action, and Reuther had flown to the coast to help where he could.

But politics is not the motivating force of this very cordial entente between the auto union and the Teamsters. Reuther wants the Community Action Council network to tackle the big AFL-CIO, and prove that the older labor leaders should be dispatched to the Smithsonian Institution.

Reuther says there's a new era and it must be matched by a new kind of labor movement based on completely restructured unions.

These would not be along craft lines, but on a mass base of common labor and community interests. He wants to build conglomerate unions to tackle conglomerate corporations.

THUS, LAST APRIL, Reuther put feelers out to the Teamsters. This was not difficult. Some of his colleagues have had long and friendly relations with Jimmy Hoffa since 1935. And through the years, auto union criticism of the Teamsters has been as difficult to find as a flock of whooping cranes.

The Teamsters grab at this. Reuther is just what they need — not for federation, but for respectability, which has fled the Teamsters during the jailing of Jim Hoffa and, most recently, during the current federal probes of the acidy Cosa Nostra hoodlum Johnny Dio, the New York scandals involving Tony Ducks Corallo and the series of indictments of toughs who appeared to be using the $500 million Teamsters Central States pension fund as an unlocked cash register.

So, on May 13, some weeks after a secret joint conference in Detroit, Reuther and some of his vice presidents had gone over to the Teamsters marble hall here. Then they met in Chicago. Then on June 4 in Millbrae, Calif., and soon they will sit down again in Detroit.

Such accommodation must be difficult for Reuther. For, across the table from him at these conferences most of the time, there sits Frank (Fitz) Fitzsimmons, Jimmy Hoffa's regent who says he is ready to step down the moment the Supreme Court releases his imprisoned leader.

There is no doubt that Fitz hears regularly from "Jimmy" over in the Lewisburg penitentiary. The record is full of Fitz's plans for Hoffa.

But power goes to power as money goes to money. Right now Fitz can use Reuther's liberal and intellectual aura. Right now Reuther can use the sprawling 1.9 million-member Teamsters Brotherhood in his duel with the federation led by the broad-shouldered, cigar-chomping healthiest 73-year-old labor leader in the land.

Right now a Teamsters-auto union coalition could do some mighty political bargaining with Lyndon Johnson and Hubert Humphrey. And so the entente is cordial indeed.

Politics is the art of the possible and labor politics has now been made the art of the improbable.

RAYMOND MOLEY

Nixon's Claim

It would be absurd to say that former vice president Richard Nixon's immense labors in the recently completed primaries were not stimulated by his ambition to be president. Such an ambition has been honored by the many great and worthy men who have sought that office since 1789.

But he is realist enough to know that to attain that goal he must help give the Republican Party the confidence, strength and unity necessary to win and also prove himself the authentic leader of that party.

His own future must await the verdict in November, or beyond that if neither major candidate wins a majority of the electoral vote. But the cold statistics show that he has substantially promoted both objectives.

IN 1966 the Republican party recovered more than its normal share of the electorate over the past 20 years. It polled 48.7 per cent of the major party vote for its candidates for the House of Representatives. And it did that despite the fact that it did not contest 52 of the 435 congressional seats.

In that campaign, Nixon campaigned more vigorously over the country than any other possible rival for the GOP nomination. Credit for this recovery must also be given to the organizational genius of Ray Bliss, national chairman.

In the now-concluded primaries the statistics cannot show a full picture of Republican strength. For Nixon had no serious competition in the ones he entered. Fierce competition, which always brings out a large vote, was all on the Democratic side.

But Nixon's effort to bring out the Republican vote was, despite lack of competition, brialliantly successful. The total vote he received was impressive. In New Hampshire, it exceeded the combined vote of all Democratic contestants. And in Nebraska the combined Republican vote exceeded that of the Democrats.

It is important to note that in his effort to unify the GOP he refrained from any criticism of other Republicans. That restraint, however, did not characterize his Republican critics. For they raised the old complaint that destroyed Robert Taft in 1952. "If nominated, he cannot be elected."

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York said of himself after he became an avowed candidate: "I can attract more Democratic and independent votes. I can bring in more local candidates than anyone else."

That was disproved in New Hampshire, real Rockefeller country, where Nixon was written in on 2,529 Democratic ballots while Rockefeller had only 248 despite a vigorous write-in effort in his behalf.

And the value of his coattails is disproved by the fact that in 1958, when he was first elected governor, New York state had 26 Republican members in the U.S. House and 17 Democrats. In 1968, after three Rockefeller victories for governor, there are 26 Democratic congressmen and 15 Republicans.

Over-all, in the six major primary contests, Nixon received 85 per cent of the GOP vote; Gov. Ronald Reagan (on the ballot in three states) 9 per cent; Rockefeller (write-ins in five states) 2 per cent.

Adding Massachusetts and Pennsylvania, where none of the three was on the ballot, the figures were: Nixon 81 per cent, Reagan 8 per cent and Rockefeller 2 per cnt.

IN NEW JERSEY, another nonbinding primary state, the scattered returns at this writing show Nixon about 50,000; Rockefeller 10,000. The previous write-in record in New Jersey was 7,886 for Henry Cabot Lodge in 1964.

This Nixon record in the primaries is more outstanding than any individual has made in presidential primaries in the 63 years since the system was adopted. Even in 1912, when Teddy Roosevelt ran against William Howard Taft, the Roosevelt record was far short of that of Nixon this year.

The basic need of a candidate is to get out his full party strength. In 1964 that hard-core GOP vote was 27 million. No doubt millions of Republicans voted for Lyndon Johnson, for Nixon himself had 34 million in 1960. And there is no reason to believe that, with dissent among Democrats, he should not considerably exceed his 1960 vote this year.

Cicadas Are Discussed During Lions' Meeting

"Periodical Cicadas" was discussed by Floyd Lower of Lisbon during the Lions Club meeting Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

These insects, more commonly referred to as the 17-year locusts, appear only in the eastern United States, Lower pointed out.

There are approximately 22 separate broods, of which four appear in Ohio, and there is little overlaping of brood areas, he explained. For example, the western third of Columbiana County was infested by the cicadas in 1965, with few of the insects migrating to the eastern two-thirds.

A BROOD will seldom travel more than a half mile from the area in which it was born. In this area, they appear every 17 years, but in the warmer southern states the nymph stage in 13 years, Lower said.

After spending 17 years under ground, the life span above is short. Most of the cicadas appear within a few days of the first arrivals. After emerging from the ground, they seek a high spot, usually a tree, free themselves from their shell and manifest themselves fully matured.

The emerging process takes about 30 to 60 minutes, Lower reported. After two weeks mating begins.

The adult cicada does not feed and lives only four to six weeks. During its short life-span it seeks out hardwood trees and shrubbery such as oaks, maple, apple and dogwood trees. When these are not available, the cicada will resort to softwoods such as pines.

The female is equipped with a semi-hard saw-like instrument on her underbelly. She uses this to cut small groves into twigs of the trees where she lays up to 600 eggs in the breach.

Nymphs are then hatched which fall from the tree, bore into the ground about 18 inches and attach themselves to the roots of the trees where they live on sap for the next 17 years.

The twigs punctured by the female usually die after a short period, Lower continued.

THE CICADA is harmless because it has no stinger and cannot bite, he said. Locust noises are made only by the male, which vibrates a drum-like membrane located beneath the wing.

Ways to combat the locust include a Chemical 7 solution recently discovered which must be used before the eggs are laid, and the more old - fashioned method of wrapping cheese cloth tightly around the tree.

A decline in the number of trees and fatalities inflicted by birds have caused some concern about the eventual extinction of the cicada.

During the business session, Robert Harris reported arrangements have been completed for tonight's installation dinner meeting at 6:30 in the Travelers Hotel.

Wellsville Cheerleaders Capture 'Firsts' At Kent

The Wellsville High School varsity and reserve cheerleading squads captured two first-place blue ribbons during National Cheerleading Association competition Saturday at Kent State University.

The groups were named co-winners over 21 other squads in the five-member category during the event which concluded a five-day training program sponsored by the association.

More than 700 girls from Ohio, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Indiana and Illinois participated in the program, which included workshops, dance and pompon routines, acrobatics, new cheers and lectures on the value of cheerleading in support of athletics.

Other categories included 3, 4, 6, and 7-man squads and a junior high division.

The girls comprising the varsity team are Paula Todd, captain, Judy McCombs, Sonnie Richards, Vickie Cataldo and Francie Hawk. The varsity also received a "spirit stick" for its enthusiasm during competition.

On the reserve squad are Sandy Young, captain, Mary Drago, Portia Pulliam, Randy Young and Debbie Morehead.

Mrs. Helen Welch is cheerleader adviser.

MarriageBureau

DUBLIN (AP) — The bishops of Connacht, six counties in the West of Ireland, have established a marriage introduction bureau in the Marian shrine village of Knock, County Mayo. Archbishop Joseph Walsh of Tuam says: "The idea is that there are so many elderly bachelors and unmarried ladies who are more or less afraid of one another, afraid to make any advance, and the result is they don't get married and we have this terrible depopulation. We are trying to make it easier for them to meet."

News Of Area Residents In Armed Forces

PFC. AMMON

Pfc. Raymond Ammon, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Ammon of Yeager Dr., Wellsville, has received a trophy for "outstanding physical training" with the 2nd Training Brigade at Ft. Knox, Ky.

Ammon, who is married to the former Jennifer Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn of Lisbon RD 3, is home on leave before reporting to Ft. Lewis, Wash., for advanced training en route to Vietnam.

He was graduated in 1967 from Beaver Local High School, taking basic training also at Ft. Knox.

He was honored at a family party June 2 at the home of his parents.

Darrel Post, husband of the former Lois Davidson of Hammondsville, has been promoted to Air Force master sergeant at Alexandria, Va. The couple has one daughter.

Marine Sgt. Kenneth Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davidson of Hammondsville, has arrived in DaNang, Vietnam.

Gary Casto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Casto of Irondale RD 1, has returned home after two years duty with the Navy aboard the Taconic.

Casto was separated after his ship returned to its home port at Norfolk following a Mediterranean cruise.

Seaman Allen Casto, a brother, is presently aboard the Norfolk and serving in the Mediterranean area.

Both are graduates of Stanton High School.

Spec. 5 Robert K. Reed Jr., son of Robert Reed of 1719 Lincoln Ave., Wellsville, has been awarded the Army Commendation Medal while serving with the 86th Signal Battalion near Cu Chi, Vietnam.

Reed, a personnel specialist, entered the Army in July 1966 and has been in Vietnam since June 1967. He was graduated from Wellsville High School in 1965.

Four men of the East Liverpool area have been assigned as Army privates at Ft. Knox, Ky., where they will receive their initial eight weeks of military training as members of Co. C, 9th Battalion, 3rd Brigade.

From East Liverpool are Gary M. Tarr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude M. Tarr of 1905 Smithfield St.; Michael E. Watson, son of Jack E. Watson of 9th Ave., LaCroft, and Fred R. Schell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Schell of Windsor Dr.

The other is serviceman Terry L. Kerns, son of Mrs. Annetta E. Kerns of Wellsville RD 1.

Pvt. Mike Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Creston Green of LaCroft, is serving with Co. "C", 10th Battalion, 4th Military Police Training Brigade, at Ft. Gordon, Ga.

The 1967 graduate of East Liverpool High School recently completed basic training at Ft. Knox, Ky.

Shipfitter 3C Elmer L. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nelson of 5th Ave., LaCroft, is serving aboard the Whetstone based at Yokosuka, Japan. Operating as a unit of the 7th Fleet, the ship transports combat-loaded amphibious craft and vehicles off the coast of Vietnam.

Sgt. Edward L. Pruden, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vargovich of 1711 St. Clair Ave., is a member of the unit at the Bien Hoa air base in Vietnam that has been selected as the best tactical fighter wing in the Air Force.

Sgt. Pruden is a pavements specialist with the 3rd Tactical Fighter Wing. He is a graduate of East Liverpool High School.

Spec. 4 Hugh Mac Thorne, husband of the former Patricia Call of this area, is serving his third tour of duty in Vietnam as an infantryman with the 28th Infantry Ronnaissance Patrol, 1st Division.

He has received a Purple Heart for wounds inflicted by a mine and the Army Commendation Medal for meritorious service.

Expected home in September, Thorne is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Thorne of Canfield.

Spec. 5 Gerald Lee Boggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Boggs of 651 Henry Ave., Wellsville, has returned to Ft. Hood, Tex., following a 30-day leave at home.

Boggs, a heavy equipment maintenance man, was separated from the Army in February after three years service, including 18 months in Vietnam.

He re-enlisted in April for six years. He is married to the former Diane Fulmer of Wellsville. She and their infant son are with Spec. Boggs in Texas.

Shipfitter 3C Elmer L. Nelson, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nelson of 5th Ave., LaCroft, is serving aboard the landing ship dock Whetstone at Yokosuka, Japan.

Operating as a unit of the 7th Fleet, the ship transports combat loaded amphibious craft and vehicles off the coast of Vietnam as well as men and material to and from CuaViet, Hue, DaNang, and Cam Ranh Bay.

Sonar Tech. Seaman David Pasco, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Pasco of 1120 Oak St., has returned to the U.S. aboard the guided missile destroyer Lawrence following a four-month tour in the Mediterranean.

He is married to the former Miss Carole L. Reese of Bloomfield Ave.

Woman Injured In 6th St. Crash

An East Liverpool woman was injured late Sunday aftrnoon when her husband's halted car was rammed from the rear at the three-way intersection of E. 6th St., Broadway and Washington St., police reported.

Mrs. Marie Mose, 50, of 313 Blakeley St. was treated at City Hospital for a possible whiplash injury of the neck following the collision at 5:13 p.m. on E. 6th St.

A 1965 sedan driven by her husband, Danild G. Mose, 58, was struck from the rear by a 1949 sedan operated by Keith A. Johnston, 18, of 1253 Croft Ave., officers said.

JOHNSTON was cited on charges of operating an unsafe vehicle and failure to stop in the assured clear distance. The crash damaged the front bumper, grill and right front fender of his auto and the left rear of the Mose car.

Johnston told officers his brakes failed as he approached the traffic signal at the intersection. He estimated his speed at 30 miles an hour. A witness told police Johnston was "going at a pretty high rate of speed" when he passed her on E. 6th St.

Two parked cars were damaged in a hit-skip collision early Sunday on McKinnon Ave. 500 feet north of Anderson Blvd.

Officers said the hit-skip car turned onto McKinnon Ave. from Anderson Blvd., went left of the center line and hit the Wagner car, driving it into the Evans auto. The driver of the hit-skip car then backed and drove away, officers said.

Police said the hit-skip vehicle was a 1957 two-door sedan owned by Robert L. Heiney of 1021 St. George St. There was heavy damage to the left front fender of Heiney's car, which had been reported stolen, officers said.

A SKID on wet pavement was blamed for a collision Sunday at 9:59 a.m. that damaged two autos on a curve on the Lisbon St. Hill, a half - mile north of W. 9th St., police said.

The mishap involved a northbound 1960 two-door sedan driven by Vivian K. Hindell, 69, of Deltonia, Fla., and a southbound 1962 two-door operated by Beverly J. Santimerino, 26, of 1707 Idaho Ave., officers said.

The local woman said she applied her brakes as she approached a curve, causing her car to slide sideways on wet blacktop and hit the Hindell auto. There was damage to the left front of the Hindell car and the left front door of the Santimerino car, police said.

A hit-skip car was blamed for damage to a parked auto Sunday at 4:55 p.m. on Washington St. at Potters Alley.

Mrs. Ruth Edgell of RD 2 said a car backing from a parking place hit her parked 1967 four-door sedan, damaging the right rear door. She said she was walking across Washington St. toward her auto and witnessed the mishap. The hit-skip vehicle proceeded south on Washington St., she said.

Officers said the license number of the hit-skip car was traced to a 1962 sedan owned by a Salineville woman.

TWO CARS were damaged in a collision Sunday at 2:34 a.m. on the River Rd. about 100 feet west of State St., police said.

A halted 1962 four - door sedan driven by Malachie Jones, 48, of Box 152, Smiths Ferry, was hit from the rear by a 1964 two-door sedan operated by Paul Hargraves, 25, of 504 Mulberry St., officers said.

Hargraves told police Jones' auto was stopped on the highway without lights.

No one was in the car at the time of the crash, but Jones was standing at the side of the road, he said. The collision damaged the rear bumper and trunk of the Jones car and the left front fender of Hargraves' auto.

A collision at the junction of two Thompson Park roads Sunday at 1:42 p.m. damaged the right front of a 1963 two-door sedan driven by Ellias M. Wright, 64, of Dixonville and the left front of a 1967 station wagon operated by Paul Leo Ladzinske, 49, of 637 Fisher Ave., officers said.

Two Area Autos Figure In Crash

About $1,000 damage resulted Sunday afternoon when two area autos collided on Route 68, near the incinerator in Ohioville Borough. The accident was timed at 2:35 p. m.

Charles Wilson of 1013 Commerce St., Wellsville, on his way to work at the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Corp., pulled into the passing lane and struck a late model sedan which pulled from a driveway about 200 yards west of the incinerator.

Jesse Stewart, 53, of 348 Ohio Ave., Midland, operator of the second car, told police he checked on westbound traffic, but failed to look for eastbound traffic in his lane as he pulled out of the driveway and headed west. He pulled to the right to avoid a collision,, but was struck by the Wilson auto.

Ohioville police are continuing the investigation.

Farm Bureau Official Will Attend Meeting

LISBON — Albert Hartley of Columbiana RD 2, policy development chairman for the Columbiana County Farm Bureau, will attend the annual state conference of county Farm Bureau presidents and policy development chairmen Friday in Columbus.

State Rep. Albert H. Sealy Jr. of Dayton, chairman of the bipartisan select committee on tax revision, will discuss tax proposals at the luncheon.

Robert Summer of Tiffin, president of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, said "Ohio farmers are disturbed about present methods of taxation and have been following closely the hearings being conducted by representative Sealy and his commitete.

Miss Marian Davis Weds Son Of Ex-City Residents

St. Alban's Episcopal Church of Columbus was the setting for the June 8 marriage of Miss Marian Barnett Davis, daughter of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Marion B. Davis of Hilton Head Island, S. C., and Dr. Philip Norman Ankrim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman E. Ankrim of Ocala, Fla., former local residents.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of ivory peau de soie adorned with lace and seed pearls. The fitted bodice was fashioned with a scoop neckline and elbow - length sleeves. The skirt was of A-line styling featured a chapel-length train. Her shoulder-length veil of silk illusion was held in place by a lace cluster headpiece. She carried a cascade of gardenias and ivy.

Miss Catherine Cook was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs Gary Mashburn, Miss Jane Brewer and Mrs. Maurice Lehman. They wore floor - length gowns of mint green crepe, designed with white cotton lace sleeves, and matching blush veils. Their cascade bouquets featured shell pink asters and ivy.

Laura Boone, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a white eyelet pinafore over a green gown and carried a nosegay of pink asters, roses and ivy.

David E. Smith served as best man. Ushers were Dr. Charles Claibourne, Jon Steele and James Glendenning.

A reception followed in the social rooms.

The bride, a graduate of Wilmington College, formerly taught at the Whitehall City Schools in Columbus.

The bridegroom, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Perl North of Lisbon St., was graduated from the College of Dentistry at Ohio State University.

The newlyweds will reside at Biloxi, Miss., where the bridegroom will serve his dental internship at the Keesler Air Force base.

Ohio Traffic Toll Hits 23 On Weekend

By The Associated Press

Ohio recorded 23 traffic deaths over the weekend, the second highest weekend toll of the year. Twenty-four persons died during the weekend of Feb. 23-25.

Two triple-death crashes and two other accidents which claimed two lives each helped boost the toll well above the weekend average this year of 15 deaths.

During the much longer Memorial Day weekend two weeks ago only 17 persons were killed in accidents in Ohio.

The latest victims:

Saturday

Wayne T. Miller, 22, Sidney, killed when his car was hit by a Baltimore & Ohio freight train at an Allen County crossing.

Amy Wallingford, 1, Russellville, struck and killed by a car on U.S. 62 north of her home.

Mary Fobes, 52, Williamsfield, was killed in a two-car collision in Ashtabula County.

Nancy J. Jones, 18, Coshocton, died in a head-on collision of two cars four miles northeast of New Albany.

Susan Barry, 26, Ft. Bragg, N. C., wife of an Army sergeant, was killed in a car-truck collision on the Ohio Turnpike southwest of Youngstown.

Frank H. Robbins, 37, Rt. 3, Mount Sterling, died when his car crashed off Ohio 665 in Franklin County.

Christina Jones, 6, Cincinnati, hit by a car near her home.

William Lattimore, 4, Rt. 2, Oak Harbor, killed when hit by a car in Ottawa County.

Leonardo Corso, 21, Niles, killed when his car struck another auto in McDonald in Trumbull County.

Sunday

James G. Hassenger, 18, Cincinnati, was killed as his car crashed in Hamilton County.

Dennis Perry, 16, and his brother, James, 18, North Olmsted, and John Kendra, 17, Lakewood, were killed when their car struck a utility pole and a tree in Cleveland.

Clem Osting, 79, and Alvera Osting, 58, Rt. 2, Delphos, were killed when their car crashed into another car at an intersection eight miles east of Van Wert.

Carol Mock, 22, Zanesville, died in a two-car crash in Avon Lake in Lorain County.

Mishap Occurs On Taylor Bend

Taylor's Bend on Route 30 near Chester was the scene of an accident Sunday at 4:30 a. m. involving four area residents.

Barbara L. Hager, 21, of 165 Vernia St., said she was stopped to pick up a friend when her auto was struck in the rear by another operated by James L. Landis, 27, of 107 Montana Ave., Chester.

Landis, who refused treatment at City Hospital, told Hancock County sheriff's deputies that he tried to avoid the Hager auto, but was unable to do so.

Passengers in the Hager vehicle were Sanford A. Davis, 47, of 8th Ave., LaCroft, and Alfred Higgins, 34, of 770 Dresden Ave. Davis received a possible whiplash injury. Higgins refused treatment.

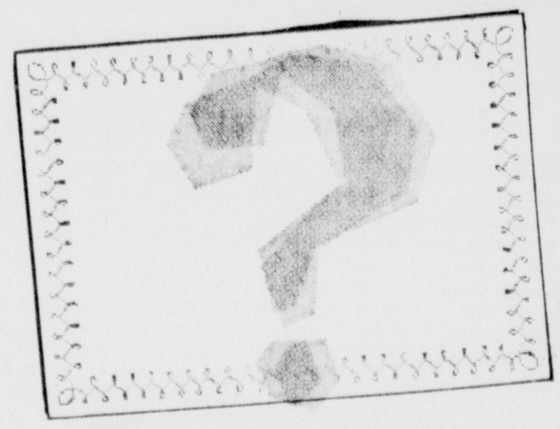
Girl Falls From Car; Receives Scratches

LISBON — Police said Mary Chidester, a 2½ - year - old daughter of Mrs. Nancy Chidester of Salineville, fell from a moving car here about 8 a.m. Saturday.

They said the child received scratches of the knees and the right little finger, but was not treated immediately.

The accident occurred on N. Market St. at the Jerome St. junction. Police said the girl was in the back seat and apparently opened the door as the car went around a curve.



What is a Death Certificate?

Funeral Directors are required to file death certificates. This important but little-known document is used by the family to claim insurance, Social Security, Veteran's and other benefits.

Death certificates benefit the public by providing information used in life insurance mortality tables and in public health programs to control disease.

These certificates must be issued for every death. This helps law enforcement officers in their job of detecting and preventing crime

People tracing ancestries usually turn to death certificates for the information they need.

This informational message is brought to you by your NSM Funeral Director.

Woman Injured In 6th St. Crash

An East Liverpool woman was injured late Sunday aftrnoon when her husband's halted car was rammed from the rear at the three-way intersection of E. 6th St., Broadway and Washington St., police reported.

Mrs. Marie Mose, 50, of 313 Blakeley St. was treated at City Hospital for a possible whiplash injury of the neck following the collision at 5:13 p.m. on E. 6th St.

A 1965 sedan driven by her husband, Danild G. Mose, 58, was struck from the rear by a 1949 sedan operated by Keith A. Johnston, 18, of 1253 Croft Ave., officers said.

JOHNSTON was cited on charges of operating an unsafe vehicle and failure to stop in the assured clear distance. The crash damaged the front bumper, grill and right front fender of his auto and the left rear of the Mose car.

Johnston told officers his brakes failed as he approached the traffic signal at the intersection. He estimated his speed at 30 miles an hour. A witness told police Johnston was "going at a pretty high rate of speed" when he passed her on E. 6th St.

Two parked cars were damaged in a hit-skip collision early Sunday on McKinnon Ave. 500 feet north of Anderson Blvd.

Officers said the hit-skip car turned onto McKinnon Ave. from Anderson Blvd., went left of the center line and hit the Wagner car, driving it into the Evans auto. The driver of the hit-skip car then backed and drove away, officers said.

Police said the hit-skip vehicle was a 1957 two-door sedan owned by Robert L. Heiney of 1021 St. George St. There was heavy damage to the left front fender of Heiney's car, which had been reported stolen, officers said.

Dennis Perry, 16, and his brother, James, 18, North Olmsted, and John Kendra, 17, Lakewood, were killed when their car struck a utility pole and a tree in Cleveland.

Clem Osting, 79, and Alvera Osting, 58, Rt. 2, Delphos, were killed when their car crashed into another car at an intersection eight miles east of Van Wert.

Carol Mock, 22, Zanesville, died in a two-car crash in Avon Lake in Lorain County.

Mishap Occurs On Taylor Bend

Taylor's Bend on Route 30 near Chester was the scene of an accident Sunday at 4:30 a. m. involving four area residents.

Barbara L. Hager, 21, of 165 Vernia St., said she was stopped to pick up a friend when her auto was struck in the rear by another operated by James L. Landis, 27, of 107 Montana Ave., Chester.

Landis, who refused treatment at City Hospital, told Hancock County sheriff's deputies that he tried to avoid the Hager auto, but was unable to do so.

Passengers in the Hager vehicle were Sanford A. Davis, 47, of 8th Ave., LaCroft, and Alfred Higgins, 34, of 770 Dresden Ave. Davis received a possible whiplash injury. Higgins refused treatment.

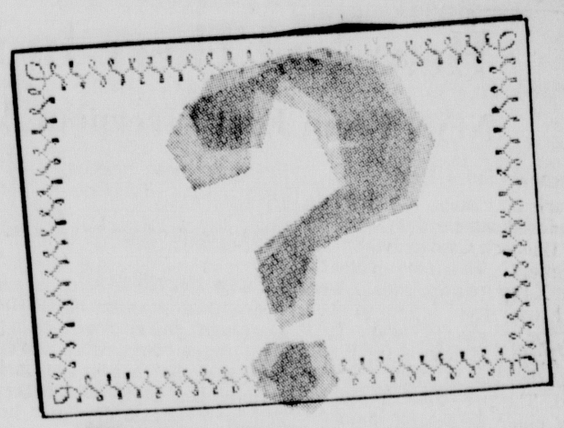
There were no citations.

Girl Falls From Car; Receives Scratches

LISBON — Police said Mary Chidester, a 2½ - year - old daughter of Mrs. Nancy Chidester of Salineville, fell from a moving car here about 8 a.m. Saturday.

They said the child received scratches of the knees and the right little finger, but was not treated immediately.

The accident occurred on N. Market St. at the Jerome St. junction. Police said the girl was in the back seat and apparently opened the door as the car went around a curve.



What is a Death Certificate?

Funeral Directors are required to file death certificates. This important but little-known document is used by the family to claim insurance, Social Security, Veteran's and other benefits.

Death certificates benefit the public by providing information used in life insurance mortality tables and in public health programs to control disease.

These certificates must be issued for every death. This helps law enforcement officers in their job of detecting and preventing crime

People tracing ancestries usually turn to death certificates for the information they need.

This informational message is brought to you by your NSM Funeral Director.

Workers Delay Massive Walkout

CINCINNATI (AP)— Stike-minded workers at General Electric's Evendale plant continued work today after postponing plans for a massive walkout.

The walkout was scheduled to begin at 10 p.m. Sunday, but "We've decided to at least postpone the strike in view of the progress of negotiations," a worker spokesman said.

Strike notices were distributed at the plant last week. The workers are members of United Auto Workers Local 647 and International Association of Machinists Lodges 789 and 912.

Union leaders said the strike had been called primarily because of continuous disputes with management over job classifications.

Monorail Proposed For Redleg Stadium

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Mayor Claude Hensley said over the weekend he plans to confer with Cincinnati officials this week on a proposed two-car monorail which would span the Ohio River to Cincinnati's riverfront stadium.

The 80-passenger vehicle, according to Hensley, would make the trip from Covington to Cincinnati in two minutes. The stadium, now under construction, is the future home of the Cincinnati Bengals and Cincinnati Reds.

Nightclub Owner Has Nothing But Trouble

CINCINNATI (AP) — There was nothing but trouble for nightclub owner Al Sharfman Saturday night, no matter in which direction he turned at his Jockey Club.

First, the back door went up in flames, stampeding 70 patrons. The human wave then surged through the front door — carrying owner Sharfman, $400 from the cash drawer and $800 in liquor with it.

He later found that the blaze, which fire officials said was definitely arson, inflicted an estimated $1,300 in damages. There were no injuries, no arrests.

'Guests' Flee Fire At Abandoned Hotel

SEATTLE (AP) — It was an old hotel and nobody was supposed to be living there any more. But firemen said a flock of "guests" fled when fire broke out in the three-story building Sunday.

At least one of the nonguests was a high liver. Firemen found four empty bottles of six-year-old Canadian whisky and a good-sized, half-eaten steak in one of the abandoned rooms.

The fire was quickly quelled. No one was hurt.

Jewelry Store Loss Estimated At $75,000

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Kay Jewelry Co. store at Great Western Shopping Center was burglarized Sunday night or early Monday and police estimated the value of goods taken at about $75,000.

Police said entry was gained through a hole in a back wall. An audit was being taken today to determine the exact loss.

Miss Allegheny Wins Pennsylvania Pageant

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Pennsylvania's representative in the Miss America pageant is an attractive blonde with a slight southern drawl inherited from her native Tennessee.

Susan Robinson, 21, a native of Lookout Mountain, Tenn. and a graduate of Canregie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh, won the Miss Pennsylvania contest Saturday night.

The pageant winner automatically goes to the Miss America competition in Atlantic City later this summer.

Susan, who was Miss Allegheny County, won out over 20 other beauties from across the state. First runnerup was Jean Marie Downey, also 21, a Temple University junior.

In the talent portion of the show, the new Miss Pennsylvania offered a comedy monologue, in hillbilly dialect.

The victory brought Susan a $1,000 scholarship and a special, four-year scholarship offered by Gov. Shafer. She said she hoped to use the scholarships to continue her studies in languages, her major at Carnegie-Mellon.

"I haven't really made up my mind on what I want to do," she said after capturing the crown.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel F. Robinson, still live at Lookout Mountain, where her father is a pharmacist.

Miss Downey, who won a $300 scholarship, offered a medley from the musical, "South Pacific."

The other three finalists, who all received $250 scholarships, were:

Miss Lehigh Valley, Jane Ellen Ternigan, 20, Allentown; Miss York County, Kathy Valera Seitz, 18, Felton and Miss Lancaster County, Gail Rabold, 18, of Ephrata.

Franklin Given Report On Roads

SUMMITVILLE — Sealing of 7½ miles of Franklin Township roads has been done by Columbiana County road crews, Forrest Thompson, president of the township trustees, reported at a meeting Saturday.

He also reported the Snyder Construction Co. has oiled various slag roads for dust control. Repairs are being made to a bridge on Willard Rd. by the crews.

Bills totaling $1,422 were paid. The next meeting will be July 6.

Carpet Treatment Given Wrong Man

CHARLESTON, S.C. (AP) — A 50-foot red carpet was rolled out at the Charleston Municipal Airport to welcome Gov. John Connally of Texas when he arrived for the Southern Governors Conference.

A plane taxied up Sunday and out stepped L.A. Stalling of Tulsa, Okla., pilot of a private company's B26 which had stopped for fuel and was flagged to the wrong parking area.

Stalling told the welcoming committee: "I'm Gov. Stalling from the state of Confusion."

Downtown Store Burglary Probed

Intruders broke into the Montgomery Ward & Co. store on E. 5th St. Saturday night or early Sunday by smashing a window, but apparently nothing was taken, police reported.

Entry was gained between 1:30 p. m. Saturday and 8:05 a.m. Sunday by breaking a 36-x-25-inch window on the west side of the building, officers said. The intruders searched some drawers in the office and moved some papers from the top of the safe, but apparently were frightened away, officers said.

Witnesses told police three boys were seen loitering in the alley at the rear if the store around 11 p. m. Saturday. Police and store officials searched the building after the entry was discovered, but found no one.

Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

Chevelle prices not only start a full $100 less than other mid-size cars- it's more car.

We've thought of things for Chevelle that other mid-size cars would like you to forget.
For instance, that taut-lined package above gives you a ride that rivals bigger higher priced cars. (That's because we thought to give it Full Coil suspension. And a separate frame with a computer-refined mounting system cushioning its Body by Fisher.)
The choice of engines and transmissions you have is the greatest in Chevelle's field. And if you're a performance buff, you'll find we did some thinking on your wave length: black-grilled SS 396's with Turbo-Jet V8 power you can order up to 350 horses strong.
You also get more ways of putting your personal stamp on a Chevelle than any other mid-size car offers. Take wheel covers alone. You can order simulated wire ones. Or mag-style. Or mag-spoke. Or rally-type.
Even so, Chevelle prices start a full $100 under any competitive mid-size cars.
How's that for a parting thought!

It's like no other savings event your Chevrolet dealer has ever held. To you it means extra buying power—an explosion of savings on Chevelles and Chevrolets. Take a look at these bonus savings plans. Then see your Chevrolet dealer.

Chevelle Malibu Sport Coupe

Chevelle prices not only start a full $100 less than other mid-size cars- it's more car.

We've thought of things for Chevelle that other mid-size cars would like you to forget.

For instance, that taut-lined package above gives you a ride that rivals bigger higher priced cars. (That's because we thought to give it Full Coil suspension. And a separate frame with a computer-refined mounting system cushioning its Body by Fisher.)

The choice of engines and transmissions you have is the greatest in Chevelle's field. And if you're a performance buff, you'll find we did some thinking on your wave length: black-grilled SS 396's with Turbo-Jet V8 power you can order up to 350 horses strong.

You also get more ways of putting your personal stamp on a Chevelle than any other mid-size car offers. Take wheel covers alone. You can order simulated wire ones. Or mag-style. Or mag-spoke. Or rally-type.

Even so, Chevelle prices start a full $100 under any competitive mid-size cars.

How's that for a parting thought!

It's like no other savings event your Chevrolet dealer has ever held. To you it means extra buying power—an explosion of savings on Chevelles and Chevrolets. Take a look at these bonus savings plans. Then see your Chevrolet dealer.

ANN LANDERS

Poor Solution For Snore

By Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: My heart ached for that young bride who has circles under her pretty blue eyes because her snoring groom kept her awake until dawn. I'd like to offer a solution that worked for my Aunt Emma and Uncle Wallace. She thought it up herself.

Aunt Emma read up on snoring and found out that most people snore because their mouths flop open and a piece of loose tissue flutters when the person breathes. She concluded that if she could keep Uncle Wallace's mouth shut the problem would be solved.

So Aunt Emma took strips of muslin and tied Uncle Wallace's mouth shut every evening just before bedtime. They are both gone now but they were happily married for 45 years.

Please print this letter. It could save some marriages. — WESTCHESTER.

-:-

Dear Westy: Strips of muslin only? No embalming fluid? Your uncle must have been a saint to tolerate such treatment.

Sorry, I can't endorse your "solution." Tying a man's mouth shut could lead to problems more serious than snoring. He couldn't say "I love you" or anything.

Ill Chosen Words

Dear Ann: I'm 22 and have been happily married for three years. My husband soon will be leaving for Vietnam. Recently he asked me if I'd remarry if something should happen to him. I'm a realistic person and I believe in telling the truth. I replied, "Yes, I think I probably would."

He looked shocked at first and then he became angry and shouted, "I couldn't stand the thought of someone else having you — and living off my insurance in the bargain."

This really hurt me, Ann. It isn't as if I'd be looking for anyone. It's just that since I'm so young and we have no children I don't think I should spend the rest of my life in mourning.

Am I wrong to feel this way? Should I have lied to make him feel good? I'd appreciate your opinion. — HONEST BUT GUILTY.

-:-

Dear H. But G: Questions that start with "What would you do if—" are best answered this way: "It's impossible to predict what I'd do if —. I'd have to wait and see."

Step To The Rear

Dear Ann: What has become of front doors? I'm getting sick and tired of being told when I ring the front bell, "Please go to the back door. I just scrubbed the entrance hall." I always wonder for whom the entrance hall was scrubbed — Queen Eliabeth and Prince Philip, maybe?

Recently I was just about to ring the front bell when the electric doors of the attached garage flew open.

"Come in through the garage," a voice ordered. "We just put down new carpeting."

I was brought up with carpeting and I'm not a pig who doesn't know enough to wipe my shoes on the door mat before entering a home. Furthermore, I've always been under the impression that side doors and back doors were for tradespeople and servants.

What should a person say to let the host know he resents second-class treatment:—P.Z.D.

Dear P.Z.D.: If you resent being relegated to the side or back door, say so. Sometimes people have no way of knowing that their behavior is offensive until they are told. So tell 'em.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

AMVETS Leader Backs Gun Laws

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP)—Finding solutions to the violence in this country is more important than the Vietnam War, the national commander of the American Veterans of World War II, says.

Anthony J. Caserta of Alliance, Ohio, said at a convention of Iowa AMVETS Saturday "Not only should the gun law be passed, but (so should) all sections of the safe streets legislation."

"Dignity must be given once again to the policeman on the beat," he said.

Caserta added that laws should be passed allowing police to arrest and hold suspicious characters for up to 36 hours without the threat of court action for false arrest.

Some creatures can grow, or regenerate, lost parts. A lobster that loses a claw can grow a new one. And if a little flatworm is cut in two crosswise, its head - half will grow a new tail, and its tail - half will grow a new head.

Murder Charges Are Filed Against 2 Columbus Men

LANCASTER, Ohio (AP) — Dr. Edward R. Roller, Fairfield County's oldest practicing physician who died Saturday of injuries suffered in a robbery-beating April 17, will be buried today.

Dr. Roller, 89, had lapsed into a coma and never regained consciousness after April 21. He was attacked in his office in Lithopolis and was bound, gagged and beaten on the head.

Sheriff Jack Blazer filed first-degree murder charges Saturday against two Columbus men, Fred A. Grambo, a 51-year-old Ohio Penitentiary parolee, and William Gallgher, 35. They were previously arrested in the case.

Approximately 25,000 attended the 40th annual Potters' picnic Saturday at Meyers Lake Park in Canton.

More than 250 youngsters took part in the baby contest at 1 p.m. in the dance pavilion and more than 450 contestants, aged 5 to 12, participated in the bathing beauty competition at 3 p.m.

Major events began at 11 a.m. with two hours of free rides.

Many of the children earned some of their own spending money as they grabbed handsful of coins during the "penny scramble" which followed the baby contest.

The oldest potter in attendance was Roy Robb of Sebring, age 90, a potter for 67 years.

BATHING BEAUTY WINNERS. David Madison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Madison of 465 Jennings Ave., second-place winner, holds one of the china piggy banks presented to all contestants in the event, while David Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Skinner of 27 Washington St. Salineville, third-place winner, and Beth Ellen Ferrebee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ferrebee of 815 Cain St., first-place winner, look on.

Practice Session Held By Firemen

Two old chicken coops were burned and smoke mask practice held when the Lawrenceville Volunteer Fire Department held a practice fire drill Sunday at the residence of Beatrice Bryan.

The 11 firemen present took water from a nearby lake with two pumper trucks and a portable pump.

George McDole, fire chief, said a family picnic will be held Sunday about 11 a.m. at Tomlinson Run State Park. The department will meet July 2 at 7 p.m. in the hall.

Michigan Men Cited For Thefts In Ohio

CASSPOLIS, Mich. (AP) — Five Michigan men have been arrested in connection with a $15,000 theft of motorcycle parts from a store in Elyria, Ohio.

Officials said further arrests are expected in the burglary last Tuesday at Elyria Triumph Sales. Police said parts confiscated in the arrests have been identified as those taken from the store.

Arrested Saturday and being held here on charges of possession and concealment of stolen property were James Lovelace, 24; Frank Moore, 22; Roland Marshall, 26, and Carl McGraw, 19, all of Niles, and Maurice Rohl, 29, Buchanan. A hearing was scheduled for June 25.

John Gilligan Says Democrats Can Win

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John J. Gilligan, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, says his party "can win big in November" if an all-out effort is made to get voters registered by the Sept. 25 deadline.

"But if we're talking to people who can't vote, we will be wasting our time," he said at a seminar he sponsored Saturday for Ohio Democratic candidates for the U. S. House.

Gilligan said he will plan his own campaign around that of the party's presidential nominee and those of the House candidates.

2 Uniforms Stolen

LISBON — Police said Larry Jordan of Massillon reported to them at 11:30 p.m. Saturday that someone stole his Marine Corps uniforms from his car on W. Lincoln Way while he was in Crosser's Diner. He said two dress blues with medals including two Purple Hearts, a hat and white belt were taken.

Automobiles make up more than 50 per cent of all property stolen annually in the U.S.

The Midland Junior Women's Club has completed plans for participation in "Frontierland," a carnival to be held at Dixmont State Hospital July 18. The club's booth will be the "Frontier Jail." Mrs. Edward Richards is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Guy E. Gengerella reported on a state Juniors convention she attended May 22 at Pittsburgh with Mrs. Ronald Gailey, president, and Mrs. Michael Radeschi.

Mrs. Gailey and Mrs. Radeschi were named co-chairmen of a July 4 float committee when the executive board met last Wednesday night at Mrs. Gailey's home at Meadowbrook Estates.

The club will attend a performance of "Call Me Madam" Aug. 13 at the Packard Playhouse in Warren.

The next meeting of the executive board will be in September.

Approximately 25,000 attended the 40th annual Potters' picnic Saturday at Meyers Lake Park in Canton.

More than 250 youngsters took part in the baby contest at 1 p.m. in the dance pavilion and more than 450 contestants, aged 5 to 12, participated in the bathing beauty competition at 3 p.m.

Major events began at 11 a.m. with two hours of free rides.

Many of the children earned some of their own spending money as they grabbed handsful of coins during the "penny scramble" which followed the baby contest.

The oldest potter in attendance was Roy Robb of Sering, age 90, a potter for 67 years.

BATHING BEAUTY WINNERS. David Madison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Madison of 465 Jennings Ave., second-place winner, holds one of the china piggy banks presented to all contestants in the event, while David Skinner, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Skinner of 27 Washington St. Salineville, third-place winner, and Beth Ellen Ferrebee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ferrebee of 815 Cain St., first-place winner, look on.

Practice Session Held By Firemen

Two old chicken coops were burned and smoke mask practice held when the Lawrenceville Volunteer Fire Department held a practice fire drill Sunday at the residence of Beatrice Bryan.

The 11 firemen present took water from a nearby lake with two pumper trucks and a portable pump.

George McDole, fire chief, said a family picnic will be held Sunday about 11 a.m. at Tomlinson Run State Park. The department will meet July 2 at 7 p.m. in the hall.

Michigan Men Cited For Thefts In Ohio

CASSPOLIS, Mich. (AP) — Five Michigan men have been arrested in connection with a $15,000 theft of motorcycle parts from a store in Elyria, Ohio.

Officials said further arrests are expected in the burglary last Tuesday at Elyria Triumph Sales. Police said parts confiscated in the arrests have been identified as those taken from the store.

Arrested Saturday and being held here on charges of possession and concealment of stolen property were James Lovelace, 24; Frank Moore, 22; Roland Marshall, 26, and Carl McGraw, 19, all of Niles, and Maurice Rohl, 29, Buchanan. A hearing was scheduled for June 25.

John Gilligan Says Democrats Can Win

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — John J. Gilligan, Democratic candidate for the U. S. Senate, says his party "can win big in November" if an all-out effort is made to get voters registered by the Sept. 25 deadline.

"But if we're talking to people who can't vote, we will be wasting our time," he said at a seminar he sponsored Saturday for Ohio Democratic candidates for the U. S. House.

Gilligan said he will plan his own campaign around that of the party's presidential nominee and those of the House candidates.

2 Uniforms Stolen

LISBON — Police said Larry Jordan of Massillon reported to them at 11:30 p.m. Saturday that someone stole his Marine Corps uniforms from his car on W. Lincoln Way while he was in Crosser's Diner. He said two dress blues with medals including two Purple Hearts, a hat and white belt were taken.

Automobiles make up more than 50 per cent of all property stolen annually in the U.S.

Midland Area News

Mrs. Charles McClure

The Auxiliary of the St. Anthony Club will take a pilgrimage to the shrine of Our Lady of Consolation at Carey, O., Aug. 14 by chartered bus. Mrs. Alfred Passa is accepting reservations. The group will stay overnight and will return Aug. 15.

Mrs. Carmella DiMaggio won the birthday and special prizes, Mrs. Ned Presutti the anniversary prize, and Mrs. Charles Castelli, a special prize at a recent meeting.

Game winners were Mrs. Ann Martin, Mrs. Alfonse Antonelli, Mrs. Leo Marciniak, Mrs. Sam DeProspero, Mrs. Ben Tiberio, Mrs. Emma Uccellini, Mrs. Dorothy Hoppa and Mrs. Theresa Kovalesky.

The next meeting will be July 10 at 8 p. m.

Mrs. Rocco Orlando was installed as grand regent of Court Midland, Catholic Daughters of America, at Presentation's Regan Hall.

The installing officer was Mrs. Louise Carricato of Rochester, district deputy. She was assisted by Mrs. Jane Gdula of Aliquippa, visiting monitor.

Others installed were Mrs. James Green, vice regent; Mrs. Joseph Onuska, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Wirag, lecturer; Mrs. Stephen Rodosky, historian; Mrs. Arthur Castelli, financial secretary; Mrs. Frank Pedro, sentinel, and Mrs. Frank Aloi, prophetess. New trustees seated were Mrs. Arthur Trevino and Mrs. Ann Postich.

The CDA made a donation to a tea honoring Mrs. Estelle Cronin of Pittsburgh, retiring state regent. It will be June 23 from 2 to 4 p. m. at St. Mary of Mercy Hall in Pittsburgh. Members plan to attend.

Members also will attend Court Beaver's officer installation June 20 at Keating Hall, and its 19th anniversary dinner June 27 at the Willows Motel, Industry. Mrs. Orlando is accepting reservations for both events.

The CDA received thank - you notes from a priest the group supports at Trinity Missions, Silver Springs, Md., and from the American Cancer Society for a donation.

The group acknowledged the transfer of Mrs. Joe Spanik from Court Aliquippa to Court Midland.

There will be no July meeting. A picnic meeting will be held Aug. 6 at the Midland Lions pavilion. Members will attend a CDA picnic July 23 at Kennywood Park. The next regular meeting will be in September.

Gifts were presented Mrs. Carricato, Mrs. Gdula, and Mrs. Michael LaPorte. Mrs. LaPorte sang. Guests attended from Rochester and Aliquippa Courts.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Try Frying On High Side

DEAR HELOISE: If you prop up one leg of an electric fry pan (I use the base of my counter-top can opener), you can:

Make relatively grease free hamburgers by frying them on the high side and letting the grease run down to form a little "well" on the low side where you can skim it off easily.

Heloise

Fry bacon, then keep it warm on the high side while frying eggs on the lower side. . .

Or saute onions in the grease that runs down from whatever meat you're browning in the higher side.

MRS. J. N.

-:-

Well, bless Bess, if that doesn't beat all!

Such a simple trick, yet I'm almost willing to wager that most of us with electric skillets never thought of doing this to save that extra pan or to cut down on grease intake.

You're the greatest! A great big God bless to you.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Anyone with a "bed wetter" who sleeps in a regular size bed has quite a job changing sheets.

My solution is to make the bed in the normal manner except for the bottom sheet. Instead of tucking the bottom party under the mattress, simply fold it back to the center.

Then when you have to remove the bottom sheet (which is usually the only one that gets wet), simply pull all your covers back to the bottom of the bed, replace the wet sheet and pull the covers back up.

This saves tearing off blankets and top sheet which I did for years 'till I finally got wise.

FAITHFUL READER.

DEAR HELOISE: Yesterday is gone — so just forget it.

Tomorrow hasn't come — don't worry about it.

"GRAMPS".

DEAR HELOISE: I have always had trouble with elastic loop buttonholes when I tried to replace them. (They usually pull away from the stitches.)

I've found a way to remedy this, though.

I fold a piece of seam tape with the ends of the elastic inside and stitch it several times. Next, I open the dress or coat seam just enough to get the tape inside the garment, then close the seam.

The elastic loop is in there to stay. No more pulling out.

REGULAR READER.

DEAR HELOISE: I always take our wooden skewers that we use for shish-kabobs and for roasting little cocktail weiners over canned heat) and soak them in water for at least an hour before we plan to use them.

The reason for this?

The thoroughly soaked skewers don't char — or break and drop the food being cooked!

Everyone knows WET wood WON'T burn!

DEAR HELOISE: The other day I got some nylon curtains out of storage that I wanted to hang. They were wrinkled from being folded so I tried ironing them, but they kept slipping off the board.

I finally put a damp bath towel over the ironing board. What a breeze! Wrinkles came out faster and the curtains didn't slip at all.

MARJORIE SPROUSE.

DEAR HELOISE: My unused metal lunch box makes an ideal first-aid kit. I keep it stocked with essentials and carry it along on outings — just in case of emergency arises.

Sale Of Bonds Hits $60,000

Harry Barlow, chairman of the 1968 Israel Bond drive in the East Liverpool, Midland, and Chester area, has announced that some $60,000 already has been invested, with the final figure expected to reach $65,000.

About 90 attended the dinner to promote the campaign Saturday night at the Holiday Inn at Waterford Park. The event also marked local observance of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the state of Israel.

The program included a capsule version of the Broadway hit "Fiddler on the Roof" by Jan and Lillian Bart of New York.

Serving with Barlow as co-chairman of the committee was Maurice Rapport. Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Barry Berman were co-chairmen for the reservations.

Only 20 per cent of the people in northeastern United States now live in rural areas.

Hunt Pushed For Pilot In Fatal Crash

A search continued today on Lake Erie in the Sandusky area for a Monaca pilot whose plane apparently crashed in the lake, claiming the life of a companion.

The body of Walter King, 33, of Monaca was found floating Sunday night about three miles northeast of Cedar Point.

Still missing is Russell Simmons, 43, former husband of Mrs. Sylvia Simmons of 1257 Erie St. and father of four children who reside with the mother and another daughter in Wellsville.

Dragging operations for the plane, believed to have crashed off South Bass Island, and for Simmons resumed today, the Coast Guard said.

The two men left Monday night from Beaver County Airport, reportedly planning to fly to Put-In-Bay.

Some wreckage was found between Port Clinton and Put-in-Bay Friday.

Rev. Ralph Abernathy Cancels Sunday Talk

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, head of the South Christian Leadership Conference, canceled a speech Sunday at a Poor People's Campaign rally in the city's predominantly Negro Hill district.

The Rev. Andrew Young, SCLC vice president who appeared instead, said Abernathy stayed in Washington because the SCLC staff decided not to send two of its leaders to the same place at the same time.

Abernathy and Young were originally scheduled to speak.

The FBI said in Pittsburgh Saturday that it had learned that threats had been made against Abernathy's life.

Plans Completed For '18 Reunion

Plans have been completed for the reunion of the 1918 graduating class of East Liverpool High School Saturday at the Travelers Hotel.

The final discussion session was held Saturday at Hales Confectionery on Dresden Ave.

The affair will begin with a social hour at 5:30, followed with dinner at 6:30. Dean Wilhelm will be master of ceremonies and Supt. Paul Blair will give the welcome address.

Mrs. George W. Hales, chairman, has announced 62 reservations to date.

Flow Of Mail Slows From Pueblo Crew

WASHINGTON (AP) — A decline in the number of letters home from the crewmen of the USS Pueblo may be a sign that the North Koreans are giving up their attempt to score propaganda points from the capture of the American intelligence ship, U. S. officials report.

The flow of mail from the 82 crewmen of the ship, captured by the North Koreans last Jan. 25, has totaled nearly 300 letters, but is barely a trickle now, the officials said.

The decline in the mail does not relate one way or the other to the chances of an early release of the men, these officials say. That will have to come from negotiations with the North Koreans at the Korean war truce site at Panmunjom, according to the American spokesmen.

The meetings at Panmunjom are stalled; the last one being held May 28. But the officials expect them to resume.

The content of the letters to relatives and public officials usually have contained enough personal data to cause officials to think they were written by the crewmen, but the substance indicates much of the content, which follows North Korean propaganda lines, was dictated.

The North Koreans have demanded at Panmunjom that the United States must apologize and confess the Pueblo was spying inside Korean waters before the crewmen would be released.

The U. S. position was that the vessel was captured illegally while operating several miles outside the 12-mile limit claimed by North Korea.

Man Murders Wife, Then Shoots Himself

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police say a 46-year-old conductor for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad shot and killed his wife and then killed himself. The victims were Orville F. Canter of Columbus and his estranged wife, Mamie, 58.

The shootings occurred Saturday evening in the driveway at the home of Mrs. Canter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Easterday. Police said Mrs. Canter had been living with the Easterdays.

Sale Of Bonds Hits $60,000

Harry Barlow, chairman of the 1968 Israel Bond drive in the East Liverpool, Midland, and Chester area, has announced that some $60,000 already has been invested, with the final figure expected to reach $65,000.

About 90 attended the dinner to promote the campaign Saturday night at the Holiday Inn at Waterford Park. The event also marked local observance of the 20th anniversary of the founding of the state of Israel.

The program included a capsule version of the Broadway hit "Fiddler on the Roof" by Jan and Lillian Bart of New York.

Serving with Barlow as co-chairman of the committee was Maurice Rapport. Mrs. Barlow and Mrs. Barry Berman were co-chairmen for the reservations.

Only 20 per cent of the people in northeastern United States now live in rural areas.

Hunt Pushed For Pilot In Fatal Crash

A search continued today on Lake Erie in the Sandusky area for a Monaca pilot whose plane apparently crashed in the lake, claiming the life of a companion.

The body of Walter King, 33, of Monaca was found floating Sunday night about three miles northeast of Cedar Point.

Still missing is Russell Simmons, 43, former husband of Mrs. Sylvia Simmons of 1257 Erie St. and father of four children who reside with the mother and another daughter in Wellsville.

Dragging operations for the plane, believed to have crashed off South Bass Island, and for Simmons resumed today, the Coast Guard said.

The two men left Monday night from Beaver County Airport, reportedly planning to fly to Put-In-Bay.

Some wreckage was found between Port Clinton and Put-in-Bay Friday.

Rev. Ralph Abernathy Cancels Sunday Talk

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Rev. Ralph David Abernathy, head of the South Christian Leadership Conference, canceled a speech Sunday at a Poor People's Campaign rally in the city's predominantly Negro Hill district.

The Rev. Andrew Young, SCLC vice president who appeared instead, said Abernathy stayed in Washington because the SCLC staff decided not to send two of its leaders to the same place at the same time.

Abernathy and Young were originally scheduled to speak.

The FBI said in Pittsburgh Saturday that it had learned that threats had been made against Abernathy's life.

Plans Completed For '18 Reunion

Plans have been completed for the reunion of the 1918 graduating class of East Liverpool High School Saturday at the Travelers Hotel.

The final discussion session was held Saturday at Hales Confectionery on Dresden Ave.

The affair will begin with a social hour at 5:30, followed with dinner at 6:30. Dean Wilhelm will be master of ceremonies and Supt. Paul Blair will give the welcome address.

Mrs. George W. Hales, chairman, has announced 62 reservations to date.

Flow Of Mail Slows From Pueblo Crew

WASHINGTON (AP) — A decline in the number of letters home from the crewmen of the USS Pueblo may be a sign that the North Koreans are giving up their attempt to score propaganda points from the capture of the American intelligence ship, U. S. officials report.

The flow of mail from the 82 crewmen of the ship, captured by the North Koreans last Jan. 25, has totaled nearly 300 letters, but is barely a trickle now, the officials said.

The decline in the mail does not relate one way or the other to the chances of an early release of the men, these officials say. That will have to come from negotiations with the North Koreans at the Korean war truce site at Panmunjom, according to the American spokesmen.

The meetings at Panmunjom are stalled; the last one being held May 28. But the officials expect them to resume.

The content of the letters to relatives and public officials usually have contained enough personal data to cause officials to think they were written by the crewmen, but the substance indicates much of the content, which follows North Korean propaganda lines, was dictated.

The North Koreans have demanded at Panmunjom that the United States must apologize and confess the Pueblo was spying inside Korean waters before the crewmen would be released.

The U. S. position was that the vessel was captured illegally while operating several miles outside the 12-mile limit claimed by North Korea.

Man Murders Wife, Then Shoots Himself

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Police say a 46-year-old conductor for the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad shot and killed his wife and then killed himself. The victims were Orville F. Canter of Columbus and his estranged wife, Mamie, 58.

The shootings occurred Saturday evening in the driveway at the home of Mrs. Canter's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. David Easterday. Police said Mrs. Canter had been living with the Easterdays.

Life's Made Of Wonders

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Life is made up of wonders.

Among the things that stir us to wonder:

Why, if hair has to grow in a fellow's ears after 40, does it have to be colored gray?

Why a woman who wouldn't ordinarily hurt a fly manages to impale so many passing men with her umbrella on a rainy day?

Why bystanders are always called innocent?

Why the horse that looks the best in the paddock always looks the worst coming down the home stretch?

Why a wife who says she never has anything but a tuna fish sandwich for lunch always wants a one pound porterhouse steak when her husband takes her out to dinner?

Why cats so consistently refuse to use a scratching post of their own and insist on sharpening their claws on the most expensive chair in the house?

Why the doctor who tells you that you need to go on a diet usually outweighs you by 20 pounds?

Why motherhood is so universally admired but mother-in-lawhood is so widely laughed at? After all, every woman who became a mother-in-law had first to be a mother.

Why suburbanites don't plant crabgrass on their lawns instead of spending their lives fighting it?

Why teen-age children act like angels in other people's homes and like fallen angels in their own home?

Why women make their lives more difficult by being zippered up the back instead of in front?

Why everybody smiles at a fat baby and wants to chuck him under the chin, but frowns at a fat man and pokes an accusng finger in his stomach?

Why the more we do for our kids, the more we feel that we are leaving something undone?

Why the boss never gives a guy a merit raise without also dolefully hinting that the firm may go broke before the end of the year?

Why—with all the money it is getting—the government still can't afford to put enough glue on its postage stamps to make them stick? This problem has been with us for generations.

Why a husband enjoys eating beef hash in a restaurant at midday but kicks like a steer if his hausfrau serves it to him for dinner in his castle?

Why, after a crowded trip by air, your piece of luggage is always the last one the porter pulls off the cart and puts on the luggage stand?

Why it is that the easier science makes life for us, the harder it seems to be to get the same old kick out of it?

Methodists Set Vote On Merger

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP)—The annual meeting of the North-East Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church opens here today and will end Friday.

More than 1,200 ministers and laymen from Methodism's Ohio East area will be attending the first conference session since the union of the Methodist and the Evangelical United Brethren churches last April.

They will be voting on plans to bring about mergers of the two former Methodist and four former EUB conferences in Ohio.

Most of the legislation to be considered by the delegates will be prepared in sectional meetings in which reports of more than 50 boards and church institutions will be studied.

Bishop Francis E. Kearns, Canton, administrative and spiritual leader of the Ohio East area, will preside at the conference sessions.

Death Ruling Due

CLEVELAND (AP)—The coroner is to rule in the death of Dr. Victor F. Woldman, 65, a specialist in gynecology and obstetrics, who was found dead Sunday in his apartment, where he lived alone. Dr. Woldman's body was found by East Cleveland police, who were called by the apartment manager after he had not seen the doctor for several days.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

"Yankee Doodle" was first sung by British troops to make fun of the American colonial forces. But by the end of the Revolutionary War, the victorious colonials were singing the song themselves and proud to be known as Yankee Doodles.

Memorial Services Slated For Coroner

WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — Memorial services for Dr. Lyman Adair, 75, Wayne County coroner the last 36 years, will be Friday at the McIntire Funeral Home here. He died Saturday while visiting a sister in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Dr. Adair retired in 1967 after 45 years of general practice and 40 years as surgeon for the Baltimore & Ohio Railway.

The first two political parties in the United States were the Federalists, who followed Hamilton's lead, and the Republicans (later Democrats) who accepted the leadership of Jefferson.

GEORGETOWN — The WSCS of the United Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Louis Wagner, with Mrs. Kendig Laughlin presiding.

"Where Do We Go From Here?" was the devotional topic led by Mrs. Laughlin. Assisting her were Mrs. Jess Stewart, who read the Scripture lesson, and Mrs. Paul Mackall, Mrs. Harry Schmidt, Mrs. Walter Reed, Miss Flora Nash and Mrs. John Finley.

Contest prizes were won by Mrs. Wendell Welborn and Mrs. William Stewart. Ann Finley also received a prize.

Mrs. Finley and her daughter Ann were guests. Hostesses assisting Mrs. Laughlin were Mrs. Jess Steewart and Mrs. William Reckner.

The next meeting will be Sept. 4.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

The WSCS of the Bethel United Methodist Church in Greene Township held its June meeting at the church.

Mrs. Jack Staley led devotions. Mrs. Paul Staley conducted the business meeting.

Mrs. Ronald Armstrong was hostess for the social hour which followed.

Mrs. Lloyd Beal will be hostess in July.

⁂ ⁂ ⁂

The Good News and Pee Wee Choirs of the Bethel Church have voted to suspend practice until August.

The $33.40 the Good News Choir realized from a rummage sale will be used to purchase new carpet for the church vestibule.

Both choirs sang during the Father's Day service. Mrs. Lloyd Beal is choir director and Miss Mary Whitehill, accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soisson Jr. of Greene Township observed their 25th wedding anniversary with open house from 2 to 6 p.m.

Their five children—Kenneth, Marilyn, Evelyn, Emily and Theodore — and a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Kenneth Soisson, served as hosts. There is one grandchild.

Mr. Soisson and the former Jean Crooks were married in El Centro, Calif., while he was serving in the Marine Corps.

Some 120 guests attended, including Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crooks of Greene Township and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soisson Sr. of Beaver, parents of the couple, and Mr. Clarence D. Beemer, grandfather of Mr. Soisson. Guests were from Washington, Aliquippa, Midland, Beaver, Hookstown, Georgetown, Portersville and Akron.

The couple received gifts.

Mrs. Samuel Laughlin observed her birthday with a family gathering at her home. Visiting with her are Mrs. Douglas Hand and her sons Robert and Todd of Peoria, Ill. Mrs. Hand is Mrs. Laughlin's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Soisson accompanied their daughter Emily, to Mansfield State College, Pa., where she is taking a summer course in Home Economics.

Mrs. Dick McHaffie and sons Mickey and Mark are visiting Dr. and Mrs. James Ross of Miamisburg, Ohio.

Mrs. Walter Reed and Miss Olive Alexander have returned from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCuen of Behtlehem, Pa.

Mrs. Curtis Hoover of York, Pa., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Durst. The late Rev. Hoover was a former pastor of the Bethel-Shippingport and Georgetown Methodist Churches 20 years ago.

Nixon Still Confident

Gov. Shafer Has Joined Rockefeller Bandwagon

By The Associated Press

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller has won a big-state endorsement from Pennsylvania Gov. Raymond P. Shafer for his GOP presidential bid—but acknowledges a drive for such backing could give new delegates to rival Richard M. Nixon.

Shafer announced the endorsement at the end of the Republican Governors Association Conference at Tulsa, Okla., over the weekend and estimated 45 to 50 to Pennsylvanias 64 Republican delegates would join him in backing Rockefeller.

Said Rockefeller: "In the last week, my campaign has really taken off." But he said further endorsements from governors who are now favorite sons could also release delegates to join Nixon's already substantial block of nominating votes.

"There is a delicate balance," he said.

Nixon's campaign manager, John Mitchell, said meanwhile the former vice president already has "more than enough delegates" to win the GOP presidential nomination and "will not engage in an exchange of charge and countercharge with Rockefeller."

Newsweek magazine said Sunday its tabulation shows Nixon only 29 votes short of the 667 needed for nomination, with 573 delegates favoring Nixon, 252 Rockefeller and 146 California Gov. Ronald Reagan.

On the Democratic side, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy indicates he plans to step up his presidential bid against Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey by pressing questions on Vietnam and other issues he has raised.

But former White House press predicted Humphrey will soon begin spelling out his differences with Vietnam.

Moyer's made the prediction in an interview broadcast on WNEW radio in New York.

Former C. Wallace returned his third party presidential campaign to the South—Richmond, Va.—today after saying in Washington he would emphasize law enforcement, rather than gun laws, as president.

"If I get to be president," Wallace said, "I'm going to stand with the police and we're going to have an orderly society."

He was interviewed on ABC's "Issues and Answers."

As the candidates campaigned, New Yorkers prepared to decide the last of the major presidential primaries Tuesday —with 123 Democratic and 82 Republican delegate seats at stake.

Democratic State Chairman John J. Burns said New York delegate slates formerly pledged to Sen. Robert F. Kennedy will remain supporters of his principles. McCarthy backers predicted they would win 40 to 60 delegates and Humphrey slates were entered in 25 of the 41 congressional districts.

Rockefeller is challenged by Nixon delegate candidates for only 11 of the 82 GOP seats at stake.

Delegates were selected by party conventions over the weekend in Idaho and Montana.

A poll of 25 Idaho Democratic delegates indicated 17 would vote for Humphrey and 5 for McCarthy with 3 uncommitted. The 14 GOP delegates reportedly favored Nixon but could pivot to Reagan.

Humphrey got 24 of Montana's 26 Democratic delegate votes and McCarthy 2.

In other political developments:

—Rockefeller reportedly suggested to fellow Republican governors at Tulsa that Reagan be given a leading role at the national convention in televised presentation of the party platform, taking advantage of the California's skill in television presentations.

—Host Gov. Robert McNair of South Carolina said he expects a resolution for tighter gun control laws to be introduced at the Southern Governors Conference in Charleston, S.C. Business sessions began today.

—Mississippi Gov. John Bell Williams, a Democrat, said his party needs an acceptable dark-horse presidential candidate if Southern states are to be kept from going to Wallace.

Covered Pipes Will Help Check Noisy Plumbing

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

The house without a basement but built above a crawl space has become a standard method of house construction.

This has come about naturally because we no longer have to store tons of coal in the cellar, nor do we any longer have barrels of potatoes and apples and hams and bacon hanging from the cellar beams. Oil and gas heating has done away with the first of it and today's markets have eliminated the balance.

There is much to be said for the basementless house, but it also presents a few problems. Probably the most annoying of all is the noise so frequently noticed from the plumbing system.

When a house had a cellar under it, the large space absorbed any great reflection of sound. In a crawl space, however, the noise is confined to a low ceiling and practically any noise is heard above.

The loudest of these is the rush of water through the house water main. Also, most water pipes today are copper tubing, quite light and not nearly as thick as the old iron pipes formerly used for water mains. In some houses the noise reaches such proportions as to be a nuisance.

As a rule, the house water main comes up through the floor of the crawl space, up to the floor beams supporting the first floor and is hung from them. The sure cure for the noise is to cover the pipes completely with ordinary pipe - covering such as is used for covering heating pipes.

It has been estimated that this will reduce noise from the crawl space by as much as 40 to 60 per cent, depending upon how thorough a job has been done. It is also claimed that cheap, brown insulation, which can be bought by the roll, will do just as good a job.

How To Liven Up Your Home

It's What's Up Front That Counts

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Liven up that blind spot around your home — the place that needs something you never quite see.

For example, the front yard. Many people stress the rear of a house where the fun is.

A fix-up program should begin at the front of the house, and it is never too late to begin.

You may have priceless antiques within the portals of your home and your swimming pool might be the largest in the community, but the entrance to your home makes the first impression.

HERE'S A run - through that might help you focus on that blind spot.

Is there a porch? Do its floors and windows need painting? Are stairs rickety? This could be a very satisfactory refurbishing project for a small investment of lumber and paint. It can go a long way to giving your house a whole new look.

Is the front lawn a mess of crab grass, tree shoots, overgrown bushes and hedges? A weekend's concentration on this area may brush it up without depriving you of a rural look if that is what you want. If it is a question of tools, inquire at the hardware store about instruments for each project.

You may have one of those lush green garden-book lawns, but if your house looks like a headstone above a well-cared-for plot there is something wrong with your planting.

Organize an asymetrical plan, avoding neat little rows of anything in front or at the sides of the house. Instead vary the plantings of bushes, shrubs, trees.

For a small investment, anyone in a crowded suburban area can make a driveway entrance to a garage more interesting. Yet you will see one home next to the other with the same dull-looking ramps leading to the garages. Why not tall metal stanchions on either side of the ramp with two old or new lanterns above?

OR IF there is space and it suits the house, how about stone columns on either side with urns for plants? It is one way to distinguish your house.

If there is a porch, hanging baskets of flowers can be inviting and colorful. Fill them with easy-to-grow petunias, lantanas or other creeping plants.

If the entrance is a bare flight of stone steps with a metal railing on either side, it's an ideal place for large pots of flowers such as geraniums, begonias.

Put some on steps, if there is space or place topiary trees on either side of the door. If the man of the house complains that they are in the way, move plants or whatever to the area on either side of railings at the foot of the stairs.

One lively way to make your entrance different is by painting your door a different color from the house. This is such a simple rejuvenator that people seldom think of it.

Good colors for doors of white houses include red, Bristol blue, black.

Doors of weatherbeaten shingled houses look good in faded colors such as sea-green blue or denim blue or that washed-out pinky red.

—:—

STUCCO house doors, particularly those in resort areas, can wear a coat of brilliant hued Bahama blue or Portuguese pink (a lively coral pink).

For some reason, red brick houses are often stuck with unpainted doors, but what a difference a delicate green makes in the appearance of the house. Brick can take colors similar to those used on weatherbeaten houses.

If there are shutters, all the more chance to treat your house to additional colorful frills.

One pretty natural - shingled house has faded to a weatherbeaten appearance is breathtakingly different with its sea-green door, shutters and window boxes with trailing green and white variegated ivy among pink geraniums.

Child's Tooth Broken In Lisbon St. Assault

An 11-year-old West End boy told police Sunday afternoon one of his teeth was broken when he was assaulted by an unidentified youth about 18 or 19.

Kevin Wright of 807 W. 8th St. told officers he was walking on W. 9th St. about 5:31 p.m. yesterday when he found a traffic flare on the sidewalk. He said he picked it up and proceeded towards his home. As he walked on Lisbon St. about three minutes later, a green 1957 model car pulled alongside and a youth demanded the flare, the boy said.

Kevin said he refused to surrender the flare and a youth got out of the car and struck him in the mouth, breaking the tooth. He said his assailant was about 5 feet 7 and was wearing a red-and-white checked shirt and black trousers.

Gov. Rhodes Names Perk To Head Drive

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes has named Cuyahoga County Auditor Ralph J. Perk to head a statewide campaign aimed at enacting an amendment to the Ohio Constitution seeking a homestead exemption for senior citizens.

The issue, to reduce real estate for homeowners past 65, will be voted on in the November election. It was approved by the last legislature.

Now's Time To Paint Your Lawn Furniture

Summer signals the time for outdoor patio parties and the sheer joy of lazy hours spent soaking up the sun.

Before the summer round of activities begin, you'll want to get your lawn furniture in tiptop shape with paint. The reasons for painting are twofold: first for protection and second for beauty.

If your lawn furniture is metal, cracks in the paint are open invitations for moisture to sneak in and promote corrosion. Remove cracked paint with a wire brush and sand away rusted areas with steel wool. Spot coat these problem areas with a protective anti - corrosive primer (such as a zinc chromate type), then add a top coat of colorful exterior metal enamel.

UNPAINTED iron and steel furniture must be painted to avoid corrosion. Galvanized steel furniture should receive a coat of a special primer to insure proper adhesion of the colored enamel coat. Zinc dust-zinc oxide type primers are excellent on galvanized steel.

Other special primers specifically developed for coating galvanized steel will also give satisfactory protection. Apply the primer, allow it to dry thoroughly, then apply one or two coats of a good exterior metal enamel.

Aluminum furniture, beautiful when new, may develop ugly pitting or become dull when left in an outdoor or a corrosive environment. By using a phosphoric acid cleaner and sanding lightly you can remove the dull film. Tor restore the original dazzling appearance, wipe the furniture with mineral spirits to remove dirt and grease, dry thoroughly, then apply a clear, exterior non - yellowing lacquer.

Wood furniture can be attacked by moisture — both from rain and from damp ground beneath. Be sure to check the undersides of furniture to see if the paint is in good condition. The entire piece of furniture should be protected with a coat of good quality enamel.

LOOSE PAINT can be removed by sanding or by using a chemical paint remover. Next, the surface should be scrubbed with detergent and water, rinsed, and allowed to dry. After all metal objects have been primed with rust resistant primer and allowed to dry, colorful exterior enamel can be applied. You'll be wise to apply two coats for the necessary protection.

If you have natural wood furniture, you may want to retain the color of the wood. If so, a spar varnish, a urethane varnish, or some other clear exterior coating will give a glistening finish that will highlight the beauty of the wood grain.

By using colorful exterior enamels, you can create your own exterior decorating scheme for a picnic area, patio, or poolside. Choose bright, carefree colors that contrast with the outside of your home to add casual, cheery accents to your outdoor recreation areas.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q.—How can I remove scorch stains from white shirts?

A.—If the scorch is light, and not burned in too deeply, you can try this: Cut a piece of tissue paper large enough to cover the spot, then drop a little peroxide on the tissue and while still wet, place a heated iron over the tissue. Often, when the tissue is removed, the scorch will have varnished.

Q.—I've been using clear fingernail polish to stop runs or snags in my nylon stockings, but it always turns white after I wash my hose. How about this?

A.—Try using beige or gold-tinted polish, instead of clear.

Q.—How can I improvise an ink blotter when the real thing is not at hand?

A.—Facial tissues make fine blotters . . . often better than the real thing!

Q.—How can I clean shoe brushes?

A.—Soak them in warm, sudsy water to which a few drops of turpentine or mineral spirits have been added.

Covered Pipes Will Help Check Noisy Plumbing

By DOUGLAS TUOMEY

The house without a basement but built above a crawl space has become a standard method of house construction.

This has come about naturally because we no longer have to store tons of coal in the cellar, nor do we any longer have barrels of potatoes and apples and hams and bacon hanging from the cellar beams. Oil and gas heating has done away with the first of it and today's markets have eliminated the balance.

There is much to be said for the basementless house, but it also presents a few problems. Probably the most annoying of all is the noise so frequently noticed from the plumbing system.

When a house had a cellar under it, the large space absorbed any great reflection of sound. In a crawl space, however, the noise is confined to a low ceiling and practically any noise is heard above.

The loudest of these is the rush of water through the house water main. Also, most water pipes today are copper tubing, quite light and not nearly as thick as the old iron pipes formerly used for water mains. In some houses the noise reaches such proportions as to be a nuisance.

As a rule, the house water main comes up through the floor of the crawl space, up to the floor beams supporting the first floor and is hung from them. The sure cure for the noise is to cover the pipes completely with ordinary pipe - covering such as is used for covering heating pipes.

It has been estimated that this will reduce noise from the crawl space by as much as 40 to 60 per cent, depending upon how thorough a job has been done. It is also claimed that cheap, brown insulation, which can be bought by the roll, will do just as good a job.

Lincoln invites you to build your home indoors!

Most Lincoln owner-builders never touch their home until the basic home is completed. You see, Lincoln does more of the work for you at its giant factory, so that you have less to do at the site. Lincoln erects the basic home and about 65% of the major construction all in a matter of days. This means you complete the interior of your home according to any convenient schedule you desire.

Shown here, the Lincoln Carol, outstanding three bedroom ranch design. Flexible room arrangement permits many variations for individual needs.

How To Liven Up Your Home

It's What's Up Front That Counts

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Liven up that blind spot around your home — the place that needs something you never quite see.

For example, the front yard. Many people stress the rear of a house where the fun is.

A fix-up program should begin at the front of the house, and it is never too late to begin.

You may have priceless antiques within the portals of your home and your swimming pool might be the largest in the community, but the entrance to your home makes the first impression.

HERE'S A run - through that might help you focus on that blind spot.

Is there a porch? Do its floors and windows need painting? Are stairs rickety? This could be a very satisfactory refurbishing project for a small investment of lumber and paint. It can go a long way to giving your house a whole new look.

Is the front lawn a mess of crab grass, tree shoots, overgrown bushes and hedges? A weekend's concentration on this area may brush it up without depriving you of a rural look if that is what you want. If it is a question of tools, inquire at the hardware store about instruments for each project.

You may have one of those lush green garden-book lawns, but if your house looks like a headstone above a well-cared-for plot there is something wrong with your planting.

Organize an asymetrical plan, avoding neat little rows of anything in front or at the sides of the house. Instead vary the plantings of bushes, shrubs, trees.

For a small investment, anyone in a crowded suburban area can make a driveway entrance to a garage more interesting. Yet you will see one home next to the other with the same dull-looking ramps leading to the garages. Why not tall metal stanchions on either side of the ramp with two old or new lanterns above?

OR IF there is space and it suits the house, how about stone columns on either side with urns for plants? It is one way to distinguish your house.

If there is a porch, hanging baskets of flowers can be inviting and colorful. Fill them with easy-to-grow petunias, lantanas or other creeping plants.

If the entrance is a bare flight of stone steps with a metal railing on either side, it's an ideal place for large pots of flowers such as geraniums, begonias.

Put some on steps, if there is space or place topiary trees on either side of the door. If the man of the house complains that they are in the way, move plants or whatever to the area on either side of railings at the foot of the stairs.

One lively way to make your entrance different is by painting your door a different color from the house. This is such a simple rejuvenator that people seldom think of it.

Good colors for doors of white houses include red, Bristol blue, black.

Doors of weatherbeaten shingled houses look good in faded colors such as sea-green blue or denim blue or that washed-out pinky red.

—:—

STUCCO house doors, particularly those in resort areas, can wear a coat of brilliant hued Bahama blue or Portuguese pink (a lively coral pink).

For some reason, red brick houses are often stuck with unpainted doors, but what a difference a delicate green makes in the appearance of the house. Brick can take colors similar to those used on weatherbeaten houses.

If there are shutters, all the more chance to treat your house to additional colorful frills.

One pretty natural - shingled house has faded to a weatherbeaten appearance is breathtakingly different with its sea-green door, shutters and window boxes with trailing green and white variegated ivy among pink geraniums.

Child's Tooth Broken In Lisbon St. Assault

An 11-year-old West End boy told police Sunday afternoon one of his teeth was broken when he was assaulted by an unidentified youth about 18 or 19.

Kevin Wright of 807 W. 8th St. told officers he was walking on W. 9th St. about 5:31 p.m. yesterday when he found a traffic flare on the sidewalk. He said he picked it up and proceeded towards his home. As he walked on Lisbon St. about three minutes later, a green 1957 model car pulled alongside and a youth demanded the flare, the boy said.

Kevin said he refused to surrender the flare and a youth got out of the car and struck him in the mouth, breaking the tooth. He said his assailant was about 5 feet 7 and was wearing a red-and-white checked shirt and black trousers.

Gov. Rhodes Names Perk To Head Drive

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. James A. Rhodes has named Cuyahoga County Auditor Ralph J. Perk to head a statewide campaign aimed at enacting an amendment to the Ohio Constitution seeking a homestead exemption for senior citizens.

The issue, to reduce real estate for homeowners past 65, will be voted on in the November election. It was approved by the last legislature.

Now's Time To Paint Your Lawn Furniture

Summer signals the time for outdoor patio parties and the sheer joy of lazy hours spent soaking up the sun.

Before the summer round of activities begin, you'll want to get your lawn furniture in tip-top shape with paint. The reasons for painting are twofold: first for protection and second for beauty.

If your lawn furniture is metal, cracks in the paint are open invitations for moisture to sneak in and promote corrosion. Remove cracked paint with a wire brush and sand away rusted areas with steel wool. Spot coat these problem areas with a protective anti - corrosive primer (such as a zinc chromate type), then add a top coat of colorful exterior metal enamel.

UNPAINTED iron and steel furniture must be painted to avoid corrosion. Galvanized steel furniture should receive a coat of a special primer to insure proper adhesion of the colored enamel coat. Zinc dust-zinc oxide type primers are excellent on galvanized steel.

Other special primers specifically developed for coating galvanized steel will also give satisfactory protection. Apply the primer, allow it to dry thoroughly, then apply one or two coats of a good exterior metal enamel.

Aluminum furniture, beautiful when new, may develop ugly pitting or become dull when left in an outdoor or a corrosive environment. By using a phosphoric acid cleaner and sanding lightly you can remove the dull film. Tor restore the original dazzling appearance, wipe the furniture with mineral spirits to remove dirt and grease, dry thoroughly, then apply a clear, exterior non - yellowing lacquer.

Wood furniture can be attacked by moisture — both from rain and from damp ground beneath. Be sure to check the undersides of furniture to see if the paint is in good condition. The entire piece of furniture should be protected with a coat of good quality enamel.

LOOSE PAINT can be removed by sanding or by using a chemical paint remover. Next, the surface should be scrubbed with detergent and water, rinsed, and allowed to dry. After all metal objects have been primed with rust resistant primer and allowed to dry, colorful exterior enamel can be applied. You'll be wise to apply two coats for the necessary protection.

If you have natural wood furniture, you may want to retain the color of the wood. If so, a spar varnish, a urethane varnish, or some other clear exterior coating will give a glistening finish that will highlight the beauty of the wood grain.

By using colorful exterior enamels, you can create your own exterior decorating scheme for a picnic area, patio, or poolside. Choose bright, carefree colors that contrast with the outside of your home to add casual, cheery accents to your outdoor recreation areas.

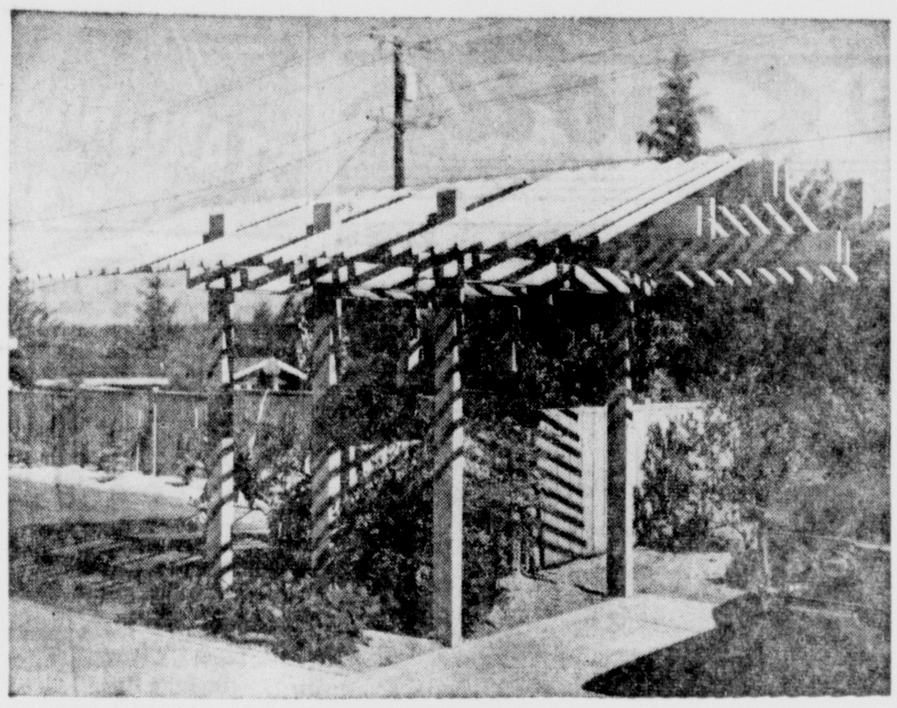
Pergola 'Points' To Walk



Designing the exterior entrance for a home always has been a challenging job, today made the more interesting — and difficult — by modern emphasis on auto travel.

Where once an attractive footpath winding through the center of the front yard was both appropriate and sufficient, the arrival of guests by car has made that arrangement all but obsolete.

A practical approach adopted by many families combines the entry walk with off-street parking for guests. Usually the parking area is at one side of the house, with the walk running through or alongside the car area, then in a line parallel to the house.

THE PLAN has merit, not only because it recognizes that foot traffic begins where auto traffic ends, but also because it doesn't demand a traditional handling of frontyard landscaping.

Perhaps the plan's only problems are those of pinpointing the entry walk for the benefit of those who don't arrive by car and of retaining its important role as an entrance to the house.

Many solutions are possible, however. For one family, it was to build a small pergola at the corner where the walk turns from the driveway toward the house. Charming—even whimsical — the pergola is a just - right accent for the entry area.

Its construction was post-and-beam, using, for effect, larger wood members than were necessary for structural purposes. Yet its appearance is light and small-scaled.

Barely more than eight feet square, not counting roof projections, the pitched-roof pergola has six 4-by-6-inch posts each.

The rows are just four feet apart and the three posts per row are spaced about two feet apart.

CONNECTING pairs of posts across the four - foot width are 2-by-6's nailed in pairs that clasp the posts. Resting on the crossbeams and clasping rows of posts lengthwise are beams made of a 2-by-8 and a 2-by-6. The 2-by-8 is nailed to the inside of the rows of posts and the 2-by-6 to the outside.

For a ridgebeam, a pair of 2-by-8's was used. Appearing suspended in thin air, the 2-by-8's actually are nailed on either side of and supported by two-foot-long pieces of 4-by-6, which, in turn, are nailed between the three pairs of crossbeams.

The pergola is roofed with 1-by-2's on edge. Laid like closely spaced rafters, with ends projecting to form "eaves," the 1-by-2's cast eye-delighting shadow patterns that change through the day with the changing direction of sunlight.

The pergola straddles one end of a screen that outlines the parking area and swings around at the street side to enclose the front yard. Plantings of nandina, rhododendron and viburnum davidii are grouped along the screen and under the pergola.

Compatible shrubs are used as foundation plantings in the border between house wall and front walk, while, on the pergola's side, lawn joins paved walk in a clean line.

Rather than ornamenting the pergola with paint, the fir posts and beams were finished only with bleaching oil.

Evangelist Predicts 'End Of The World'

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham predicted the end of the world in a sermon Sunday night, declaring, "Everybody knows it! everybody feels it! It's in the air!"

Dr. Graham said 26 civilizations have risen and fallen in history. "There's no reason to believe ours will last forever. This world as we know it will come to an end. This cosmos is going to come to an end by a gigantic convulsion, revolution and renovation," he said.

The Baptist evangelist's sermon concluded a four-day Hamisfair crusade, taking its name from the San Antonio Worlds Fair now in progress. Aides estimated 28,000 persons crowded into Alamo Stadium, where normal capacity is 22,406.

Some anthropologists doubt that primitive cultures can be preserved indefinitely, because of the people's own desire to adopt civilization's ways.

Rep. Clarence Miller Hits Poor Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) —U.S. Rep. Clarence E. Miller, R-Ohio, said today that the National Park Service's extension of the camping permit of the Poor People's Campaign "is against the best interest of the vast majority of our nation's citizens."

The Lancaster, Ohio, congressman said the Poor People's Campaign had cut Washington's tourist trade approximately in half, forcing "considerable number of layoffs."

Miller said the District of Columbia was losing about $1 million a month in tax revenue because of the campaign and the encampment at West Potomac Park.

The pergola is roofed with 1-by-2's on edge. Laid like closely spaced rafters, with ends projecting to form "eaves," the 1-by-2's cast eye-delighting shadow patterns that change through the day with the changing direction of sunlight.

The pergola straddles one end of a screen that outlines the parking area and swings around at the street side to enclose the front yard. Plantings of nandina, rhododendron and viburnum davidii are grouped along the screen and under the pergola.

Compatible shrubs are used as foundation plantings in the border between house wall and front walk, while, on the pergola's side, lawn joins paved walk in a clean line.

Rather than ornamenting the pergola with paint, the fir posts and beams were finished only with bleaching oil.

Evangelist Predicts 'End Of The World'

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham predicted the end of the world in a sermon Sunday night, declaring, "Everybody knows it! everybody feels it! It's in the air!"

Dr. Graham said 26 civilizations have risen and fallen in history. "There's no reason to believe ours will last forever. This world as we know it will come to an end. This cosmos is going to come to an end by a gigantic convulsion, revolution and renovation," he said.

The Baptist evangelist's sermon concluded a four-day Hamisfair crusade, taking its name from the San Antonio Worlds Fair now in progress. Aides estimated 28,000 persons crowded into Alamo Stadium, where normal capacity is 22,406.

Some anthropologists doubt that primitive cultures can be preserved indefinitely, because of the people's own desire to adopt civilization's ways.

Rep. Clarence Miller Hits Poor Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) —U.S. Rep. Clarence E. Miller, R-Ohio, said today that the National Park Service's extension of the camping permit of the Poor People's Campaign "is against the best interest of the vast majority of our nation's citizens."

The Lancaster, Ohio, congressman said the Poor People's Campaign had cut Washington's tourist trade approximately in half, forcing "considerable number of layoffs."

Miller said the District of Columbia was losing about $1 million a month in tax revenue because of the campaign and the encampment at West Potomac Park.

Fire Damage High

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Fire officials estimated damage at $40,000 in a fire early Sunday at the Pied Piper Lounge on Toledo's west side. The fire at the night spot apparently started in a trash can inside, officials said.

Loose Lee Trevino Wins Open With Record-Tying 275

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Apparently all the Pirates needed to get on the winning track was someone to spark the team.

The spark has come from a surprising source —Freddy Patek, who recently was recalled from Columbus. Forbes Field fans have taken the 5-5 shortstop to their hearts, cheering his every move. Gene Alley's sore shoulder apparently prompted the recall of Patek (now that Maury Wills has not been traded), and it appears that Alley will have trouble getting his job back even if his shoudler gets better. Patek can make all the plays in the field and proved he could hit with power by homering over the left field fence at Forbes Field, no short poke.

The Pirates won yesterday's second game with their three top stars, Alley, Bill Mazeroski and Roberto Clemente, not in the starting lineup. Another young player who has given the Pirates a lift is Bob Moose, only 23, who came the closest in history to pitching a no-hitter at Forbes Field.

THE APPONTMENT of Bob Skinner to replace Gene Mauch as manager of the Phillies certainly was a surprise. Mauch always has been highly respected and made a contender out of the Phillies, who were tailenders when he took over. I met Skinner, several years ago, and was not impressed by his brains. But he did a fine job as manager of San Diego last year, winning the pennant, so maybe he has the rare knack of handling players. He's a real nice guy, and even gave me an old warmup jacket, which I appreciated.

Don Hoak, another former Pirate now managing, has his Salem (Va.) team in first place in the Carolina League.

A HOLE-IN-ONE is a rare feat in golf. For a golfer to have two within a week is incredible. But Sgt. James Migliorato of Wampum, home on leave from the Army, accomplished an impossible feat last week. Migliorato had an ace at Stonecrest Golf Course, near Wampum, and four days later had an ace at Sylvan Heights, near New Castle. But what made the feat unique was that both holes-in-one came on Par 4 holes, so were actually double-eagle aces. One shot was 310 yards, the other 300.

Yancey Has 76, Finishes Third

He's a joker, a quipster, a wisecracking comedian, but there could be the stamp of golfing greatness on laughing Lee Trevino.

He came up the hard way, from caddie and boot black. He's victory-hungry and tough-minded as the marine he once was.

And, at 20 the brand new U.S. Open golf champion is going to be around a long time.

He proved in a single year he could play with the world's best professionals. Anl now he's shown that he can beat the best — and beat them in record-shattering fashion.

Sunday's triumph was his first professional tournament victory. But you can bet the rent money it won't be his last.

"I'm going to keep on playing as well as I can, and as long as I can," he said. "Sure, I'm going to play some bad rounds. I've played bad rounds before. But I'll keep playing. I'll be playing this game when I'm 100 years old."

His 275 winning total matched the lowest score ever shot in the open, set last year by Jack Nicklaus. And his four sub-par rounds on the 6,962-yard Oak Hill Country Club course set a record in this most prestigious and demanding of all the world's golf tournaments.

He had rounds of 69, 68, 69, 69—four consecutive under par, and never matched by all the greats who have played the Open. No one before had ever done it.

But still Trevino wasn't satisfied.

"I came up 18 looking for a birdie," he said. "I wanted all the records. A birdie would have broken Nicklaus' scoring mark.

He didn't get it. In fact, he had to scramble to salvage par.

He started the day one stroke back of Bert Yancey, his playing partner, and both had bogeys on the first hole. But Yancey faded back with putting troubles, and then Nicklaus challenged, moving within three strokes.

That threat was repulsed when Trevino rolled in 35 and 20-foot birdie putts on the 11th and 12th holes.

"Man, I just wanted to get so far out in front I could bogey in," Trevino said.

Nicklaus finished with a 67 for 279 and second place. Yancey, the leader at the end of play each of the first three days, fell back to a 76 for a 281 and third.

Bobby Nichols was fourth with a 69 for 282, followed by Don Dies and Steve Spray, at 284. Spray closed with a 65, matching the best closing round ever shot in the Open, and tying the record for nine holes, 30 coming home.

Arnold Palmer closed with a 75 for 301 and 56-year-old Sam Snead had a two-under-par 68 for 286.

Trevino made his debut on the pro tour in the 1967 Open, finishing fifth. The $6,000 he won there — he was a $30 a week assistant pro before that — launched him on the tour.

He's won about $120,000 since then and now owns one-third of the club where he once worked, Horizon Hills in El Paso, Tex.

And what about the $30,000 first-prize money from the Open, the Mexican-American was asked.

"I'm gonna buy the Alamo and give it back to Mexico," he quipped.

HAPPY HOMBRE. Lee Trevino is shown with some of the trophies he won for winning the U.S. Open Golf Tournament at Rochester, N.Y. yesterday. (UPI Telephoto)

Cards Keep Rolling

Mets Outfox Giants, Split; Braves Nip Cubs 1-0 In 11

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Herman Franks thought he'd put one over on Gil Hodges and Atlanta was afraid Joe Torre had bounced one over on the Chicago Cubs.

Franks had his lefty-righty strategy cross up in the second game as Hodges' New York Mets nipped the San Francisco Giants 3-1 for a split of their Sunday doubleheader. Ray Sadecki's five-hitter had given the Giants a 4-1 first game victory.

Torre's long double scored Hank Aaron from first base with the only run of Atlanta's 1-0 11-inning victory over Chicago but only after it came dangerously close to bouncing over the wall for a ground rule two-bagger that would have left Aaron at third.

In other National League games, Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Houston 3-1 and 11-2, St. Louis trimmed Cincinnati 4-2 and Los Angeles spoiled Bob Skinner's managerial debut by tripping Philadelphia 2-1.

Franks started left-hander Bill Henry in the second game and pulled a quick switch to righty Bob Bolin in the first inning after Hodges had inserted some right-handed strength in his starting line-up.

Bolin came on to face right-handed batter Cleon Jones with Don Bosch on first base and one out. Jones crossed up the strategy with an RBI double and then scored another run on a pair of wild pitches. Art Shamsky later homered for New York's final run.

In the opener, the Giants tagged Dick Selma with his first loss after six victories as Willie Mays and Jack Hiatt hammered home runs. Mays' leadoff shot in the sixth inning snapped a scoreless tie.

Torre, who suffered a broken jaw when hit by a pitch by Chuck Hartenstein early in the season, paid the Chicago reliever back a bit with his game-winning double.

Aaron had walked and was running when Torre hit Hartenstein's pitch to right center. "I was afraid the ball was going to bounce over the fence and Aaron would have to stop at third," said Manager Luman Harris.

Midland Legion Team Suffers Two Losses

The Midland American Legion baseball team lost two games over the weekend, falling to Ambridge 10-2 Saturday and to Hopewell 2-1 Friday night.

Midland outhit Ambridge 9-7 in the Saturday evening affair at Crucible Diamond, but eight errors ruined the locals' hopes. Paul Francis was the losing pitcher and Paul Melnick the winner. Dennis Kubit led Ambridge with two doubles and a single, while Rich Iorofido slammed a triple. Roscoe Ranelli had a double and single for Midland and George Mraovic two singles.

Friday night's loss at Hopewell was a tough one, with the contest going nine innings. Gratta, leading off the ninth, was hit by a pitch by loser Mraovic, who went the whole way. Cleary singled. The next two men struck out, but two passed balls scored Gratta.

Hopewell scored in the first when Gratta and Polight walked and Zanath singled. Midland tied the game in the fourth when Mike Lacey singled, went to second on a sacrifice by Mike Vuckovich, took third on an infield out and scored on an error.

Mraovic allowed only four hits and two walks and fanned 14. Midland could get only three hits off Phillips, and none off Frank, who pitched the last five innings, striking out 10.

DeVicenzo, Bob Goalby Open Partners

By MARVIN R. PIKE
Associated Press Sports Writer

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — It's said that winning the Masters Golf Championship is worth a $1 million but the 1968 champion says, "I don't want to be a millionaire."

"Sure, I want to win money," Bob Goalby said. "That's one reason I play in a lot of tournaments. But money isn't everything, a man has obligations to his family.

Goalby, playing behind Roberto De Vicenzo, fired a 66 at Augusta to tie the Argentine for first place. De Vicenzo, meanwhile, was signing an erroneous scorecare that dropped him to second place.

"I never got credit for that 66," Goalby said. "They think I backed into the title. I didn't. They say De Vicenzo blew the title.

Sunday Goalby and DiVicenzo were paired in the final round of the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

De Vicenzo carded a par 70 and Goalby a 73.

Both insisted it was not a head-to-head match.

"The Masters is over, let's forget about it," De Vicenzo said.

In the locker room, the quiet, soft-spoken Goalby said he was taking at least two weeks off and going home to Bellville, Ill.

He is the father of two young sons, Kye and Kel.

Goalby had rounds of 76, 71, 73 and 73 for 293 in the Open.

Yankees Nip Angels 4-3

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Horace Clarke staggered Rick Clark to get the New York Yankees off the ropes, but it took a super stroke by Clark Kent to get them off the hook.

California's Clark had the Yankees down 1-0 Sunday until Clarke ripped a two-run eighth inning homer and Mickey Mantle unloaded another two-run blast off reliever Clyde Wright.

The Angels, however, rallied for two runs in the ninth before Andy Kosco, the bespectacled outfielder who is fast becoming New York's answer to the Superman cartoon legend, flashed to the rescue despite a false start and saved the Yankees' 4-3 victory.

With two out, one run in and two Angels on the bases, Kosco lost Bobby Knoop's fly to right in the sun. It fell for a double, scoring Rick Reichardt and sending Bubba Morton racing toward home from first base with the tying run.

But Kosco, whose broad shoulders, good looks and clutch hitting have earned him the "Clark Kent" tag around the New York clubhouse, fired a strike to the plate, easily nailing Morton for the final out.

The Yankees' third straight victory left them in seventh place in the American League —one game behind Oakland's surprising Athletics, who swept a doubleheader from second place Baltimore 4-2 and 6-4. The Orioles slipped 7½ games behind Detroit's league leaders, who split a twin bill with Chicago, winning the nightcap 6-1 after a 3-2 first game loss.

Boston downed Cleveland 5-3 and Minnesota defeated Washington 4-2 in other single games.

At California, Reichardt's fifth inning homer gave Clark a one-run edge and the 22-year-old right-hander, winless in six previous decisions, shackled the Yanks on two hits until the eighth.

Then, Bobby Cox beat out an infield single and Clarke, who had managed one extra base hit . . . a double . . . all season, homered over the right field fence. Clark walked Roy White and was replaced by Wright. Mantle then sent a drive over the left field fence for his ninth homer this year.

Mike Hershberger's two-run pinch homer in the eighth inning capped a three-run rally that shot Oakland past the Orioles in the opener and Sal Bando drove in three runs with a double and two singles as the A's completed their sweep.

Chuck Dobson, 4-6, stopped Baltimore on five hits, including homers by Fred Valentine and Curt Blefary, in the first game. Lew Krausse, 3-7, survived Frank Robinson's three-run homer in the nightcap but needed eighth inning relief help from Catfish Hunter.

The White Sox tripped up Detroit in the first game on Tommy Davis' seventh inning homer and led 1-0 in the nightcap behind Cisco Carlos' one-hit pitching until the Tigers exploded for five runs in the eighth.

Tom Matchick's single, a hit batsman and an error by Carlos filled the cases and crashed the Chicago starter. Willie Horton's infield hit off reliever Hoyt Wilhelm tied the game and Wilhelm walked another run across before Jim Northrup's two-run double and Norm Cash's RBI single capped the uprising.

Denny McLain, lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth after allowing just three hits, recorded his 11th victory against two losses.

Ken Harrelson's three-run homer in the eighth inning powered the Red Sox past Cleveland. Boston's Rico Petrocelli smacked a two-run homer in the seventh.

Jim Lonborg, making his first start for the Red Sox, pitched three-hit ball for five innings before giving way to Bill Landis, who picked up the victory with late help from Lee Stange.

The Twins put together three straight victories for the first time this year in trimming Washington which has lost five in a row, behind Dave Boswell's four-hit pitching and a 12-hit attack. Cesar Tovar clubbed a two-run homer for the Twins after teammates Tony Oliva and Ted Uhlaender poked run-scoring singles.

Am-Am Won By Pickin's Foursome

The team of William Pickin Jr., Bill Miller, Ed Seiferth and Joseph Cooper won the men's Amateur - Amateur at the East Liverpool Country Club Saturday.

The team, playing best ball of four with ½ handicap, shot a 32-29-61. Playing with no handicap, this team shot a 36-33-69, which tied the team of Rick Metz, Dr. W. L. McCutcheon, Art Lynch and Gay Billingsley, which had a 35-34-63 and third was the team of Dr. H. F. Banfield, C. F. Metz Jr., Richard Witherow and F. D. Erwine, which went 33-32-65.

Rick Metz was closest to the pin on number 6 and Bill Kelly closest to the pin on number 4. Pickin had the longest drive on number nine.

Friday there will be a mixed twilight scotch foursome event at 5 p.m. Play will be nine holes with selective drives and alternate shots. A patio dinner will follow the golf and members are requested to sign up now.

Grass Race Slated Monday At Waterford

The first grass race of the 1968 season at Waterford Park has been scheduled for June 17. It will match horses over the lush greensward at the mile distance.

Columbus Jets Lose Twice, Lead IL By 1

By The Associated Press

Columbus' league-leading Jets hold a shaky one-game lead over Toledo in the International League after dropping a doubleheader to Buffalo Sunday.

Thus far the Jets have played eight twin bills, and of the 16 games they've won only five. Four times they've been swept.

The latest double dose of misfortune came when Buffalo's Bisons swept a pair 8-2, 3-1 to gain a split of a four-game series.

In other Sunday games, Toledo closed in on the Jets by blanking Louisville 4-0 on a one-hitter by Dick Radatz; Jacksonville's Tug McGraw whitewashed Syracuse 5-0 with a six-hitter; and Rochester walloped bobbling Richmond 8-3.

Bob Chance hit three-run homers in each game for Buffalo in its sweep of Columbus. The homers brought Chance's total to 17.

Radatz, former major league fireballer, gave a second inning single to Jose Calero and walked one man in his shutout of Louisville.

Astros Fall Twice

Pirates Run Streak To 5, Patek Provides Spark

By JACK L. SHOLL
Associated Press Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Manager Larry Shepard thinks his Pittsburgh Pirates are coming out of it and a little fellow by the name of Fred Patke has a lot to do with it.

In fact, Shepard was almost lost for words in praising the 5-5foot-5 shortstop after the Pirates swept Sunday's doubleheader from Houston. Pittsburgh's 3-1 and 11-2 victories extended the Pirates' winning streak to five games.

"I think he's the greatest thing since . . . " Shepherd said and then paused. Finally he got some words together and said "I just think he's great. He's done a great job."

Shepard said the Pirates, expected to be a contender but mired in ninth place, may be moving.

"They're starting to do some of the things they're supposed to be doing," Shepard said. "Bill Mazeroski is coming out of it. A big part is Fred Patek and what he's done."

Patek, believed to be the smallest player in the majors, was brought up from the Columbus farm team a few weeks ago.

He went to bat 16 times before he got his first major league hit Friday night against the Astros, a bunt single. He stole second and eventually scored.

On Saturday Patek, who didn't hit a single homer for Columbus in 138 times at bat slammed his first major league homer 406 feet over the left field wall and brought in three runs.

"That home run felt pretty good,' Patek said. He laughed and added, "It surprised me and I didn't think I was going to make it around the bases."

Patek got four hits Sunday's doubleheader. He scored one run drove in two and stole a base.

"I felt more relaxed before Sunday's games,' Patek said. "I'm gaining a lot more confidence, but Im still not hitting the ball right. I'm just trying my best and hope things work out.'

The little shortstop who is also a sure defender, seems to have captured the imagination of the Pirate fans, who have had little to applaud so far this year. He gets a rousing cheer every time he comes to bat.

Shepard won't say whether Patek has taken shortstop away from Gene Allye, a strong fielder who has been bothered this year with a shoulder ailment and a hitting slump.

"Right now, I just don't know,' Shepherd said.

Manny Jiminez' two-run single capped a four-run burst in the 8th Sundayy to break open a 1-1 tie to give the Pirates the 11-2 win.

Loose Lee Trevino Wins Open With Record-Tying 275

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Apparently all the Pirates needed to get on the winning track was someone to spark the team.

The spark has come from a surprising source —Freddy Patek, who recently was recalled from Columbus. Forbes Field fans have taken the 5-5 shortstop to their hearts, cheering his every move. Gene Alley's sore shoulder apparently prompted the recall of Patek (now that Maury Wills has not been traded), and it appears that Alley will have trouble getting his job back even if his shoudler gets better. Patek can make all the plays in the field and proved he could hit with power by homering over the left field fence at Forbes Field, no short poke.

The Pirates won yesterday's second game with their three top stars, Alley, Bill Mazeroski and Roberto Clemente, not in the starting lineup. Another young player who has given the Pirates a lift is Bob Moose, only 23, who came the closest in history to pitching a no-hitter at Forbes Field.

THE APPONTMENT of Bob Skinner to replace Gene Mauch as manager of the Phillies certainly was a surprise. Mauch always has been highly respected and made a contender out of the Phillies, who were tailenders when he took over. I met Skinner, several years ago, and was not impressed by his brains. But he did a fine job as manager of San Diego last year, winning the pennant, so maybe he has the rare knack of handling players. He's a real nice guy, and even gave me an old warmup jacket, which I appreciated.

Don Hoak, another former Pirate now managing, has his Salem (Va.) team in first place in the Carolina League.

A HOLE-IN-ONE is a rare feat in golf. For a golfer to have two within a week is incredible. But Sgt. James Migliorato of Wampum, home on leave from the Army, accomplished an impossible feat last week. Migliorato had an ace at Stonecrest Golf Course, near Wampum, and four days later had an ace at Sylvan Heights, near New Castle. But what made the feat unique was that both holes-in-one came on Par 4 holes, so were actually double-eagle aces. One shot was 310 yards, the other 300.

Yancey Has 76, Finishes Third

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

He's a joker, a quipster, a wisecracking comedian, but there could be the stamp of golfing greatness on laughing Lee Trevino.

He came up the hard way, from caddie and boot black. He's victory-hungry and tough-minded as the marine he once was.

And, at 20 the brand new U.S. Open golf champion is going to be around a long time.

He proved in a single year he could play with the world's best professionals. Anl now he's shown that he can beat the best — and beat them in record-shattering fashion.

Sunday's triumph was his first professional tournament victory. But you can bet the rent money it won't be his last.

"I'm going to keep on playing as well as I can, and as long as I can," he said. "Sure, I'm going to play some bad rounds. I've played bad rounds before. But I'll keep playing. I'll be playing this game when I'm 100 years old."

His 275 winning total matched the lowest score ever shot in the open, set last year by Jack Nicklaus. And his four sub-par rounds on the 6,962-yard Oak Hill Country Club course set a record in this most prestigious and demanding of all the world's golf tournaments.

He had rounds of 69, 68, 69, 69—four consecutive under par, and never matched by all the greats who have played the Open. No one before had ever done it.

But still Trevino wasn't satisfied.

"I came up 18 looking for a birdie," he said. "I wanted all the records. A birdie would have broken Nicklaus' scoring mark.

He didn't get it. In fact, he had to scramble to salvage par.

He started the day one stroke back of Bert Yancey, his playing partner, and both had bogeys on the first hole. But Yancey faded back with putting troubles, and then Nicklaus challenged, moving within three strokes.

That threat was repulsed when Trevino rolled in 35 and 20-foot birdie putts on the 11th and 12th holes.

"Man, I just wanted to get so far out in front I could bogey in," Trevino said.

Nicklaus finished with a 67 for 279 and second place. Yancey, the leader at the end of play each of the first three days, fell back to a 76 for a 281 and third.

Bobby Nichols was fourth with a 69 for 282, followed by Don Dies and Steve Spray, at 284. Spray closed with a 65, matching the best closing round ever shot in the Open, and tying the record for nine holes, 30 coming home.

Arnold Palmer closed with a 75 for 301 and 56-year-old Sam Snead had a two-under-par 68 for 286.

Trevino made his debut on the pro tour in the 1967 Open, finishing fifth. The $6,000 he won there — he was a $30 a week assistant pro before that — launched him on the tour.

He's won about $120,000 since then and now owns one-third of the club where he once worked, Horizon Hills in El Paso, Tex.

And what about the $30,000 first-prize money from the Open, the Mexican-American was asked.

"I'm gonna buy the Alamo and give it back to Mexico," he quipped.

HAPPY HOMBRE. Lee Trevino is shown with some of the trophies he won for winning the U.S. Open Golf Tournament at Rochester, N.Y. yesterday. (UPI Telephoto)

Cards Keep Rolling

Mets Outfox Giants, Split; Braves Nip Cubs 1-0 In 11

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Herman Franks thought he'd put one over on Gil Hodges and Atlanta was afraid Joe Torre had bounced one over on the Chicago Cubs.

Franks had his lefty-righty strategy cross up in the second game as Hodges' New York Mets nipped the San Francisco Giants 3-1 for a split of their Sunday doubleheader. Ray Sadecki's five-hitter had given the Giants a 4-1 first game victory.

Torre's long double scored Hank Aaron from first base with the only run of Atlanta's 1-0 11-inning victory over Chicago but only after it came dangerously close to bouncing over the wall for a ground rule two-bagger that would have left Aaron at third.

In other National League games, Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Houston 3-1 and 11-2, St. Louis trimmed Cincinnati 4-2 and Los Angeles spoiled Bob Skinner's managerial debut by tripping Philadelphia 2-1.

Franks started left-hander Bill Henry in the second game and pulled a quick switch to righty Bob Bolin in the first inning after Hodges had inserted some right-handed strength in his starting line-up.

Bolin came on to face right-handed batter Cleon Jones with Don Bosch on first base and one out. Jones crossed up the strategy with an RBI double and then scored another run on a pair of wild pitches. Art Shamsky later homered for New York's final run.

In the opener, the Giants tagged Dick Selma with his first loss after six victories as Willie Mays and Jack Hiatt hammered home runs. Mays' leadoff shot in the sixth inning snapped a scoreless tie.

Torre, who suffered a broken jaw when hit by a pitch by Chuck Hartenstein early in the season, paid the Chicago reliever back a bit with his game-winning double.

Aaron had walked and was running when Torre hit Hartenstein's pitch to right center. "I was afraid the ball was going to bounce over the fence and Aaron would have to stop at third," said Manager Luman Harris.

Midland Legion Team Suffers Two Losses

The Midland American Legion baseball team lost two games over the weekend, falling to Ambridge 10-2 Saturday and to Hopewell 2-1 Friday night.

Midland outhit Ambridge 9-7 in the Saturday evening affair at Crucible Diamond, but eight errors ruined the locals' hopes. Paul Francis was the losing pitcher and Paul Melnick the winner. Dennis Kubit led Ambridge with two doubles and a single, while Rich Iorofido slammed a triple. Roscoe Ranelli had a double and single for Midland and George Mraovic two singles.

Friday night's loss at Hopewell was a tough one, with the contest going nine innings. Gratta, leading off the ninth, was hit by a pitch by loser Mraovic, who went the whole way. Cleary singled. The next two men struck out, but two passed balls scored Gratta.

Hopewell scored in the first when Gratta and Polight walked and Zanath singled. Midland tied the game in the fourth when Mike Lacey singled, went to second on a sacrifice by Mike Vuckovich, took third on an infield out and scored on an error.

Mraovic allowed only four hits and two walks and fanned 14. Midland could get only three hits off Phillips, and none off Frank, who pitched the last five innings, striking out 10.

Yankees Nip Angels 4-3

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Horace Clarke staggerel Rick Clark to get the New York Yankees off the ropes, but it took a super stroke by Clark Kent to get them off the hook.

California's Clark had the Yankees down 1-0 Sunday until Clarke ripped a two-run eighth inning homer and Mickey Mantle unloaded another two-run blast off reliever Clyde Wright.

The Angels, however, rallied for two runs in the ninth before Andy Kosco, the bespectacled outfielder who is fast becoming New York's answer to the Superman cartoon legend, flashed to the rescue despite a false start and saved the Yankees' 4-3 victory.

With two out, one run in and two Angels on the bases, Kosco lost Bobby Knoop's fly to right in the sun. It fell for a double, scoring Rick Reichardt and sending Bubba Morton racing toward home from first base with the tying run.

But Kosco, whose broad shoulders, good looks and clutch hitting have earned him the "Clark Kent" tag around the New York clubhouse, fired a strike to the plate, easily nailing Morton for the final out.

The Yankees' third straight victory left them in seventh place in the American League —one game behind Oakland's surprising Athletics, who swept a doubleheader from second place Baltimore 4-2 and 6-4. The Orioles slipped 7½ games behind Detroit's league leaders, who split a twin bill with Chicago, winning the nightcap 6-1 after a 3-2 first game loss.

Boston downed Cleveland 5-3 and Minnesota defeated Washington 4-2 in other single games.

At California, Reichardt's fifth inning homer gave Clark a one-run edge and the 22-year-old right-hander, winless in six previous decisions, shackled the Yanks on two hits until the eighth.

Then, Bobby Cox beat out an infield single and Clarke, who had managed one extra base hit ... a double ... all season, homered over the right field fence. Clark walked Roy White and was replaced by Wright. Mantle then sent a drive over the left field fence for his ninth homer this year.

Mike Hershberger's two-run pinch homer in the eighth inning capped a three-run rally that shot Oakland past the Orioles in the opener and Sal Bando drove in three runs with a double and two singles as the A's completed their sweep.

Chuck Dobson, 4-6, stopped Baltimore on five hits, including homers by Fred Valentine and Curt Blefary, in the first game. Lew Krausse, 3-7, survived Frank Robinson's three-run homer in the nightcap but needed eighth inning relief help from Catfish Hunter.

The White Sox tripped up Detroit in the first game on Tommy Davis' seventh inning homer and led 1-0 in the nightcap behind Cisco Carlos' one-hit pitching until the Tigers exploded for five runs in the eighth.

Tom Matchick's single, a hit batsman and an error by Carlos filled the cases and crashed the Chicago starter. Willie Horton's infield hit off reliever Hoyt Wilhelm tied the game and Wilhelm walked another run across before Jim Northrup's two-run double and Norm Cash's RBI single capped the uprising.

Denny McLain, lifted for a pinch hitter in the eighth after allowing just three hits, recorded his 11th victory against two losses.

Ken Harrelson's three-run homer in the eighth inning powered the Red Sox past Cleveland. Boston's Rico Petrocelli smacked a two-run homer in the seventh.

Jim Lonborg, making his first start for the Red Sox, pitched three-hit ball for five innings before giving way to Bill Landis, who picked up the victory with late help from Lee Stange.

The Twins put together three straight victories for the first time this year in trimming Washington which has lost five in a row, behind Dave Boswell's four-hit pitching and a 12-hit attack. Cesar Tovar clubbed a two-run homer for the Twins after teammates Tony Oliva and Ted Uhlaender poked run-scoring singles.

Pirates Run Streak To 5, Patek Provides Spark

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Manager Larry Shepard thinks his Pittsburgh Pirates are coming out of it and a little fellow by the name of Fred Patke has a lot to do with it.

DeVicenzo, Bob Goalby Open Partners

By MARVIN R. PIKE
Associated Press Sports Writer

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — It's said that winning the Masters Golf Championship is worth a $1 million but the 1968 champion says, "I don't want to be a millionaire."

"Sure, I want to win money," Bob Goalby said. "That's one reason I play in a lot of tournaments. But money isn't everything, a man has obligations to his family.

Goalby, playing behind Roberto De Vicenzo, fired a 66 at Augusta to tie the Argentine for first place. De Vicenzo, meanwhile, was signing an erroneous scorecare that dropped him to second place.

"I never got credit for that 66," Goalby said. "They think I backed into the title. I didn't. They say De Vicenzo blew the title.

Sunday Goalby and DiVicenzo were paired in the final round of the U.S. Open Golf Championship.

De Vicenzo carded a par 70 and Goalby a 73.

Both insisted it was not a head-to-head match.

"The Masters is over, let's forget about it," De Vicenzo said.

In the locker room, the quiet, soft-spoken Goalby said he was taking at least two weeks off and going home to Bellville, Ill.

He is the father of two young sons, Kye and Kel.

Goalby had rounds of 76, 71, 73 and 73 for 293 in the Open.

Columbus Jets Lose Twice, Lead IL By 1

By The Associated Press

Columbus' league-leading Jets hold a shaky one-game lead over Toledo in the International League after dropping a doubleheader to Buffalo Sunday.

Thus far the Jets have played eight twin bills, and of the 16 games they've won only five. Four times they've been swept.

The latest double dose of misfortune came when Buffalo's Bisons swept a pair 8-2, 3-1 to gain a split of a four-game series.

In other Sunday games, Toledo closed in on the Jets by blanking Louisville 4-0 on a one-hitter by Dick Radatz; Jacksonville's Tug McGraw whitewashed Syracuse 5-0 with a six-hitter; and Rochester walloped bobbling Richmond 8-3.

Bob Chance hit three-run homers in each game for Buffalo in its sweep of Columbus. The homers brought Chance's total to 17.

Radatz, former major league fireballer, gave a second inning single to Jose Calero and walked one man in his shutout of Louisville.

Lonborg Pitches Well, Red Sox Sweep Tribe

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians call the game walks and homers. Boston calls it the end of a great series. And a comeback for Jim Lonborg.

"The long ball sure hurt us," Indians' Manager Alvin Dark said Sunday.

"It wasn't the home run that killed us, it was the bases on balls," said reliever Mike Paul, who should know. He gave up two walks in the eighth inning before Ken Harrelson rapped his 14th home run to beat the Indians, 5-3.

Rico Petrocelli homered in the seventh and scored behind Reggie Smith, who walked.

Red Sox Manager Dick Williams was understandably happy. "A great series for us," he said. "We not only win three but Jim Lonborg looks good in his first start. He had good stuff, particularly in the last couple of innings."

Lonborg worked five innings Sunday and gave up three singles. It was his first start since the World Series last year. He underwent knee surgery following a skiing accident during the winter.

The Indians now have lost six in a row.

"I sure hope it's only a slump," said Dark. "I think that's what it is. We're not pitching real well now but I know that's a solid part of the team."

Lonborg, who had a 22-9 record last year and won the Cy Young Award, was wild the first two innings and loaded the bases twice. He got away with only one run—on a sacrifice fly by Lee Maye in the first.

Petrocelli's eighth homer gave Boston a 2-1 lead but Joe Azcue rapped a pinch-hit single to tie the score in the same inning.

Paul replaced Sonny Siebert to open the eighth and walked pinch-hitters Jerry Adair and George Scott. The young southpaw struck out Carl Yastrzemski for the second out but Harrelson poled one over the left field fence.

There was one bright spot in the defeat Sunday.

"Our three new guys were on base six times," Dark said, referring to Jim Hall, Russ Snyder and Bill Harris. Hall and Snyder came in trades. Harris was called up from Portland Saturday.

Indians Deal Vic Davalillo To Angels

By The Associated Press

Major league teams, failing to come up with any major deals, moved around a number of second-line players before the trading leadline.

The last trade was made only minutes before last Saturday's midnight deadline and sent Houston's regular center fielder, Ron Davis to the St. Louis Cardinals for reserve outfielder Dick Simpson and rookie reliever Hal Gilson.

Earlier in the day, Baltimore traded for outfield protection in case Paul Blair is inducted into the Army. The Orioles got Fred Valentine, 33, hitting .240 in 36 games, from Washington in exchange for disappointing right-handed pitcher Bruce Howard, 25, who has an 0-2 record and a 3.77 era in 31 innings.

Cleveland and California traded outfielders, the Indians sending Vic Davallilli, 26, and his .239 average to the Angels for Jimmie Hall, 30, hitting .210.

The Yankees sent Jim Bouton, a former 21-game winner and World Series hero, to the 1969 expansion Seattle club, and he was immediately assigned to Seattle of the Pacific Coast League for the remainder of the season.

Giovenco Bird Wins Race From Indiana

A bird owned by Vic Giovenco won the pigeon race of the East Liverpool Racing Pigeon Club yesterday from Farmersburg, Ind.

The next finishers were owned by Wilbur Brookes, Allie Rice, Pat Connor, Rice and Ben Glogar. There were 203 birds from 14 lofts in the race.

Blair-Morse Tops Central In Colt Play

Blair-Morse beat Central Service 8-5 Saturday in the only Colt League game not rained out over the weekend.

Steve Murray got the win, but needed relief help from George Whitaker. Randy McVay took the loss. Kim Kemple and Terry Boyd tripled for the winners, Rick Shepherd had a double and single and Murray and Joe March two hits each. McVay and Jim (EL) Parson had two hits each for Central Service and Jim Moore a double.

Blair-Morse ended up as the leader at the end of the first half of league play, with 17 points to 10 for Central Service, 6 for the Laywers and 3 for Riverview Florists.

A revised schedule for this week shows Riverview vs. Blair-Morse tonight, the Lawyers hosting Warren tomorrow, Lawyers meeting Central Service Wednesday, Blair - Morse hosting Warren Thursday, Riverview and Lawyers clashing Friday and four games Saturday. Riverview goes to Richmond for a doubleheader starting at 1:30 and Blair-Morse and Lawyers play a doubleheader starting at 4.

Wahoo Sam Crawford Dead At 88

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Sam "Wahoo" Crawford, who set major league batting records in the days when pitchers doctored baseballs with emery boards, bottle caps and soap, is dead at the age of 88.

Despite the handiwork of pitchers on a ball already much deader than today's baseball, Crawford compiled a lifetime record which still stands of 312 triples. He led both leagues in home runs and, at the time of his death, his career base hit mark of 2,964 was the ninth best in baseball history.

Wahoo, who derived his nickname from his hometown of Wahoo, Neb., was a player of the old school who favored legalizing the spitball and contended that more than half his triples would have been homers had he been swinging against modern baseballs.

He died Saturday evening at Hollywood Community Hospital where he had been confined for several weeks after suffering a stroke.

Inducted into the baseball Hall of Fame July 22, 1957, Crawford had been the oldest living member of those enshrined at Cooperstown, N. Y.

During his 19 years in the majors, ending in 1917, he rolled up a career batting average of .309.

Spokesmen for Crawford's survivors—his widow Mary, a son and a daughter—said funeral services would be private.

Mark Donohue Wins Trans-America Race

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Mark Donohue of Media, Pa., won the Trans-American sedan championship at the Mid-Ohio Sports Car Course here Sunday, edging defending champion Jerry Titus of Encino, Calif.

Donohue, who started far back in the field but was in front on the 10th lap, drove a Camaro 102 laps in three hours and 44 seconds over the 2.4 mile road coulse. It was his fourth victory in five races this season.

Titus, driving a Mustang, was one lap and 22 seconds behind Donohue.

Patrick Wins 1,500 Run; USC Captures Team Title

By RON RAPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Dave Patrick has sent his best wishes to the ailing Jim Ryun. He got a message across to Dave Wilborn, too.

Patrick of Villanova won the 1,500-meter run at the National Collegiate Athletic Association track championships Saturday in the meet-record time of 3:39.9, breezing past Wilborn of Oregon on the final backstretch.

"My coach told me, 'Don't be even with Patrick down the backstretch because he's faster than you are,' " Wilborn said later. "It's obviously true now."

Asked about his strategy of staying back until the last lap, Patrick said, "After running for seven years, I guess you've got to learn something. I slowed down on the curve, because if I kept going at the same pace as when I passed him, I wouldn't have finished."

Not in the race at this meet where Southern California defended its team title was Ryun, the world record holder at 1,500 meters and the mile, who is recuperating from mononucleosis by working out in Arizona.

Patrick said he sent Ryun a get-well card saying he hoped they'd compete in the final Olympic trials at Lake Tahoe in September.

The Trojans from Southern Cal had a big scare thrown into them for the team title, beating Wuhington State by just one point, 58-57.

Washington State by just one victory, the only one of the meet, from little Gerry Lindgren who Saturday won the 5,000 meters in 13:57.2, a meet record, after capturing the 10,000 Thursday in 29:41.0. The Cougars also got winning performances from John Van Reenan with a 194-10 discus throw and Carl O'Donnell with a 258-11 javelin toss.

Jim Stefanich Wins Portland Open Bowling

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Jim Stefanich of Joliet, Ill., won his fifth tournament of the year Saturday night when he captured the Professional Bowlers Association 30,000 Portland Open.

The 26-year-old superstar picked up $3,000 for his win. This left him only $320 short of the all-time money winning record of $54,720, set by Wayne Zahn in 1966.

The winner's final total was 9,222 for 40 games. This included 500 bonus pins he collected for winning ten of his 16 match games in Saturday's action.

Dave Soutar of Detroit finished with 9,169.

USC Wins 5th College World Series

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — "This USC team has never been excelled in desire and willingness to pay the price," said Rod Dedeaux, wily 53-year-old coach of Southern California's NCAA baseball champions.

"I've never seen anything like it the way they kept coming back," Dedeaux said. "Two out and two strikes in the last of the ninth here, the same thing in the district championship game, and three other teams had us down here, but these guys won 'em all."

USC specialized in winning cliff-hangers, it's true, and the 4-3 victory over Southern Illinois Saturday night was the most dramatic. It was USC's fifth College World Series crown.

Pat Kuehner, a senior outfielder drafted by Washington, was the hero of the title game. He ripped a 375-foot, two-run pinch triple off the fence in right center with two out and two strikes on him, after going hitless in 14 previous Series trips.

Brent Strom, sophomore lefty, came in with SIU ahead 3-2, the bases loaded, two out and three balls on the batter in the eighth. He got the out and gained his second Series victory in relief.

Willie Davis Gets NFL White Award

CHICAGO (AP) — Willie Davis, All-Pro defensive end of the Green Bay Packers, was named Sunday winner of the National Football League's top award for contributions to his team, league and community.

Davis, who last week received a master's degree from the University of Chicago, received the Justice Byron Raymond "Whizzer" White Award at the NFL's second annual awards night dinner, a $100-a-plate affair.

The award is named for the U.S. Supreme Court justice who was a former All-American and professional football player.

Funds from the dinner, attended by 1,800 football players, business leaders and fans, went to the Better Boys Foundation of Chicago. Top defensive awards went to Ray Nitschke of the Packers and Dave Jones of the Los Angeles Rams. Nitschke was picked by his colleagues as the finest linebacker in the NFL. Jones was named the best defensive lineman in the league.

The rookies of the year, on offense and defense, were teammates on the Detroit Lions. Mel Farr was selected for his outstanding play as a first-year running back and receiver. Lem Barney was the top rookie defender.

Jack Bowsher Wins Twice At N. Bremen

NEW BREMEN, Ohio (AP)—Jack Bowsher of Springfield, Ohio, swept both ends of the twin 100-lap features for USAC late model stock cars and had the fastest qualifying time at New Bremen Speedway Sunday.

Bowsher drove a 1968 Ford Torino to victory in each of the 100-lap, 50-miles feaures over the half-mile paved track. His top qualifying time was 20.06.

Gene Marmor of River Grove, Ill., in a 1967 Chevelle, won second place in the first event and came back to grab third place in the second feature.

Norm Nelson of Racine, Wis., finished third in the first feature in a 1968 Plymouth and Frank Freda of Elmhurst, Ill., was fourth in a 1967 Plymouth.

Al Unser of Albuquerque, N. Mex., won second place in the second feature in a 1968 Dodge Charger. Don White of Keokuk, Iowa, the defending USAC champion who was involved in a crash in a warmup period, was fourth in a 1968 Plymouth.

White and Lamarr Marshall of Louisville, Ky., crashed during trial runs, but neither was hurt.

Bill Behling of Milwaukee, Wis., was injured in the second race when his 1967 Ford crashed on the 50th lap into a wrecker parked in the infield. He lost control coming out of the fourth turn. Behling was admitted to a hospital.

Also injured in the accident was the track physician, Dr. Charles Gerity, who was standing on top of the wrecker. He suffered a broken arm.

Lonborg Pitches Well, Red Sox Sweep Tribe

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians call the game walks and homers. Boston calls it the end of a great series. And a comeback for Jim Lonborg.

"The long ball sure hurt us," Indians' Manager Alvin Dark said Sunday.

"It wasn't the home run that killed us, it was the bases on balls," said reliever Mike Paul, who should know. He gave up two walks in the eighth inning before Ken Harrelson rapped his 14th home run to beat the Indians, 5-3.

Rico Petrocelli homered in the seventh and scored behind Reggie Smith, who walked.

Red Sox Manager Dick Williams was understandably happy. "A great series for us," he said. "We not only win three but Jim Lonborg looks good in his first start. He had good stuff, particularly in the last couple of innings."

Lonborg worked five innings Sunday and gave up three singles. It was his first start since the World Series last year. He underwent knee surgery following a skiing accident during the winter.

The Indians now have lost six in a row.

"I sure hope it's only a slump," said Dark. "I think that's what it is. We're not pitching real well now but I know that's a solid part of the team."

Lonborg, who had a 22-9 record last year and won the Cy Young Award, was wild the first two innings and loaded the bases twice. He got away with only one run—on a sacrifice fly by Lee Maye in the first.

Petrocelli's eighth homer gave Boston a 2-1 lead but Joe Azcue rapped a pinch-hit single to tie the score in the same inning.

Paul replaced Sonny Siebert to open the eighth and walked pinch-hitters Jerry Adair and George Scott. The young southpaw struck out Carl Yastrzemski for the second out but Harrelson poled one over the left field fence.

There was one bright spot in the defeat Sunday.

"Our three new guys were on base six times," Dark said, referring to Jim Hall, Russ Snyder and Bill Harris. Hall and Snyder came in trades. Harris was called up from Portland Saturday.

Bob Skinner Offensive Manager

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bob Skinner says he's an offensive manager. Now all he has to do is find an offensive ballclub and he'll be all set.

The Philadelphia Phillies, playing their first game under their new manager, were anything but offensive in a 2-1 loss to the Los Angeles Dodgers Sunday.

Skinner, who took over direction of the team after Gene Mauch was fired, admitted before Sunday's game that he'd rather his ballplayers hit away then but to advance runners in the early innings.

He let his new team do that on a couple of occasions—and came out on the short end of it.

Examples:

—In the second inning, with the teams scoreless, the Phillies got the first two men on base. While some managers might have the next batter bunt, Skinner let Roberto Pena swing and he hit into a forceout.

In the third inning, with the Phillies behind 1-0, the first man got on base. But Cookie Rojas was swinging away, and he, too, hit a forceout roller.

OU's Taylor Wins NCAA 220 Crown

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Emmett Taylor of Ohio University won the 200-meter dash in the NCAA track and field championships Saturday, becoming the only Ohioan to claim a first place trophy.

Taylor was timed in 20.8 and edged Lennox Miller of Southern California. Taylor won the 440-yard dash in the 1967 NCAA meet.

Ohio finished eighth in team standings with 18 points. The Bobcats took second place in the mile relay in 3:09.0.

Kent State finished with 4 points and Miami of Ohio and Toledo each got 1 point.

Kent's Sam Bair finished fourth in the 1500-meter run. He was clocked in 3:41.4. Ted Downing of Miami placed sixth in the high jump with a leap of 6 feet, 11 inches. Aaron Hopkins of Toledo was sixth in the long jump Friday.

Miami's Lester Smith was seventh in the pole vault at 15-6.

High Hat Wins BG 'Cap At Belmont

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

High Hat proved to be the hit of the picture at Belmont Park, but Fiddle Isle turned out to be the villain in a movie made at Hollywood Park.

High Hat and Irish Rebellion hit the finish of the 1½-mile Bowling Green Handicap Saturday almost as one, but the photo showed High Hat's nose in front.

Fiddle Isle finished first by a half-length in the 1½-mile Cinema Handicap. But Bill Harmatz aboard American Tiger, who finished third in a dead heat with Distinctly, claimed Fiddle Isle and jockey Larry Gilligan bothered his mount in the stretch.

After viewing the patrol film, the stewards disqualified Fiddle Isle and placed him fourth.

However, Howard Keck, owner of Fiddle Isle, still got the $32,400 winner's share of the $54,900 purse because he also owns Pinjara, who was placed first in the turf race.

'Scorecard' Suggested In Transplants

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A life-and-death scorecard has been suggested by a doctor as one way to answer the difficult medical and ethical question: When is a patient dead and his organs available for transplants?

The suggestion came from Dr. Vincent J. Collins, professor of anesthesia at Northwestern University School of Medicine, at a panel discussion at the annual convention of the American Medical Association.

This was his proposal:

The patient's heart, brain, lungs, circulation and reflex activity would be monitored for one or two hours. Each activity would be scored 2 if normal, 1 if depressed and 0 if stopped.

A score of 5 or more would indicate continuing life. Less than 5 would mean death was near. And 0 would be a sure indication of death.

Collins suggested that such a system could provide an answer for transplant surgeons seeking a common standard to determine if a potential donor is in fact dead.

Collins was one of three specialists who discussed moral and legal problems in "Medicine and Religion" here Sunday.

In North America, hay fever is caused chiefly by the pollen of ragweed, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Marocco Named Ambridge Coach

AMBRIDGE, Pa. (AP) — Frank Marocco, a former Aliquippa High and North Carolina State guard, has signed a three-year contract as football coach at Ambridge High School.

The school board voted last month to hire Rip Scherer of New Jersey. Scherer didn't return a signed contract so the board opened the spot and hired Marocco.

Bol 'N Jac Candidate For Waterford Mile

Bol 'N Jac, claimed for $30,000 by the Bobcat Stable at Hialeah last winter, is a prime candidate for the $7,500 added Waterford Mile June 21. His last two efforts both resulted in victories. He won the Grove City Handicap at Ohio's Beaulah Park, then proved much the best in the Memorial Day Handicap at Cleveland's Thistledown.

Bob Skinner Offensive Manager

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Bob Skinner says he's an offensive manager. Now all he has to do is find an offensive ballclub and he'll be all set.

The Philadelphia Phillies, playing their first game under their new manager, were anything but offensive in a 2-1 loss to the Los Angeles Dodgers Sunday.

Skinner, who took over direction of the team after Gene Mauch was fired, admitted before Sunday's game that he'd rather his ballplayers hit away then but to advance runners in the early innings.

He let his new team do that on a couple of occasions—and came out on the short end of it.

Examples:

—In the second inning, with the teams scoreless, the Phillies got the first two men on base. While some managers might have the next batter bunt, Skinner let Roberto Pena swing and he hit into a forceout.

In the third inning, with the Phillies behind 1-0, the first man got on base. But Cookie Rojas was swinging away, and he, too, hit a forceout roller.

OU's Taylor Wins NCAA 220 Crown

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — Emmett Taylor of Ohio University won the 200-meter dash in the NCAA track and field championships Saturday, becoming the only Ohioan to claim a first place trophy.

Taylor was timed in 20.8 and edged Lennox Miller of Southern California. Taylor won the 440-yard dash in the 1967 NCAA meet.

Ohio finished eighth in team standings with 18 points. The Bobcats took second place in the mile relay in 3:09.0.

Kent State finished with 4 points and Miami of Ohio and Toledo each got 1 point.

Kent's Sam Bair finished fourth in the 1500-meter run. He was clocked in 3:41.4. Ted Downing of Miami placed sixth in the high jump with a leap of 6 feet, 11 inches. Aaron Hopkins of Toledo was sixth in the long jump Friday.

Miami's Lester Smith was seventh in the pole vault at 15-6.

High Hat Wins BG 'Cap At Belmont

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

High Hat proved to be the hit of the picture at Belmont Park, but Fiddle Isle turned out to be the villain in a movie made at Hollywood Park.

High Hat and Irish Rebellion hit the finish of the 1½-mile Bowling Green Handicap Saturday almost as one, but the photo showed High Hat's nose in front.

Fiddle Isle finished first by a half-length in the 1½-mile Cinema Handicap. But Bill Harmatz aboard American Tiger, who finished third in a dead heat with Distinctly, claimed Fiddle Isle and jockey Larry Gilligan bothered his mount in the stretch.

After viewing the patrol film, the stewards disqualified Fiddle Isle and placed him fourth.

However, Howard Keck, owner of Fiddle Isle, still got the $32,400 winner's share of the $54,900 purse because he also owns Pinjara, who was placed first in the turf race.

'Scorecard' Suggested In Transplants

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A life-and-death scorecard has been suggested by a doctor as one way to answer the difficult medical and ethical question: When is a patient dead and his organs available for transplants?

The suggestion came from Dr. Vincent J. Collins, professor of anesthesia at Northwestern University School of Medicine, at a panel discussion at the annual convention of the American Medical Association.

This was his proposal:

The patient's heart, brain, lungs, circulation and reflex activity would be monitored for one or two hours. Each activity would be scored 2 if normal, 1 if depressed and 0 if stopped.

A score of 5 or more would indicate continuing life. Less than 5 would mean death was near. And 0 would be a sure indication of death.

Collins suggested that such a system could provide an answer for transplant surgeons seeking a common standard to determine if a potential donor is in fact dead.

Collins was one of three specialists who discussed moral and legal problems in "Medicine and Religion" here Sunday.

In North America, hay fever is caused chiefly by the pollen of ragweed, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Marocco Named Ambridge Coach

AMBRIDGE, Pa. (AP) — Frank Marocco, a former Aliquippa High and North Carolina State guard, has signed a three-year contract as football coach at Ambridge High School.

The school board voted last month to hire Rip Scherer of New Jersey. Scherer didn't return a signed contract so the board opened the spot and hired Marocco.

Bol 'N Jac Candidate For Waterford Mile

Bol 'N Jac, claimed for $30,000 by the Bobcat Stable at Hialeah last winter, is a prime candidate for the $7,500 added Waterford Mile June 21. His last two efforts both resulted in victories. He won the Grove City Handicap at Ohio's Beaulah Park, then proved much the best in the Memorial Day Handicap at Cleveland's Thistledown.

Camp Fire Girl News

Two years of planning and saving by Camp Fire Girls Group 54 was awarded with a trip to Pittsburgh, during which they stayed at the Pick-Roosevelt Hotel.

Included in the itinerary was the Fort Pitt Block House, Buhl Planetarium, Carnegie Museum, Phipps Flower Conservatory and the Aviary Conservatory. A shopping tour at the Allegheny Mall and dinner at the Flame Steak House highlighted the event.

Mrs. James Matheny, guardian, and Mrs. Thomas Densmore, sponsor, and Mrs. Gene McCoy, Blue Bird leader, accompanied the group comprised of Olive Earich, Amy Cawell, Melanie White, Debra Smith, Debra White and Judith Densmore.

A bicycle hike, family picnic and closing ceremonial will conclude activities for the season.

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. — How can I insure knitted woolens' retaining their shape when laundering?

A. — By drying them blocked to shape on special dryers. Never put knitted woolens in an automatic dryer!

Q. — How can I induce more smoothness and glossiness when ironing starched pieces?

A. — By stirring your starch three or four times while boiling with a paraffin candle.

Q.—How can I make a thorough job of cleaning the insides of vacuum bottles?

A.—Drop torn-up scraps of paper inside the bottle, add a little bicarbonate of soda and warm water, then shake the whole business well. After this cleaning job, be sure to leave the bottle uncorked, open to the air.

George Likes Being Goober

George Likes Being Goober

It's better to be an "is" than a "never was," according to George Lindsey. That's why he's so happy he "is" Goober Pyle on the Andy Griffith Show and will go right on playing Goober when Andy leaves it this fall and comes "Mayberry R.F.D." the series be- and stars Ken Berry

Hal Humphrey

"I've loved every minute of the four years as Goober, and can't wait to get back to work next month. I just play the fire out of that role. When I'm not workin' I go down to the set anyway. It's that kind of place," says George, who really must be Goober.

-:-

MOST ACTORS by now would be sick of a role like the simple Goober, and the fact the fans knew him by that name instead of his real one. George doesn't look at it that 'way, as you plainly can see.

"I was not doing so hot as George Lindsey, I'll tell you that," says George. "I was so hard up for a job at one point, I carried the letter 'Q' in Mike Todd's birthday party at Madison Square Garden. We were pluggin' his next picture which was to be 'Don Quixote,' and we paraded around the Garden carrying these big cut-out letters spelling it out.

"My first job on TV was playin' one of the liars on 'To Tell the Truth.' I got $80 and $10 in cosmetics, and my agent took $8 of that. For six weeks I was in an off-broadway show, and the only money I got was $2, which was the one night they split up the box office among the actors."

GEORGE wanted to be as actor almost right from the start in his home town of Jasper, Ala., which is only about 60 miles from Sylacauga, Fla., where Jim Nabors was born. (Nabors played Gomer Pyle, Goober's cousin in the Andy Griffith Show.)

"I finally quit coachin' and teachin' 11th-grade history at Hazel Green High School in Huntsville and took the wife and went to New York. I wanted to be an actor so bad, I had ulcers for five years. My wife, Joy, supported us, working for the Girl Scouts."

He studied at the American Theater Wing in New York, but was the only Shakespearean actor with baggy tights ("It just wasn't my thing, I guess"). Then he played little resorts in the Adirondacks and finally was spotted and given an audition for the Broadway show, "All-American" with Ray Bolger.

-:-

"THE AUDITION lasted three months, but I finally got the job and six months' work, and got my ulcer quieted down," George recalls.

He wound up in California after a tour with an automobile show, and Sheldeon Leonard put him in a pilot film for TV called "My 15 Blocks." It never sold.

Later Sheldon auditioned George for the role of Gomer Pyle in the Andy Griffith Show, but Jim Nabors got the job. This was two years before George got to be cousin Goober — after Gomer left to star in his own series.

"Andy Griffith turned out to be the greatest teacher I've ever had. He kept tellin' me to play myself, to let it happen to me, instead of trying to be funny. Finally, one day, Andy wasn't watchin' me any more and I figured I'd really done it.

"I went to school with Andy for two years, you might say, and am I goin' to miss him, you ask? That's like sayin' am I goin' to miss my wife and kids," says George.

BACK IN JASPER, Ala., the townsfolk have held several "Goober"days for their conquering hero, but a lot of them still haven't figured out how George can make a living just working 30 minutes a week, and they keep asking his mother about it.

"My mother is funnier than I am," says George. "She was out here visitin' us and asked my wife one night which direction was north. Joy pointed to the north and then said, 'And that's south and there is east and west.'

"My mother says, 'That's funny, that's the same way it is at home.' I just about fell down."

After all this time, George finally feels he can act now, and he has assumed a certain confidence. He still will say to you, though, "All this could stop tomorrow."

Cleveland Boy Wins Top Spot At Boys State

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Strong backing of a tough gun control proposal propelled a suburban Cleveland boy to the governorship of Buckeye Boys State Sunday.

Gregory R. Huth of Seven Hills, the Nationalist party's candidate, easily defeated Federalist David Wrikeman, 16, Poland, for the top spot in the 31st annual citizenship school sponsored by the American Legion. Huth received 856 of the 1,345 votes.

Huth, 16, strongly endorsed his party's platform, which contains strict gun control measures. Huth was the only Nationalist to win a top state office.

The Nationalist's platform calls for state-regulated gun stores as sole authorized retailers of firearms in Ohio. It also recommended a permit be secured from local authorities before firearms could be purchased and establishment of a cabinet-level officer to oversee gun control measures.

The Federalist adopted a milder gun control proposal. It asked that all firearms be registered and that proof of mental competency be proved by persons seeking to buy guns.

Elected lieutenant governor was Robert Ryan, 16, Columbus. He defeated Nationalist Luke Witte, 17, Alliance.

Other Federalists named to top spots were John Nutt, 17, Canton, secretary of state; Sergio De La Rocha, 16, Mount Vernon, treasurer; Larry E. Lang, 17, Groveport, auditor, and Paul W. Sylvester, 17, Cincinnati, attorney general.

Lang's twin brother, Gary, was elected a Supreme Court justice in nonpartisan balloting. Elected chief justice over six candidates was Benjamin F. Yaye, 16, Waynesfield.

Other justices elected to the court were Clifford Allen, 17, Youngstown; Dan E. Cox, 17, Warren; John W. Gundelsberger, 17, Sandusky; Jeffrey W. Johns, 16, Columbus; and Bill W. Steiner, 17, Lewisville.

Gov. James A. Rhodes is scheduled to speak to the boys tonight.

Talk Of Spreading 'Gospel' To U.S. Working Classes

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer

Leaders of the radical student group that disrupted college campuses across the country during the past year now are talking of spreading their gospel of revolution to America's working classes.

The objective, said one national officer of Students for a Democratic Society, is "an alliance between students and workers —like in France."

Carl Davidson, SDS national secretary, said as the first step an undisclosed number of SDS members are taking summer jobs in big-city factories and are moving into blue-collar neighborhoods.

"We will learn how the workers think and how they live," Davidson said. "Then we can organize."

SDS, which claims 35,000 members on more than 200 campuses, has made similar attempts at community organizing in the past—generally without success.

In 1963, it launched Economic Research and Action Projects (ERAP) in slum areas of 10 cities, but two years later dissolved the ERAP structure. "Our rhetoric sometimes gets ahead of our programs," Davidson said.

The renewed talk of expanding off campus follows two developments:

1. A year of unprecedented unrest on U.S. campuses, beginning with demonstrations against the Vietnam war and the military draft and ending with a paralyzing student strike at Columbia University.

2. The wave of disorders in France, sparked by a student-worker alliance that plunged President Charles de Gaulle's government into its gravest crisis.

Some SDS members contend the group should maintain its campus orientation, at least for present, and forget about trying to organize workers. Thus, the proposals for community organizing may touch off debate at an 11-hour plenary session today at the SDS' annual convention at Michigan State University, East Lansing. Newsmen covering this week's convention are handed a nine-point memorandum stating that no one can be quoted directly or indirectly. And reporters were excluded from two workshops Wednesday.

But in the days preceding the convention, The Associated Press interviewed scores of SDS officers and members from Brooklyn to Berkeley. The bold talk of converting SDS into a broadly based home for all radicals cropped up repeatedly in these interviews and in various SDS national office in Chicago dubbed "Discover America."

"You're not a student forever," Davidson said as he ate apple pie in a restaurant near the SDS national office in Cricago and talked of the off-campus organizing plans—a project he dubbed "Discover Amelica."

The 24-year-old Penn State graduate, who sports a shaggy mustache and wears heavy boots, plans to move to Philadelphia as an organizer after his term as national secretary ends this weekend.

"We're using draft resistance as the basis to get into the community," Davidson said, "but we hope the organizations will become multi-issue and will concern themselves with cops, welfare, rats and rent."

In a recent issue of the Guardian, a radical left weekly newspaper, Davidson summed up the goal. "It should be clear," he said, "that the aim of the resistance strategy is to transform itself into a class-conscious revolutionary socialist movement."

Steve Halliwell, a graduate student at Columbia and one of SDS' eight-at-large national officers, insisted SDS has "no blueprint" for the future.

"We want a free society," Haliwell said. "The shape of that society will be determined by men shaping their own lives. But we know this—capitalism will have to go."

And Hari Dillon, cochairman of the San Francisco State College SRS chapter, predicts the off-campus organizing efforts will spawn violence.

"As the student movement gets stronger and stronger and makes ties with the community," Dillon said, "those in power are going to smash down harder. They're not going to give up without violence."

As a guide for radical organizers, the SDS national office is distributing a 36-page document that suggests projects concentrate on "a distinguishable subculture in America . . . the poor, transitional, working class whites."

The document adds:

"We are talking about a large portion of the South's 40 million white people, who work in places like Durham, Birmingham, Memphis, Chattanooga, Nashville and Lawrenceburg; people in the Appalachian and border cities: Asheville, Knoxville, Wheeling, Beckley, Huntington, Charleston, Evansville, Indianapolis, Youngstown, Cincinnati, St. Louis . . .

" . . . People in Northern cities like Detroit, Benton Harbor, Flint, Cleveland, Columbus, Hammond and Chicago; Mid- and Southwestern cities like Kansas City, Topeka, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Omaha, Wichita, Houston and Dallas and . . . people who now live in Los Angeles, Bakersfield, Stockton, San Jose, Fremont, Oakland, Richmond and Sacramento."

To reach the target population, it suggests "men and women could work in factories where neighborhood people work; women could become waitresses in local cafes or retail clerks in local stores; men could work at the local gas station."

And it adds that organizers should try to make friends at "bars, pool halls, cafes, laundromats, service stations, small stores" because "it will be easier if the organizer understands the community and they trust him—someone who lives in the same place, works a similar job and has mutual friends can't be that bad or kooky."

The document concludes by exhorting radicals to "confront white America: give poor and working people an alternative . . . build for the revolution—it's out there."

But in Chicago, Bruce Porlmann has discovered what SDS members can expect when they try to sell ideas like these to the average worker.

Pohlmann, a thin 18-year-old youth with just a trace of a mustache, said he got a job in a hot dog stand and started talking to fellow workers about racism and the war in Vietnam.

Their reactions suprised him. "That job didn't last long," Pohlmann said. "Things got so tough I had to quit."

Now, he said, he has a new job unloading paper at a printing company. And he has a new strategy: "I'm not going to push any issues until I'm ready. I've decided to be very cool and easy about it."

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Knee Dislocation Is Uncommon

Q—What would cause a person's bones to go out of joint? First it was my shoulder, then my knee and then my ankle.

A — A dislocation occurs when a long bone is forced into an unnatural position and the joint capsule tears, allowing the bone to leave the joint. True dislocation of the knee is rare, but locking of this joint due to a torn knee cartilage is common and is often erroneously called dislocation of the knee. If you are an accident - prone person, you should learn to relax when you fall, like a professional tumbler, or avoid rough sports.

Dr. Brandstadt

Q—My husband has water on his knee. What causes it and can anything be done for it?

A—Water on the knee is an accumulation of synovial fluid in the joint, due to inflammation. Various treatments have been used, depending on individual circumstances. These include keeping the knee elevated and applying ice bags for two or three days, withdrawing the fluid and injecting hydrocortisone into the joint or, in chronic cases (those of at least three years' duration), injecting a colloidal radioactive gold solution.

Q—What are the symptoms of a torn cartilage in the knee? What is the best treatment for it?

A—A torn cartilage in the knee will cause intermittent attacks of locking of the joint, pain and an accumulation of fluid in the joint. X-ray films are negative because they do not show soft parts (skin, blood vessels, nerves, tendons, muscles and cartilage). Once torn, a cartilage rarely heals and the only cure is surgical removal of the torn fragment. Whether this needs to be done or not depends on how much trouble the knee is giving you and how well you can manage with ice packs, rest and protective bandaging.

Q—During an operation (arthrodesis), a screw was placed in my ankle bone. How can I tell when the screw should be removed? If some pain returns, would this be caused by the screw?

A—Arthrodesis is a surgical freezing or immobilizing of a joint. When a screw is driven into a bone, it is often left there for life. Any decision to remove it should be left up to your surgeon. Pain in the ankle following this operation might be from a variety of causes but it is most unlikely that it is caused by the screw.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M. D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Pennsylvania School Bill Slated For House Action

HARRISBURG (AP) — The bill to aid nonpublic schools, which would cost $4.3 million as passed by the Senate returns this week to the House, where it began as a 27 million measure.

Te House must decide whether to accept the Senate amendments that drastically cut the bill or insist on its original version. The latter move would send the legislation to a joint conference committee.

"I will vote to concur, but, of course, this issue crosses party lines,' said Lee A. Donaldson, R-Allegheny and House Majority Leader. He added that he hoped the bill would be called to a vote today.

The Shafer administration and the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference — prime supporter of nonpublic school aid — endorsed the Senate amendments.

However, Rep. Martin P. Mullen, D-Philadelphia, and leading legislative spokesman for such aid, called the Senate version inadequate.

The Senate amendments shifted the method of financing the bill from the cigarette tax to harness and horse racing.

If passed the bill would be funded beginning July 1 from $4.3 million in harness racing revenue. That sport would continue to supplement the cost until the newly legalized sport of thoroughbred racing reached 10 million when it would assume full financial responsibility.

The legislation also would allocate 50 per cent of any excess above $10 million to the nonprofit private and parochial schools.

Under the provisions of the legislation, the state would reimburse nonpublic schools for the teaching of modern foreign languages, physical sciences, mathematics and physical education. The reimbursement would be determined by the non public school cost in teachers salaries, textbooks and other instructional materials.

Both Houses return at 3 p.m. today.

George Likes Being Goober

George Likes Being Goober

It's better to be an "is" than a "never was," according to George Lindsey. That's why he's so happy he "is" Goober Pyle on the Andy Griffith Show and will go right on playing Goober when Andy leaves it this fall and comes "Mayberry R.F.D." the series be- and stars Ken Berry

Hal Humphrey

"I've loved every minute of the four years as Goober, and can't wait to get back to work next month. I just play the fire out of that role. When I'm not workin' I go down to the set anyway. It's that kind of place," says George, who really must be Goober.

-:-

MOST ACTORS by now would be sick of a role like the simple Goober, and the fact the fans knew him by that name instead of his real one. George doesn't look at it that way, as you plainly can see.

"I was not doing so hot as George Lindsey, I'll tell you that," says George. "I was so hard up for a job at one point, I carried the letter 'Q' in Mike Todd's birthday party at Madison Square Garden. We were pluggin' his next picture which was to be 'Don Quixote,' and we paraded around the Garden carrying these big cut-out letters spelling it out.

"My first job on TV was playin' one of the liars on 'To Tell the Truth.' I got $80 and $10 in cosmetics, and my agent took $8 of that. For six weeks I was in an off-broadway show, and the only money I got was $2, which was the one night they split up the box office among the actors."

GEORGE wanted to be as actor almost right from the start in his home town of Jasper, Ala., which is only about 60 miles from Sylacauga, Fla., where Jim Nabors was born. (Nabors played Gomer Pyle, Goober's cousin in the Andy Griffith Show.)

"I finally quit coachin' and teachin' 11th-grade history at Hazel Green High School in Huntsville and took the wife and went to New York. I wanted to be an actor so bad, I had ulcers for five years. My wife, Joy, supported us, working for the Girl Scouts."

He studied at the American Theater Wing in New York, but was the only Shakespearean actor with baggy tights ("It just wasn't my thing, I guess"). Then he played little resorts in the Adirondacks and finally was spotted and given an audition for the Broadway show, "All-American" with Ray Bolger.

-:-

"THE AUDITION lasted three months, but I finally got the job and six months' work, and got my ulcer quieted down," George recalls.

He wound up in California after a tour with an automobile show, and Sheldeon Leonard put him in a pilot film for TV called "My 15 Blocks." It never sold.

Later Sheldon auditioned George for the role of Gomer Pyle in the Andy Griffith Show, but Jim Nabors got the job. This was two years before George got to be cousin Goober — after Gomer left to star in his own series.

"Andy Griffith turned out to be the greatest teacher I've ever had. He kept tellin' me to play myself, to let it happen to me, instead of trying to be funny. Finally, one day, Andy wasn't watchin' me any more and I figured I'd really done it.

"I went to school with Andy for two years, you might say, and am I goin' to miss him, you ask? That's like sayin' am I goin' to miss my wife and kids," says George.

BACK IN JASPER, Ala., the townsfolk have held several "Goober"days for their conquering hero, but a lot of them still haven't figured out how George can make a living just working 30 minutes a week, and they keep asking his mother about it.

"My mother is funnier than I am," says George. "She was out here visitin' us and asked my wife one night which direction was north. Joy pointed to the north and then said, 'And that's south and there is east and west.'

"My mother says, 'That's funny, that's the same way it is at home.' I just about fell down."

After all this time, George finally feels he can act now, and he has assumed a certain confidence. He still will say to you, though, "All this could stop tomorrow."

Cleveland Boy Wins Top Spot At Boys State

ATHENS, Ohio (AP)—Strong backing of a tough gun control proposal propelled a suburban Cleveland boy to the governorship of Buckeye Boys State Sunday.

Gregory R. Huth of Seven Hills, the Nationalist party's candidate, easily defeated Federalist David Wrikeman, 16, Poland, for the top spot in the 31st annual citizenship school sponsored by the American Legion. Huth received 856 of the 1,345 votes.

Huth, 16, strongly endorsed his party's platform, which contains strict gun control measures. Huth was the only Nationalist to win a top state office.

The Nationalist's platform calls for state-regulated gun stores as sole authorized retailers of firearms in Ohio. It also recommended a permit be secured from local authorities before firearms could be purchased and establishment of a cabinet-level officer to oversee gun control measures.

The Federalist adopted a milder gun control proposal. It asked that all firearms be registered and that proof of mental competency be proved by persons seeking to buy guns.

Elected lieutenant governor was Robert Ryan, 16, Columbus. He defeated Nationalist Luke Witte, 17, Alliance.

Other Federalists named to top spots were John Nutt, 17, Canton, secretary of state; Sergio De La Rocha, 16, Mount Vernon, treasurer; Larry E. Lang, 17, Groveport, auditor, and Paul W. Sylvester, 17, Cincinnati, attorney general.

Lang's twin brother, Gary, was elected a Supreme Court justice in nonpartisan balloting. Elected chief justice over six candidates was Benjamin F. Yaye, 16, Waynesfield.

Other justices elected to the court were Clifford Allen, 17, Youngstown; Dan E. Cox, 17, Warren; John W. Gundelsberger, 17, Sandusky; Jeffrey W. Johns, 16, Columbus; and Bill W. Steiner, 17, Lewisville.

Gov. James A. Rhodes is scheduled to speak to the boys tonight.

The Radical Students

Talk Of Spreading 'Gospel' To U.S. Working Classes

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer

Leaders of the radical student group that disrupted college campuses across the country during the past year now are talking of spreading their gospel of revolution to America's working classes.

The objective, said one national officer of Students for a Democratic Society, is "an alliance between students and workers—like in France."

Carl Davidson, SDS national secretary, said as the first step an undisclosed number of SDS members are taking summer jobs in big-city factories and are moving into blue-collar neighborhoods.

"We will learn how the workers think and how they live," Davidson said. "Then we can organize."

SDS, which claims 35,000 members on more than 200 campuses, has made similar attempts at community organizing in the past—generally without success.

In 1963, it launched Economic Research and Action Projects (ERAP) in slum areas of 10 cities, but two years later dissolved the ERAP structure. "Our rhetoric sometimes gets ahead of our programs," Davidson said.

The renewed talk of expanding off campus follows two developments:

1. A year of unprecedented unrest on U.S. campuses, beginning with demonstrations against the Vietnam war and the military draft and ending with a paralyzing student strike at Columbia University.

2. The wave of disorders in France, sparked by a student-worker alliance that plunged President Charles de Gaulle's government into its gravest crisis.

Some SDS members contend the group should maintain its campus orientation, at least for present, and forget about trying to organize workers. Thus, the proposals for community organizing may touch off debate at an 11-hour plenary session today at the SDS' annual convention at Michigan State University, East Lansing. Newsmen covering this week's convention are handed a nine-point memorandum stating that no one can be quoted directly or indirectly. And reporters were excluded from two workshops Wednesday.

But in the days preceding the convention, The Associated Press interviewed scores of SDS officers and members from Brooklyn to Berkeley. The bold talk of converting SDS into a broadly based home for all radicals cropped up repeatedly in these interviews and in various SDS national office in Chicago dubbed "Discover America."

"You're not a student forever," Davidson said as he ate apple pie in a restaurant near the SDS national office in Cricago and talked of the off-campus organizing plans—a project he dubbed "Discover Amelica."

The 24-year-old Penn State graduate, who sports a shaggy mustache and wears heavy boots, plans to move to Philadelphia as an organizer after his term as national secretary ends this weekend.

"We're using draft resistance as the basis to get into the community," Davidson said, "but we hope the organizations will become multi-issue and will concern themselves with cops, welfare, rats and rent."

In a recent issue of the Guardian, a radical left weekly newspaper, Davidson summed up the goal. "It should be clear," he said, "that the aim of the resistance strategy is to transform itself into a class-conscious revolutionary socialist movement."

Steve Halliwell, a graduate student at Columbia and one of SDS' eight-at-large national officers, insisted SDS has "no blueprint" for the future.

"We want a free society," Haliwell said. "The shape of that society will be determined by men shaping their own lives. But we know this—capitalism will have to go."

And Hari Dillon, cochairman of the San Francisco State College SRS chapter, predicts the off-campus organizing efforts will spawn violence.

"As the student movement gets stronger and stronger and makes ties with the community," Dillon said, "those in power are going to smash down harder. They're not going to give up without violence."

As a guide for radical organizers, the SDS national office is distributing a 36-page document that suggests projects concentrate on "a distinguishable subculture in America . . . the poor, transitional, working class whites."

The document adds:

"We are talking about a large portion of the South's 40 million white people, who work in places like Durham, Birmingham, Memphis, Chattanooga, Nashville and Lawrenceburg; people in the Appalachian and border cities: Asheville, Knoxville, Wheeling, Beckley, Huntington, Charleston, Evansville, Indianapolis, Youngstown, Cincinnati, St. Louis . . .

" . . . People in Northern cities like Detroit, Benton Harbor, Flint, Cleveland, Columbus, Hammond and Chicago; Mid- and Southwestern cities like Kansas City, Topeka, Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Omaha, Wichita, Houston and Dallas and . . . people who now live in Los Angeles, Bakersfield, Stockton, San Jose, Fremont, Oakland, Richmond and Sacramento."

To reach the target population, it suggests "men and women could work in factories where neighborhood people work; women could become waitresses in local cafes or retail clerks in local stores; men could work at the local gas station."

And it adds that organizers should try to make friends at "bars, pool halls, cafes, laundromats, service stations, small stores" because "it will be easier if the organizer understands the community and they trust him—someone who lives in the same place, works a similar job and has mutual friends can't be that bad or kooky."

The document concludes by exhorting radicals to "confront white America: give poor and working people an alternative . . . build for the revolution—it's out there."

But in Chicago, Bruce Porlmann has discovered what SDS members can expect when they try to sell ideas like these to the average worker.

Pohlmann, a thin 18-year-old youth with just a trace of a mustache, said he got a job in a hot dog stand and started talking to fellow workers about racism and the war in Vietnam.

Their reactions suprised him. "That job didn't last long," Pohlmann said. "Things got so tough I had to quit."

Now, he said, he has a new job unloading paper at a printing company. And he has a new strategy: "I'm not going to push any issues until I'm ready. I've decided to be very cool and easy about it."

The DOCTOR Says

By Dr. W. G. Brandstadt

Knee Dislocation Is Uncommon

Q—What would cause a person's bones to go out of joint? First it was my shoulder, then my knee and then my ankle.

Dr. Brandstadt

A — A dislocation occurs when a long bone is forced into an unnatural position and the joint capsule tears, allowing the bone to leave the joint. True dislocation of the knee is rare, but locking of this joint due to a torn knee cartilage is common and is often erroneously called dislocation of the knee. If you are an accident - prone person, you should learn to relax when you fall, like a professional tumbler, or avoid rough sports.

Q—My husband has water on his knee. What causes it and can anything be done for it?

A—Water on the knee is an accumulation of synovial fluid in the joint, due to inflammation. Various treatments have been used, depending on individual circumstances. These include keeping the knee elevated and applying ice bags for two or three days, withdrawing the fluid and injecting hydrocortisone into the joint or, in chronic cases (those of at least three years' duration), injecting a colloidal radioactive gold solution.

Q—What are the symptoms of a torn cartilage in the knee? What is the best treatment for it?

A—A torn cartilage in the knee will cause intermittent attacks of locking of the joint, pain and an accumulation of fluid in the joint. X-ray films are negative because they do not show soft parts (skin, blood vessels, nerves, tendons, muscles and cartilage). Once torn, a cartilage rarely heals and the only cure is surgical removal of the torn fragment. Whether this needs to be done or not depends on how much trouble the knee is giving you and how well you can manage with ice packs, rest and protective bandaging.

Q—During an operation (arthrodesis), a screw was placed in my ankle bone. How can I tell when the screw should be removed? If some pain returns, would this be caused by the screw?

A—Arthrodesis is a surgical freezing or immobilizing of a joint. When a screw is driven into a bone, it is often left there for life. Any decision to remove it should be left up to your surgeon. Pain in the ankle following this operation might be from a variety of causes but it is most unlikely that it is caused by the screw.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M. D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Cut By Senate

Pennsylvania School Bill Slated For House Action

HARRISBURG (AP) — The bill to aid nonpublic schools, which would cost $4.3 million as passed by the Senate returns this week to the House, where it began as a 27 million measure.

Te House must decide whether to accept the Senate amendments that drastically cut the bill or insist on its original version. The latter move would send the legislation to a joint conference committee.

"I will vote to concur, but, of course, this issue crosses party lines,' said Lee A. Donaldson, R-Allegheny and House Majority Leader. He added that he hoped the bill would be called to a vote today.

The Shafer administration and the Pennsylvania Catholic Conference — prime supporter of nonpublic school aid — endorsed the Senate amendments.

However, Rep. Martin P. Mullen, D-Philadelphia, and leading legislative spokesman for such aid, called the Senate version inadequate.

The Senate amendments shifted the method of financing the bill from the cigarette tax to harness and horse racing.

If passed the bill would be funded beginning July 1 from $4.3 million in harness racing revenue. That sport would continue to supplement the cost until the newly legalized sport of thoroughbred racing reached 10 million when it would assume full financial responsibility.

The legislation also would allocate 50 per cent of any excess above $10 million to the nonprofit private and parochial schools.

Under the provisions of the legislation, the state would reimburse nonpublic schools for the teaching of modern foreign languages, physical sciences, mathematics and physical education. The reimbursement would be determined by the non public school cost in teachers salaries, textbooks and other instructional materials.

Both Houses return at 3 p.m. today.

M & A DODGE MINI-PROFIT USED CARS

A Mini-Profit Used Car is one that runs better and costs less.

It runs better because we sell it. We won't sell it until it passes a rigorous physical examination.

It costs less because we sell it, too. We sell a lot more cars — new and used — because we're willing to make just a Mini-Profit on each one.

Add it up and you'll see that a Mini- Profit Used Car saves you more than anything you ever bargained for.

THIS IS TRUE.

M & A DODGE MINI-PROFIT USED CARS

A Mini-Profit Used Car is one that runs better and costs less.
It runs better because we sell it. We won't sell it until it passes a rigorous physical examination.
It costs less because we sell it, too. We sell a lot more cars — new and used — because we're willing to make just a Mini-Profit on each one.
Add it up and you'll see that a Mini- Profit Used Car saves you more than anything you ever bargained for.
THIS IS TRUE.

Junior Editors Quiz on NEON LIGHT

QUESTION: How does a neon light glow without a filament inside?

ANSWER: "A regular, incandescent light bulb," explains science-specialist John, "has a fine tungsten wire or filament inside, which resists the passage of the electric current. That's what makes the bulb glow. A neon light in a long glass tube (upper picture) is different. The air has been taken out of the tube and neon gas put in. The tube has electric connections at each end. A current jumps from the cathode, or negative end, through the tube to the anode or positive end. The electricity knocks electrons out of the neon gas atoms. As they bounce back they give out brilliant red light. This makes the tube glow. Chemicals can be put in the gas to get other colors; a little mercury will make the color brilliant blue. It's because they are so bright that neon lights are used so much for advertising signs. Not all the lights we are looking at are neons; there are rows of incandescent bulbs, too. Neon lights are often used for airplane beacons because they're so bright they can be seen through 20 miles of fog."

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Monday, June 17, the 169th day of 1968. There are 197 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1775, the Battle of Bunker Hill was fought in the Revolutionary War. Outnumbered Americans repulsed the British twice but finally retreated.

On this date:

In 1940, France asked Germany for peace terms in World War II.

In 1943, the Italian city of Naples and the island of Sicily were pounded by Allied bombers.

In 1959, Eamon De Valera was elected president of the Irish Republic after serving more than 20 years as prime minister.

In 1963, a U.S. Supreme Court ruling banned the required recitation of the Lord's Prayer or Bible verses in public schools.

Ten years ago—An unfinished bridge collapsed at Vancouver, B.C. killing 18 workmen.

Five years ago — British Prime Minister Harold MacMillan won a vote in Parliament in the John Profumo and Christine Keeler scandal, but MacMillan's position was shaken.

One year ago — Communist China announced it had exploded its first hydrogen bomb. It was the sixth Chinese nuclear test.
